owners Grove Reporter By HUGH M. WHITE.

DOWNERS GROVE

Items of General Interest Told in

COMPLETE NEWS SUMMARY.

Paragraphs.

Record of Empresings of Much or Little Importance from All Parts of the Civlitzed World-Incidents. Enterprises, Accidents, Verdicts. Crimes and Wars

Johann Most is arrested at Corona L. I., while addressing an anarchist meeting of 500 persons in a saloon. Pet elk in Brooklyn park attacks and fatally gores its keeper. French Benevolent Society of New York will build $500,000 hospital.

Mrs. McKinley, upon the advice o Dr. Rixey, takes a drive, paying a visit to West Lawn Cemetery, where the President is buried.

The expense incurred by the death of President McKinley, including medical services and the funeral, will be met by Congress through a special prorision. Aid will also be given Mrs. bcKinley. Helen A. Bloodgood, young daughter of New York people, started on a shopping trip four days ago and has dropped completely out of sight, the $3.25@4.80; Texans and Indians, $2.70@3.7 case baffling the best detectives of the city.

General Frederick Funston has undergone a successful operation for appendicitis at Manila and it is believed he will recover.

General Kitchener reports heavy losses in a party of Lovatt's scouts, who were surprised by the Boer general, Kritzinger, near Herschell, Friday morning.

United States transport Buford is stranded on a sand bar off the island of Mindanao and it is feared she will be wrecked if a typhoon should sweep the coast.

Czar says Turkish atrocities in Armenia must stop; that the people must accept Russian protection or be exterminated.

Candidacy of Tomas Estrada Palma for presidency of Cuba with support of all political parties will be annunced this week and his election seems as-Colombian agent sent to the United States to buy two gunboats. Thirty-two persons killed in a train wreck at Paloia, Roumania.

Woman's building at the State Fair grounds, Springfield, Ill., destroyed by fire, which started while a cooking school was in progress. Panic caused among young women students. Government officials setzed $200,000 at Huntington, W. Va., which it as asserted was part of the money embezzled by Captain O. M. Carter. It was in possession of his brother.

Four men killed in a railroad wreck at Wayne, Mich. Drunken soldier at Fort Meade killed a comrade. Daniel C. Brown of Carlinville, Ill. shoots wife, father-in-law and him-

Insurance managers in annual convention at Frontenac, N. Y., suspended operations during the hour of the President's funeral and adopted appropriate resolutions. Duke of York given degree of LL. D. by McGill University at Montreal.

British torpedo boat destroyer Cobra, the fatest vessel in the world. strikes a rock in the North Sea, ex plodes and sinks with the loss of sixtyfive lives.

Explosion of gas at the department store of A. M. Rothschild & Co. a Chicago wrecks a huge wall, causing a ions of $250,000. Several persons receive slight injuries.

Fire in the five-story building a 280-288 Madison street, Chicago, occupied by Florsheim & Co. and other tenants, caused a loss of $100,000. Crar and Czarina of Russia arrived at Dunkirk, where they were received by President Loubet. Czar reviewed French war fleet. British cruiser Indefatigable went ashore in St. Lawrence river near Quebec. Ship injured on the rocks. Colombian rebels and Venezuelans occupied La Hacha after government troops withdrew.

Buffalo Exposition was closed Thursday during the McKinley funeral. the operation of railways stopped for | view, to be a brigadier general, vice funeral Thursday.

Rapids, Mich., fell from a train at | ment. Roberts, Ill., and was instantly killed Western Society of the Army of the Potomac passed resolutions advising the banishment of anarchists.

Isaac Stephenson has offered $30,000 Marinette, Wis., for a library buildng on condition that the city bond trelf to appropriate $3,000 a year for naintenance. The council has unanimously accepted the offer.

The bodies of three men were found n the debris of an ore train that was wrecked on the Escanaba and Lake uperior railroad some days ago.

Virginia constitutional convention eted provision for free speech in bill of rights, because of the Presi eputy Police Commissioner W. er of New York was arrested red with oppression and neglect nty. Accused by a policeman he had fived

KILLS ONE, WOUNDS ANOTHER.

Farmer Near Pontiac, Ill., Fires on Mon With Fatal Results.

