SCILLEY PRAISED FOR WORK

Sampson Commends Blockade Despite Protest of Chadwick.

DEWEY SHOWS SOME TEMPER.

Head of Inquiry Court Angry at New Attempt to Bring in Conversation-Chadwick Says Schley Asserted His Loyalty to Sampson.

Washington telegram: Captain French E. Chadwick, commander of the New York in 1898, created somewhat of a sensation at the court of inquiry when he testified that he protested to Sampson against sending to Schley a message congratulating the latter upon the character of the blockade he had maintained, because, under the circumstances, such action was improper. Admiral Dewey himself then created quite a stir in the courtroom by exhibiting considerable temper in declining to permit Mr. Rayner to question Captain Chadwick relating to a conversation that officer had with Remey and Watson, in which Captain Chadwick is alleged to have approved the blockade. "We don't want any conversation here. We want the facts, and you know that we want nothing else but the facts," said Admiral Dewey impatiently to Mr. Rayner, who was directed to withdraw the question. Mr. Rayner contended that it was perfectly proper to admit the conversation in question, as it tended to show that Captain Chadwick had indorsed the blockade at one time and had at another protested against Schley being congratulated for the character of it.

Schley's Pledge of Loyalty. Captain Chadwick told of the meeting of Schley, Sampson, and himself on board the New York at Key West before the flying squadron sailed for Cuba. Schley on that occasion assured Sampson that he would be loyal to the commander of the North Atlantic squadron. Schley asserted, according to the witness, that he was pleased to serve under Sampson. Speaking of his knowledge of the code of signals arranged with the insurgents, Captain Chadwick said this code had been communicated to him by Commander Mc-Calla, who did not care to have anything said about it, as he (McCalla) expected to go back to Clenfuegos the next day, May 20. Owing to the difficulty in getting supplies at Key West McCalla with the Marblehead did not leave for Clenfuegos until the following day.

Dewey's Nephew a Witness. Lieutenant F. J. Dewey, a nephew of Admiral Dewey and watch officer of the Massachusetts during the war. was on the stand a short time today. There is a remarkable resemblance between the admiral and his nephew. which created some comment. Lieutenant Dewey said that so far as he knew no plans of battle had been arranged. in the event of meeting the enemy, and that the enemy could have escaped from Santiago harbor owing to the darkness and the distance of the blockading fleet from shore. He was posttive the action of May 31st was for the purpose of destroying the Colon and not to dismantle the shore batteries or to determine their location. He was ordered, he said, to direct his fire on the Colon, and no reference was made to the batteries.

Case May Last Another Month. Captain Lemly had supposed he would be able to conclude the presentation of the government's side of the case by the close of this week, but he now finds that he still has several witnesses on his list. In all probability he will consume the greater part of the first half of next week. Mr. Rayner estimates that the court will not be able to conclude its work before the middle of November.

J. J. Hill Setls Erie Steek. · President James J. Hill of the Great Northern Raitroad has sold nearly all of his holdings of Erie railroad stock. This statement of fact comes from an authoritative source. At the time of F. D. Underwood's accession to the presidency of the Erie railroad Hill and his friends held so large an amount of Erie stock that he was allowed to select the president and make other important changes in the official staff. Since the Northern Pacific-Burlington deal Hill has reduced his Erie holdings.

Long Island's Duck Ranches. Island where as many as 30,000 ducklings are raised annually for New York's maw, and Pennsylvania and Virginia are dotted with ranches having capacities of 6.000 to 12.000, all incubator hatched. There is an enormous duck ranch at Allentown, Pa., and one at Rivington, Va., each nearly as large as the ranch at Speonk, L. I. Geese come from all over, most of the duck ranches supplying them. Squabs raise themselves, for pigeons really require no attention.-New York Press.

" DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: -I have been married for nearly two years, and so far have not been blessed with a child. I have, however, suffered with a complication of female troubles and painful menstruction, until very recently.

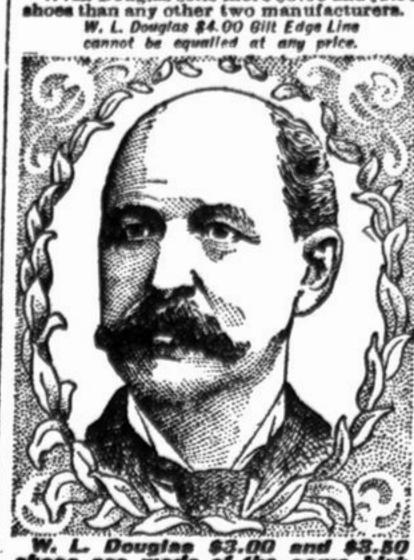

"The value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was called to my attention by an intimate friend, whose life had simply been a torture with inflammation and ulceration, and a few bottles of your Compound cured her; she can hardly believe it herself to-day, she enjoys such blessed health. I took four bottles of your Compound and consider myself cured. I am once more in fine health and spirits; my domestic and official duties all seem easy now, for I feel so strong I can do three times what I used to do. You have a host of friends in Denver, and among the best count, Yours very gratefully,- Mrs. IDA L. ROSER, 326 18th Ave., Denver, Col."-$5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not
