

TEN ARE KILLED IN RAILWAY WRECK

Carelessness Brings Two Illinois Central Trains Together on Curve.

ACCIDENT NEAR ROCKFORD.

Five Follows Collision, and Those Who Escaped Other Horrors Were Compelled to Stand on Prairie with Temperature 50 Degrees Below Zero.

Disobedience of plain orders by the crew of the freight train caused the wreck on the Illinois Central eight miles east of Rockford, Ill., just before midnight Saturday night. Nine persons were killed and twelve were injured in the debris of crushing steel, flying splinters and broken glass that resulted from the fearful impact of the two trains. The trains came together on a sharp curve. There was no time for a warning shriek of the whistle. There was the flashing of two headlights, a shock, and both engines were crushed into shapeless masses of steel. Six passenger coaches and ten freight cars, loaded with merchandise, were piled into one great mass of broken timbers and splintered woodwork. In this mass were buried engineers and firemen of both trains, and at least five others. This pile of wreckage leaped into flames almost in an instant. Those of the victims who were not fortunate enough to be killed outright were burned to death hours before relief could reach them.

The Dead. David Beahan, engineer of freight train, resided in Freeport. Edward Carey, fireman on freight train; remains taken to home in Freeport. Richard Ormsby, engineer of passenger train; body held at Rockford for conclusion of inquest. James Reardon, fireman of passenger train; body taken to home in Freeport. William Reynolds, of Irene, Ill. George Reynolds, in the employ of the company as section foreman, with headquarters at South Addison. Robert Thompson, baggage expressman on passenger train; residence at Dubuque, Ia. Porter, colored man on passenger train. Newsboy on passenger train, believed to be Coates of Chicago.

B. R. Ahrent, Chicago; bruised on face and head. D. J. Canchester, Chicago; bruised about body; left arm cut. Hays Fletcher, Chicago; cut in right arm and head. E. Howard, Chicago; bruised on body and cut over left eye. Jack Lewis, Chicago; bruised on head and left shoulder. P. M. Miller, Chicago; slight cut on left hand; right leg wrenched. J. H. Quinlan, conductor of passenger train; bruised about the chest and severe scalp wound; resides at Chicago; probably fatally injured. M. Traverser, Chicago; cut on head and face. H. B. Wellman, 895 Jackson boulevard, Chicago; left shoulder dislocated; right arm crushed and amputated; condition serious.

Five Follows the Wreck. The fire followed so close upon the impact that those who escaped other horrors and suffering were compelled to stand in the open prairie with temperature 20 degrees below zero, insufficiently clad, while the surviving members of the crew of the wrecked trains tramped four miles through the storm to secure relief. The passenger was the regular Omaha train, due in Chicago at 9:40 p. m. It consisted of baggage and express car, a smoker, a coach, parlor car and diner. It was running at a high rate of speed, being over three hours late on account of the cold weather. The freight train was running as No. 51 and it was composed of fourteen loaded cars, three empties and the way-car. The freight was running at high speed and the trains came together without warning, a slight curve hiding each from the other. Neither engine whistled for brakes nor used the air so far as could be ascertained. The crash was terrific, both engines being reduced to scrap iron. The roof of one car was hurled into a field far from the right of way, while a casting weighing 1,200 pounds was thrown into a field 200 feet away. The temperature was 20 below zero and an icy wind was blowing across the prairie, the point where the wreck occurred being in a shallow cut, affording no protection. The injured were without hats and wraps and suffered terribly. By the united efforts of the survivors the way car was pushed back from the wreckage to escape the flames and the wounded were placed on the bunks inside.

Rev. Dr. P. S. Henson of Chicago, who had a narrow escape, said: "A night met my eyes that I shall not soon forget. Two whole trains were ablaze, the flames burning with appalling rapidity. Evidently every person who had been confined in the debris was unconscious from his injuries or was dead because I heard no cries."

Clothes Fired by Explosion. Miss Sara Gehring, aged 33, was burned to death at Logansport, Ind., by the explosion of a lamp, her body being burned almost to a crisp within fifteen minutes after the accident occurred. Her foster mother, Mrs. Jennie Gehring, and her uncle attempting to extinguish the flames were severely burned. Miss Gehring was sitting at a sewing machine under a hanging lamp, the fastening of which pulled out. The lamp fell on Miss Gehring's head, knocking her to the floor and setting the lamp on fire.

UNABLE TO STAND FOR MONTHS BECAUSE OF SPRAINED ANKLES.

Cared by St. Jacobs Oil. (From the Cardiff Times.) Among the thousands of voluntary endorsements of the great value of St. Jacobs Oil for sprains, stiffness and soreness, is that of Mrs. G. Thomas, 4 Alexandra Road, Gellii, Ysbrod, near Pontypridd, South Wales, who says: "It is with great pleasure that I add my willing testimony to the invaluable excellence of your celebrated St. Jacobs Oil, as experienced in my own case. I sprained both my ankles in walking down some steps so severely that I was unable to stand for several months. The pain I suffered was most severe and nothing that I used helped me until I applied St. Jacobs Oil, when they immediately became better daily, and in a short time I was able to go about, and soon after I was quite cured. I am now determined to advise all persons suffering from pains to use this wonderful remedy, which did so much for me."

Mrs. Thomas does not enlighten us as to what treatment she pursued during the months she was unable to stand, and during which time she was suffering so much, but we venture to suggest that had she called in any well-known medical man he would have at once prescribed St. Jacobs Oil, for it has conquered pain upwards of fifty years, and doctors know there is nothing so good. The proprietors of St. Jacobs Oil have been awarded twelve gold medals by different international exhibitions as the premier pain-killing remedy of the world. The committees who made the awards were in each instance composed largely of the most eminent medical men obtainable. Mrs. Thomas evidently did not know the high opinion in which St. Jacobs Oil is held by almost every progressive medical man.

