wished, those whose delight it is to dwell in the "glittering palaces of sin" be more attractive for the young or the old than the real home.

The Chicago mugwump press, metaphorically speaking, holds up its hands in holy horror about the alleged propensity to prostitute the different boards and commissions in Illinois by making them political machines.

William J. Bryan, in a dispatch to the New York World, admits that the story of an offer by Aginaldo's agents to take a hand in last year's campaign was substantially correct.

It may be well to recall the fact that the people in 1892 sought "the markets of the world" under the promise of the Democratic party that free trade would open the way.

FOR SALE CHEAP.

A lot of household goods and a good spring wagon. I also have storage rooms for rent for furniture etc.

D. G. Graham has legal blanks and all facilities for execution of wills and has had years of successful experience in that line.
