The cattle show was an agreeable surprise to every stockman who say it and at once established a new standard of excellence that will not be equaled for years to come and possibly never surpassed as regards quality.

The sheep show, now fully under way and lasting to Oct. 25, is in every way a worthy successor to the dog, the swine and the cattle shows. The best flocks in the United States and Canada are represented, together with their recent additions of imported stock, consisting of about twenty fine deal of attention. The sheep show, taken as a whole, is one of the most complete ever brought together. found in the United States and Canada. Vermont is again courting prominence by sending a fine lot of Morgan horses, a breed that should receive more attention than it does.

Draft horses, especially the Clydes dale and Percheron breeds, are well represented. These are principally from Canada and the western states. German coach horses attract a great

This fact deserves more than a passing notice, as our domestic animals of American origin are not numerous. We have borrowed almost everything of this nature from other countries. The only other exception is possibly the American trotting horse. Angera Geats.

In connection with the sheep show is an exhibit of 240 Angora goats. These interesting animals fill one of the live stock pavilions. The growing of Angora goats is a comparatively new business in this country, and very little is known about it in the east. Their adaptability to rough, rocky pasture lands, where they graze and grow contentedly, has brought them prominent ly into consideration where such lands have proved useless or nearly so.

Wool Exhibit. As another feature of the sheep show Superintendent Converse has arranged an exhibition of wool. This is international in scope, having fleeces from the different states, Canada and several South American countries. Argentina alone contributes more than 200 sample fleeces. Chile, Costa Rica, Bolivia, Salvador and other Central and South American countries are also represented. Such an international wool exhibit was never before attempted. It cannot fail to produce lasting benefits that will be shared by growers of sheep, manufacturers of woolen goods and through them the general public. Shearing Machinery. Still another accessory to the sheep industry is elaborately illustrated. In one of the stock buildings a platform was erected about three feet above the floor, upon which is installed the latest and best shearing and clipping machinery. Some of the machines are operated by electricity, while others are 10.15 a.m. worked by hand. sentation possible. The judging takes place in the Stadium on the 9th and 10th of October, when this immense structure will be none too large to acorate series of live stock shows.

Ponitry and Pet Stock.

From Oct. 21 to the close of the fair the stock pavilions will be once more filled with life, though in a very different form. Poultry of high degree from all parts of the United States and many places in Canada will fraternize without regard to politics or tariffs. As near neighbors the poultry will have mice, rabbits, cats, cavies, prairie dogs, squirrels, ferrets, rats and Belgian hares, besides a great assortment of pigeons, owls, magpies and a great many cage birds.

Eight thousand animals and birds are being gathered together to form this complete cosmopolitan assemblage of birds and animals.

The Pan-American Exposition is proving a great success. While the enterprise suffered for a few days from the national tragedy, the crowds that have put off going until the fall are rushing to Buffalo in great numbers now.

President Roosevelt said of the Pan-American Exposition, "It is well worth the while of every man, woman and child in the country to visit the Pau-American Exposition."

More than 5,000,000 people have visited the Pan-American Exposition. As Secretary of Agriculture Wilson said on Sept. 11, after a visit, "No one can afford to keep away."

Thomas A. Edison said of the Pan-American Exposition after viewing the Illumination, "This is the apotheosis of the incandescent light."

Poultrymen from all over the United States will be meeting at Buffalo and the Pan-American Exposition the last three weeks of October.

The stock shows at the Pan-American Exposition have been most popular. The sheep show began Sept. 23 and lasts until Oct. 25. Innes' band, one of the best in the country, will give concerts free to all

Pan-American Exposition visitors from

On Oct. 1 and 15 you can buy low rate round-trip tickets to Nebraska and many other parts of the western country as far as the pacific coast. Remember that while the light rainfall which prevailed during July in Nebraska and other of the older states, injured the corn crop this year, and 50 per cent of the acreage was planted in wheat, which made a big crop-for which the farmers are getting big money. Ask C, B, & Q. agent for particulars about tickets. Go and look far a new home in Nebraska, a prosperous country where a farm can be bought for one year's rent of an eastern farm.