Flower Culture. Flower culture is no longer looked upon as a mere amusement nor is it followed merely for the love of the beautiful, and florists are becoming flower farmers who raise large quantities of perennials. The government is encouraging this movement, and the department of agriculture calls attention to the fact that in the southern states are found exceptionally favorable conditions for this profitable industry. California, too, it is thought, could produce the essential oil, or at least roses on an extensive scale to great advantage. According to official authority an acre of ground will produce 1,500 pounds of rose petals, from which five ounces of the star may be distilled, and this quantity is worth on the market $45 to $55. The rose water which remains amounts to 300 gallons to the acre, which is worth from 75 cents to $1 a gallon. Lavender gives a net profit of $100 to the acre. Pure lard saturated with the scene of flowers—pomade—is worth $6 to $7.50 a pound. Cologne of the finest quality, obtained by soaking the pomade or saturated lard in alcohol, is worth all the way up to $17 a pint. Other perfumes are equally profitable.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Geronimo, who has had more crimes laid to him than any other Indian warrior, is a good Indian these days, and leads a quiet and peaceful life. He is now a prisoner at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, and the officers allow him all the privileges possible under the rules governing prisoners of war. Although a prisoner he is paid $35 a month as a government scout, but is not allowed to carry a loaded gun. He has no work to do, and spends much of his time making bead work and other fancy articles, which he sells to white visitors. Out of this trade, it is said, he makes $2,000 a year. When the old warrior is asked if he has saved any money—he spends it on squaws and heap gladness. "By squaws he means wives, and he has several, but he does not live with any of them, preferring a tent in summer and a grass wickup in winter. Geronimo is said to be 80 years old. He does not know his age. He was with Victoria when that chieftain went against the Mexicans.—Detroit Free Press.

BASKATONHEWAN, WESTERN CANADA IS CALLED THE "GARDEN OF EDEN."

Former Resident of Reed City, Michigan. In a letter to the Reed City, Michigan, Clarion, Mr. Jas. G. Armstrong, of Melford, Saskatchewan, says, writing on 27th May, 1901:

"This is a fine country for a poor man, as he can go out on the hay mows and cut all the hay he needs. He turns his cattle out on the prairie, and when he is not using his horses he turns them out also. There is such an abundance of food, they never wander away."

"A lady, who has lived here eight years told me that this was the original 'Garden of Eden.' I certainly would believe it, if we could only find the apple trees. But as it is, we have many varieties of fruit—strawberries, cranberries, saskatoons, huckleberries, red and black currants, dewberries, plums, red and black cherries, and red raspberries. All of these fruits grow wild. Then the flowers that dot the prairies, making them look like a real garden. We have eaten of the wild red currants, and they are equal if not superior to those grown in Michigan. We have sweet corn 7 1/2 inches high. As the Western farmers are all done seeding, branding cattle and sheep shearing are now progressing. Wool is only five cents a pound, and many ranchers have on hand last year's clip. I enclose you a potato blossom, slice of new potato, which measured 6 1/2 inches when cut. This is no fairy tale, as we are so much farther than Reed City. It is all facts. Come up and see. This has been truly called the 'garden of the west.' With fruits and flowers, lakes and streams, fish and fowl, beautiful rivers, tracts of timber and mountains, what more does a man want?"

Women Had Business Foresight. When a woman gets married there are many things to be taken into consideration; but not all brides evince such business foresight as the heroine of the following story, told by the Rev. W. F. Sheridan to a writer for the Chicago Tribune. The bride was large and heavy, and the groom small and meek looking. Everything was regular. After the ceremony the bride explained her position. "You see," she said, "farm hands are mighty hard to get in this part of the country, and harder to keep. You get a good hired man and get him well broke in and the first thing you know he quits and goes off to town or somewhere else. Last spring I had a first class hand, about as good as I ever expect to get, and just when the season got right busy he up and quit me. "I just made up my mind that I wasn't going to be left in the same fix this summer, so here we are."

The bridegroom had nothing to say at all. He just stood and smiled meekly. New Cure for Rheumatism. Hester Mo., Dec. 16.—An unusual case which has recently come to light here is exciting the keenest interest among medical men. Mrs. Ellenor Guardhouse suffered for over forty years with Sciatic Rheumatism so severely and so constantly that her case has been regarded as chronic and absolutely incurable. At times the pain was almost unbearable and she could not rest day or night. Some months ago she was induced to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, a remedy recently introduced in this neighborhood. The immediate results were magical and she continued till she had taken eight boxes, and now she declares she has not an ache or pain left. She believes that she is completely and permanently cured and as she has not used the pills for some months and is to-day in the best of health the doctors who were at first skeptical are amazed.

Rev. Marguerite St. Omer Briggs, 35 Mount Calm Street, Detroit, Michigan, Lecturer for the W. C. T. U., recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—My professional work has for the past twenty years brought me into hundreds of homes of sickness, and I have had plenty of opportunity to witness the sufferings of wives and mothers who from want, ignorance or carelessness, are slowly but surely being dragged to death, principally with female weakness and irregularities of the sex. I believe you will be pleased to know that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured more women than any other agency that has come under my notice. Hundreds of women owe their life and health to you to-day, and, therefore, I can conscientiously advise sick women to try it."—MARGUERITE ST. OMER BRIGGS.

When women are troubled with irregular or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy.