E. G. Richter shot and killed James Thompson and fatally wounded Sam England on his farm six miles north of Pontiac, Ill. Thompson and Eng. land were gathering nuts on Richter's farm and were ordered off. Some words then passed between them, when Richter, who is quick tempered, shot Thompson in the head with a revolver, his victim dying almost instantly. England then stepped aside, but Richter fired on him also and it is feared he cannot survive. Richter left the place of shooting and tried to escape, but Sheriff Talbott caught Richter and placed him in jail. Richter has always been considered a very dangerous character in and around Cornell and will undoubtedly plead in sanity, as he has been confined twice at the asylum at Kankakee, as has also his wife. A brother about five years ago killed his mother and committed suicide in the county jail here while awaiting trial. Thompson, who leaves a wife and two children, is also a bad character, having killed a mar in Ohio.

LATEST MARKET QUOTATIONS

Spring wheat.-No. 1 northern, 69%@ 70%c; No. 2 northern, 69@70%c; No. spring, 67@681/2c. Winter wheat-No. red, 71971%c: No. 3 red, 69970c; No. hard, 69%c; No. 3 hard, 68%@69%c; No. hard, 69%c. Corn-No. 4, 57%c; No. 57%c; No. 3, 57%@57%c; No. 3 yellow, 57 @584c; No. 2 yellow. 58@584c; No. white, 581/40591/c. Oats-No. 4 white, 37 @37%c; No. 3, 36@37c; No. 3 white, 37%@ 381/2c; No. 2 white, 38@381/2c. Cattle-Choice export and dressed been steers, $5.75@6.25; fair to good, $4.90@5.65 stockers and feeders, $3@4.25; western fed steers, $4.85@5.80; western range steers, Texas cows, $2.1062.80; native cows, $2.500 4.25; heifers, $3@5.50; bulls, $2.25@4.25 caives, $3.50@5.50. Hogs-Heavy, $6.8 @6.85 mixed packers, $6.50@6.80; light, $6@6.70 pigs,: $4.70@6.10. Sheep-Lambs, $4@4.6 western wethers, $3.25@3.65; ewes, $2.70@ 3.25; feeders, $3@3.40; stock sheep, $2@2.7 Beans-Pea beans, hand-picked, $2.25; medium, hand-picked, $2.18/22.22. Butter-Creamery, extra choice, 20c; seconds, 146 14%c; dairies, choice, 17c; packing, fresh, 121/c; ladles, 136/131/c. Cheese-New goods; Full cream daisies, choice, 10%@10%c; Young Americas, 104@10%c; long horns, 10%@fle; twins, 9%@flec. Eggs-15%@f6c; Green fruits-Apples, bris, red streak, $2.50 @2.75; green cooking, $1.50@2; common stock, $161.50.

Fusion Ticket in Nebraska. Fusion between the Democratic and Populist parties of Nebraska was ef fected by their state convention after sessions held in separate halls at Lincoln. The Democrats were given the head of the ticket, Supreme Court justice and the two regents of the university go to the Populists. The Democrats declared themselves opposed to any reorganization of the party or an change in principles. Nominations. For Supreme Court justice, Conrad Hollenbick; for university regent, J. H. Boyston; for university regent, F. G. Hawxby.

Cashier Said to have Absconded. The steamer Hal Ting arrived at Vancouver, B. C., from Skagway, bringing a report of the alleged absconding of Edward Daniel, cashier for Barsh & Co., merchants of Dawson, with a sum of money variously estimated at from $35,000 to $50,000. Danlel is said to have been taken in charge on the American side near Eagle City, Alaska, and he will probably return to Dawson to stand trial, Kills Her Father-in Law.

Mrs. Lena Fair shot and killed her father-in-law, Michael Fair, at their home in South Cheyenne, Wyo, Mrs. Fair is a girl 20 years old. She says Fair, who was past 50, threatened to kill her and that when she fired he had one hand one her throat and with ver. The police found a revolver in nominations said the simple services. | pages, while to convey an adequate the hip pocket of the dead man. Mrs. Fair was arrested.

Thieves Baid Nebraska Bank. Robbers blew open the safe of the Republican City (Neb.) bank and se cured over $1,000 in cash, besides many valuable papers. The safe, a large one, was almost completely de molished, parts of the money chest being blown through the outer wall or the Sunbury restaurant, seventy feet distant, where seven persons were sleeping.

