The annual season of settlement of subscription accounts has arrived and all subscribers who know themselves to be in arrears are requested to contribute to the general fund. It takes money to run newspapers the same as any other business. The accounts are principally small ones but amount to a high figure in the aggregate. Therefore we ask each one to do their best to settle what they owe before the first of December. We will manage to find time to acknowledge receipt of funds promptly.

The revival meetings which have been held for two weeks at the Methodist church closed Sunday evening with a most searching sermon by Evangelist Shawhan. The meetings have resulted in greatly quickening the spiritual life of the church. Quite a number will be added to the church. How many is not yet known. The work of Mr. Shawhan has been very satisfactory. The necessary expenses of the meetings have been met very cheerfully. It is hoped Mr. Shawhan may return some time for a series of union meetings here.

The Hopkins theater stock company will present next week an excellent drama from the pen of Daniel L. Hart. It is entitled "Australia," and is founded on a novel called "The Sacred Nugget," from the pen of B. J. Farjeon, the son-in-law of Joseph Jefferson. As the title implies, the scenes are laid in the land of the kangaroo, and there are a number of strong scenes in it. Frederick Julian will have one of the principal roles in the part of Michael Patchett, and as Peggy Patchett, Miss Maude Odell will again have the opportunity to display her versatile talents. Sam Morris, W. J. Jolley, Arthur Mackay, Miss Knott, Miss Hopkins and the other members of the stock company will be cast for leading roles.
