The Pension Howl.

The Galesburg Republican-Register Root. Pastor, services sunday at 10:45
Th. m. Sanday School at 12:00 m ditures. It has an excellent editorial forces Sunday evening at 5:30 on the subject which control of the how of the gruntled classreferred to can read with profit. Here it is:

"The Democratic papers are saying a great deal about the size of the pension bill and are comparing the figures with other items. The purpose is to create among the people the impression that this expenditure is extravagant and useless. The real feeling of the Democratic press toward the old soldiers is shown in the comments. The impression given by these papers is that the money is thrown away.

Washington dispatches state that President Roosevelt has definitely and positively, though unofficially, stated his position relative to the Republican nomination in 1984. He will make no fight for the honor, but if the people of the United States show their approval of his course during the three and a half years that he occupies the position of chief magistrate of the land by placing his name at the head of the next Republican national ticket be will be extremely grateful and will not decline. The president is said to have made this announcement of his attitude during a recent interview with several representative Republicans from South Carolina.

"I am going to select the best men for public positions," he is quoted by one of the gentlemen present as saying. Those who heard President Roosevelt make this utterance say they were impressed by his evident earnestness. Persons high in political life are being daily convinced by the president that he is not running the mgh office he holds with the purpose of controlling the Republican machinery in 1904.

The president, who is credited with the courage of his convictions, does not mind the tirade of abuse which has been heaped upon him by the southern dilettantes, and will move along in the even tenor of his way despite these protests from the ex-slave holders. There is little probability of the man who faced Cuban bullets at San Juan running up the white flag before this storm of criticism. Roosevelt is not that kind of a man .- Yates County Chornicle.

The First Slur,

Of course President Roosevelt will not escape carping criticism from the Democrats. He expects it. It must come to him with the high office which be holds. But the maiden effort of the Chicago Chronicle in that line is not impressive. Says the Chronicle: "How is he (President Roosevelt) to

As to the opening query, it might as O. M. Searles Senstor Depew, in his address in appropriately be asked: How is any country? Furthermore, the question regarding the appointment under conaideration, that of ex-Governor Jones to be a United States district judge in Alabama, was not "Who is the best able man for the place?" Pursuant to this inquiry the choice fell upon a Democrat, and the general verdict is

From one end of this broad land to that the selection was a wise one. As for the rest, the Chronicle betrays a cynicism that is rather absurd Was the like ever seen before in any If there ever was a man of rugged sincerity, and one capable of recognizing and respecting that quality in others, that man is President Rooseveit. lent assault on sense and probability. The "scaly politician" theory of the Chicago paper is a product of its own disordered imagination, and its disparaging reference to human nature has a truly mugwump!an tone. The slur on the president and Judge Jones is puerite and will cause people to smile rather than to worry.

The Difference.

The Bolivar, Missouri Herald says: "If the Democratic party will hold as steadfast to bimetallism as Me-Kinley did to pretection then the party deserves to and will ultimately win on this great issue. Take warning."

The difference between the two contentions is found by the Platt County Pilot to be just this: McKinley urged the adoption of a measure that had been tried several times in the history of the country and had always proved beneficial to the nation by promoting its prosperity, bimetallism, as advocated by the Democracy since 1873 has been a theory which has threatened serious disaster to the nation every time there has been the least prospect of its being reduced to practice.

McKinley was right and his steadfastness brought him success; the