Preacher Gets Life Post. Rev. Dr. D. S. Stafford has been ap pointed the irremovable pastor of St Patrick's Roman Catholic church in Washington, D. C. St. Patrick's parish is the richest in Washington, the church owning real estate worth 34. 000,000. Dr. Stafford is noted for his oratory and scholarship. He was warm friend of President McKinley.

Bell Is Brigadier General.

The president has appointed Col James M. Beil, Eighth Cavalry and Work in factories of many cities and president of the military board of rea few minutes during the McKinley Brigadier General Ludiow, deceased Gen. Bell will retire about Oct. 1, thus Hugh Flynn, aged 24 years, of Grand | leaving a vacancy for another appoint-

Fire Visits Kansas Town.

Almost the entire business part of Effingham, twenty miles west of Atchison, Kan., was wiped out by fire, over a dozen buildings, including Wolverton's general store and the National Washing Machine Company's factory being destroyed. Estimated loss, $50, Town Oil Fields Exhausted. The town lot oil field in the Rife addition on the Hartford City (Ind.) limits is very nearly exhausted. From one to two wells were drilled on every lot. In nearly every instance a paying well was found and rigs were almost as thick as trees in a forest. Being so close together and worked for their product night and day has had a telling effect and the production has fallen off to an alarming extent. Wells operated in the town lot addition that were then pure producers have since been plugged and abandoned.

HE SLEEPS IN PEACE

Imposing Funeral Ceremonies Precede Interment of Mc-Kinley at Canton.

of Westlawn cemetery, in a vine-cov- appeared, its blooms, however, to be ered vault, almost buried in a sloping guarded for years as mementos of this hillside, all that is earthly of William day of sorrow. McKinley now rests. About the flowerstrewn slopes a picket line of soldiers stands silent in the shadows.

Whole Day Given to Grief. All day Thursday muffled drums beat their requiems, brasses wailed out the strains of marches of the dead, great men of the nation followed a funeral car in grief and tears. Through solid banks of bareheaded men and by a wall of soldiers, marching military and civilians passed with the mourners of the distinguished dead. First among those who followed the dead during the journey from the home to the tomb was the man who is weeping women and children, fringed

now at the head of the government. Mrs. McKinley Nears Collapse. Mrs. McKinley was unable to attend | hills about the city. the funeral. While the last rites were being said she remained in a room of the family home, dazed, not realizing almost paralyzed mentally. During the morning, at her urgent request, she had cared for and protected her; near from the guns above. tae dead for whom grief has burned into the soul of a country the lessons of manliness and beneficence taught by the vault. Five infantrymen marched Figal Ceremonies Impressive.

The last ceremonies for the late president were marked with a dignity that struck dumbness to the tens of thousands who watched the funeral column make the journey from the home to the cemetery. From the south parlor of the frame house which had so long been the family home the casket was borne to the First Methodist church at Canton, with statesmen, diplomats, great men of nation, representatives of the world, gathered the most imposing and impressive fuwith the surrounding members of the | nerals ever seen in the United States. family. Ministers of five religious de- | To fill in all its details would take

Out under the whispering oak trees | of the vault the flower carpet had dis-

Just without the entrance to this mausoleum stood the new president of the United States. The coifin rested on supports only a hand's reach from him. Then the members of the cabinet formed an open line with him, and members of the family-all save the lone woman who was in the home under the close watch of Dr. Rixeygathered near. "Earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust," came the benediction from the lips of the venerable

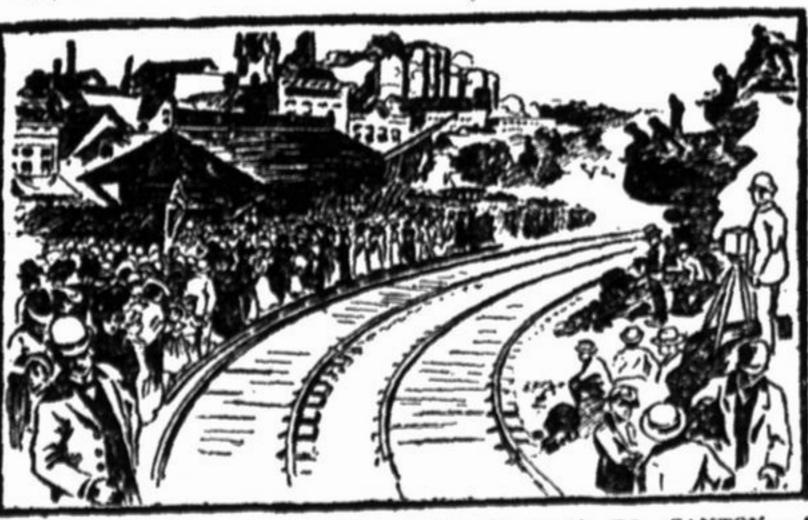

Bishop Joyce. The roar of the cannon ecnoed from the hilltop just above. It came as a mighty "amen." Again the whitehaired minister spoke. Again came the crashing roar of the salute, its reverberations beating on and on over the "Taps" Sounded by Bugler. "Taps," the saddest call the bugle language of the army knows, came that death had come to her husband, from eight bugles. The last notes were held until the breath of the wind seemed to rob them of life. Away sat alone for a time beside the cof- down the broad street, two miles away, fin as it lay in the south parlor of the marching columns were still comthe house. No one seeks to lift the ing. The music of the bands, mutcd, veil that is drawn over this scene it seemed, by some giant hand, came about the bier of the last earthly floating to the group about the vaultsleep. The casket was not opened. "Nearer, My God, to Thee, Nearer to But she was near the one who ever Thee." Once again came the crash

Door Is Closed Upon Martyr. Then the casket was carried within behind it. A moment passed and the outer doors were closed. The last ceremony was over; the third martyred president of the United States had been committed to God and eternity. Slowly the marching column treaded about the crescent road to the left of the temporary tomb. Then darkness threw its veil over all, the silen guards took their stations, the cem etery gates were closed. Never Mourning More Sincere. That is the bare outline of one of

TO CANTON -FUNERAL TRAIN EN ROUTE FROM WASHINGTON SCENE AT A WAY STATION.

Great Throng Joins in Hymn.

Troops banked the streets about, but the thousands who had gathered near and stood in places for five hours held taeir ground, catching up the broken strains of "Nearer, My God, to Thee." The silence of calm had come; the si lence of supreme excitement had passed. "It was not at him," said the minister of the church, all but hidden from sight by the mountains of blooms and floral pieces that bound in the pulpit and choir loft, "that the fatal shot was fired, but at the heart of our govwill seek in vain, to fathom the enorcrime."

New President in Tears.

These words brought home with crushing force the warning that the those who sat with bowed heads was President Roosevelt. The tears welled | kerchief to his eyes. into his eyes as he heard the petitions that God might guide his hands aright. Then came the last stage of this journey to the city of the dead. Members of the United States senate, those who sit in the house of representatives, officials and citizens from practically every state in the union, soldiers, military organizations-a column of more than 6,000 men followed the funeral car on this last journey.

Path is Carpeted in Flowers. The skies were hidden by clouds ony was spared her.

of gray, but not a drop of rain fell. The path of flagging leading to the fron-gated vault was buried beneath a covering of blooms. This carpet of flowers came as an offering fron the school children of Nashville, Tenn. But the men of the war days of forty years ago, with whom the martyred president had marched in his youth, passed up this road before the funeral car approached. They caught up the flowers as they passed, pressing them to their lips. Just ahead of the hearse marched the handful of survivors of the late president's own regiment. They, too, gathered up the blooms as they limped by.

Mooms Taken as Mementos. So it happened that when the men of the army and of the navy carried most conspicuous—the depth and silence of the grief displayed-is beyond words. In that respect it was the scenes of Wednesday enacted over again with increased intensity. All along through the great black lane of people that stretched from the Mc-Kinley home to the cemetery-quite through the same doorway of black. two miles-were men and women weeping as though their dearest friend was being horne to the grave.

Every Eye Dim With Tears. About the tomb itself the outburst ernment." Then he added: "In all of grief was still more striking. As the coming years men will seek, but | the casket was borne into the vault there was not a member of the cabinet mity and the wickedness of that who was not visibly affected, while several were in tears, with their handkerchiefs to their eyes. Secretary Root, although controlling himself to some degree of outward calm. last scenes were being enacted. Among | was deeply moved, while President Rooseveit repeatedly pressed his hand-

Great Picture of Desolation.

Among the bystanders many scarcely made an effort to conceal their emotion. It was a scene under the cheerless gray skies and in the bleak wind, as cold as a November day, that even the radiant glory of all the great mass of flowers could not relieve—the picture of all of sorrow and desolation that death leaves in its wake. As the one on whom this terrible blow falls bardest was not there this ag-

Will Steep in Hed of Granite.

Here in this vine-covered vault the remains of President McKinley will lie until they are buried in granite. There remain now only the plans for a monument to his memory. Already these are under way. Thursday morning Speaker Henderson of the house of representatives, accompanied by Congressman S. E. Payne of New York, and Congressman Dalzell of Pennsy vania, were driven to Westlawn cemetery and viewed the location of the McKinley plot.

Congress to Build a Monument. The newer part of the cemetery was also visited, and although the statement is not definitely made, it is suggested that the coming session of conthe black casket within the shadow grees will probably appropriate funds for the erection of a monument. The plans and details are as yet embryonic, but will assume definite proportions in a week or two.

Scenes at the Church.

It was 1:50 o'clock when the pro- sion was as follows: cession reached the stately stone edifice where the funeral services were to be held. At the church entrance were drawn up deep files of soldiers, with bayonets advanced, keeping a clear area for the advancing casket and the long train of mourners. The hearse halted while President Roosevelt and members of the cabinet anighted. Again they grouped themselves at either side of the entrance, and with uncovered heads awaited the passing of the casket. Then the flower-covered coffin was brought from the hearse and as it passed within the black-draped entrance the president and his cabinet followed within the Members of Congress Enter, At the rear of each of the four aisles stood a soldier at attention, cap in neral train then were seated. Senator. and Mrs. Fairbanks came first, followed by Controller Charles Gates Dawes. Senator Hanna followed. He looked worn and leaned on his cane. Mrs. Hanna accompanied him. Then the black-gloved ushers seated the other members of the party.

The formation of the funeral proces-

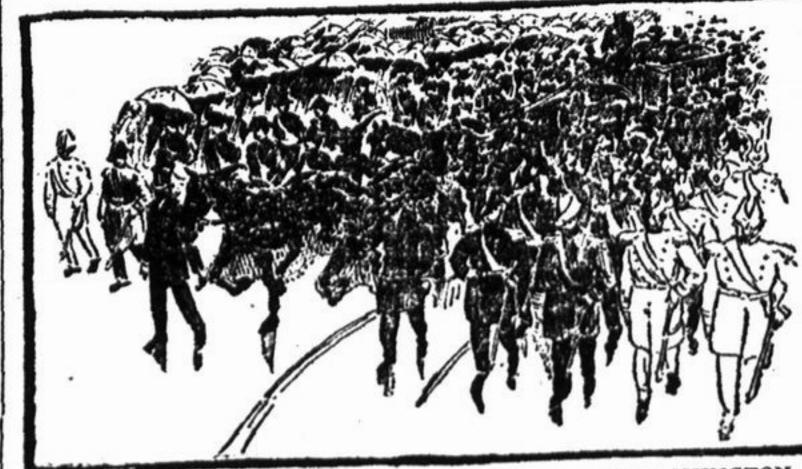

First Division.

Gen. Eli Torrance, national commander R., commanding, and staff. Grand Army band. F. Taggart, department commander G. A. R., of Ohlo, and staff.
Canton Post, No. 25, Canton, O.
Buckley Post, No. 12, Akron, O.
Bell Marmon Post, No. 36, Warren, O. G. Chamberlain Post, No. 86, East Given Post, No. 133, Wooster, O. Hart Post, No. 134, Massillon, O. Other Grand Army posts.

Second Division. Maj. Charles Dick, commanding. Eighth Regiment Military Band. Detachment Ohio National Guard. Troop A of Ohio National Guard, guard of honor. Officiating clergymen.

Funeral car and bearers. Honorary bearers. Special guard of honor, Gen. Nelson A. Miles, Admiral George Dewey, Gen. John R. Brooke, Gen. Eiwell S. Otis, Gen. George L. Gillespie, Loyal Legion. Family, President, and Cabinet.

FUNERAL CORTEGE NEARING THE CAPITOL AT WASHINGTON.

hand, musket held straight in front. | President of Senate and United States The members of the senate entered. At the head walked Senator Allison of Iowa. Then came Penrose and Cockrell, Scott, Burrows of Michigan, Tilman and Mason of Illinois. Next the members of the house filed in. They numbered almost 150. Speaker Henderson at the head. Louder came the mourn of the band, and outside the troops had formed a phalanx of sabers and bayonets. Then, under the black shrouded door, came the casket.

Under Arch of Sabers. The black coffin had passed under an arch of drawn sabers as it was carried up the steps. Lieutenant General Miles and the men of the army and Rear Admiral Farguhar and the men of the navy held their positions. Covered with a great American flag, bearing only sprays of immortelles and roses tendered by the Legation of honor, the casket was slowly brought to the front, supported on the shoulders of the blue jackets and the soldiers. At the foot of the mountain of flowers marking the altar and the choir loft lay the bier shrouded, too, in the national colors and in black. On this the casket was placed under the quivering folds of the starry banner, with the lights shedding their effulgence from above, the fragrance of the flowers hovering about and the music of Beethoven's grand funeral march pulsing from the organ, the bodybearers gently lowered the flagdraped and flower-adorned coffin to its support.

All Rise as Coffin Passes, risen as the casket was brought in. hundreds of other cities. They remained standing. A moment later and President Roosevelt entered His lips quivered slightly as he was escorted to the pew directly behind General Miles. Behind him came Secretaries Hitchcock and Wilson and Postmaster General Smith, who filed into the next pew, and with them

Speaker of House of Representatives. Governors of states with staffs. Gen. Leonard Wood, Governor of Cuba. Ohio state officials.

Circuit Court Judges, state of Ohio, Gov. McKinley's former staff officers. Federal officers of Cleveland. Federal officers of Chicago. Federal officers of Canton. Federal officers of Massillon, Board of directors of Pan-American Ex-

Board of Cook County officials, Chicago. Third Division. Maj. A. Vignos, commanding, Gate City Guards of Atlanta, Ga. Cleveland Grays. Cleveland Scotts Guards, William McKinley Command Spanish-American War Veterans. Sons of Veterans.

Union League Legion. Canton Encampment, No. 94. Fourth Division. B. Foster, Grand Commander of Ohio. commanding. Knights Templar. Grand Lodge of Ohio. Eagle Lodge of Canton. Canton Lodge of Canton and other Ma-

The remaining three divisions were made up of representatives from clubs, societies, civic bodies and the Eightysecond regiment of National Guarda, together with other military organiza-

When the funeral at Canton began all the tides of American life stood still. The wheels of industry ceased to revolve. The hammers of toll paused in their beat. The ship stopped her throb in its race against time. The miner dropped his pick. The farmer checked his team in mid-furrow. The crowds in the city streets halted. All activities save the ministrations to the deadly sick and the dying were sus-Then the generals took their places pended. The sun in heaven for a space in the first seat to the right of the looked down upon a motionless nation, central aisle. The rear admirals where nearly every head was bent. crossed and took the first pew to the Special services were held in the left. Every one within the church had churches of the national capital and

> TRIBUTE PROM W. J. BRYAN. Memorial exercises for the dead President were held at the Auditorium in Lincoln, Neb., and were largely attended. W. J. Bryan was one of the principal speakers. He said in part:

"As monuments reared by grateful

SAILORS AND SOLDIERS BEARING THE CASKET.

went Secretary Cortelyou, the man | hands to the memory of heroes testify wno had made every effort that a loyal to the virtues of the living as well as Members of Family Sented: Then came the members of the family, all being seated to the left of the central aisle. Abner McKinley, brother of the dead president, and his wife heart could prompt to save the life to the services of the dead, so the which had gone out under the bul- sorrow that has overwhelmed our nation, obliterating the distinctions of party, race and religion, is as complimentary to the patriotism of our people as to our departed magistrate. It would indeed be a disgrace to our nation if the murder of a President conwalked slowly at the head of the cerned only the members of the domiblack-clad line. He was seated in the nant party. While no recent campaigne pew directly behind the men of the have aroused deeper feeling than those navy and just across the aisle from through which Mr. McKinley passed, President Roosevelt. After Dr. and yet in no contests did the minerity Mrs. Boer came the venerable Joseph | more cheerfully acquiesce in the will of Saxton, uncle of Mrs. McKinley. The the majority as expressed at the polls. great organ had left the funeral march | He was the President of all the people and now the reeds pealed out the and their dignity and sovereignty were strains of "Nearer, My God, to Thee," attacked when he was assaulted."