Washington dispatch: The Republic of Venezuela, beset by internal dissension and daily expecting foreign complications through Germany's purpose to make her pay obligations to German subjects, is in danger of new troubles, which must tend to subdue even the bold and defiant spirit of President Castro. Germany's announcement of her intention to make Venezuela pay up has had the effect of bringing other creditors to the point of importuning their governments to follow the example of the Kaiser's ministers. There are a host of people in France and the United States who had vainly endeavored to secure a settlement of their pecuniary claims against the Venezuelan government, and these have now begun to renew their efforts to bring Castro to terms. Since the publication of the statements of Germany's plans of compelling Castro to satisfy his German creditors many Americans who have had unfortunate experiences in their dealings with Venezuela have written to the President and the State Department urging that the example of Germany be followed. Their letters have been emphatic on this point. The writers want the President to take immediate action and to back up demands for the payment of the American claims with a squadron of warships. There is no disposition on the part of the authorities here, however to make any move in this direction until conditions in Venezuela have changed Germany's forbearance in deferring action toward the collection of her debts until Venezuela's internal troubles have passed away is regarded by this government as a display of proper spirit, and it is safe to say that even should the State Department decide to go to extremes in pressing the claims of American citizens nothing will be done in that direction until after the insurrection has ended. It may be predicted also that even after that the United States will not move until Germany has carried out her plass for bringing Castro to terms. Meanwhile the American claims may be brought to the attention of the Venezuelan goverament through the ordinary diplomatic channels,

Present a Human facrifice. The slaughter of a human being as a propitiatory sacrifice to the gods of the Chinese was prevented at Baker City. Ore., by the timely arrival of some sisters of charity. Hy Wong, a paralytic Chinaman who has been a county charge, was returned to the care of his countrymen in Chinatown. While he was an inmate of the county hospital his queue had been cut off. On this recount the Chinese made preparations to offer him as a sacrifice to Joss. Hy Wong managed to get a message to the sisters at the hospital and they rescued him before his life, like his queue, was cut short. " . asserted that all the preparations for Hy Wong's execution had been completed.

New Combine Is Formed It was learned at New York that the American Stove company, recently organized under the laws of New Jersey, with a capitalization of $5,000, had increased its capital to $5,000,000, and acquired a controlling interest in the leading oil and gas stove manufacturing concerns in the United States. The combine's headquarters are to be in St. Louis. The consolidated concerns practically control the manufacture of gas ranges, gasoline and oil stoves, which are made principally under United States patents owned by the new combination. There are no New York companies in the combination, and the concern will have only a selling agency at New York.

Thirteen Families in Trouble. The members of thirteen families are under arrest at Ottumwa, Iowa, charged with the wholesale theft of coal from the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul chutes at Ottumwa Junction. An average of thirty tons a week has been stolen, and it is claimed that wagons and horses had been purchased for the purpose of hauling the stolen coal and that the children of the famlites were compelled to commit the thefts. Five boys, all under 15 years of age, when questioned by the poitee, admitted their share in the stealing and gave the names of all impli-

Boston, Mass., dispatch: Sidney Lascelles, otherwise known as "Lord Beresford, was arrested at one of the prominent downtown hotels last night and locked up in the city prison. He is wanted on the charge of passing a worthless check on Lyman T. Hay, proprietor of the Arlington hotel, Hot Springs, Ark., and obtaining $1,200. Lascelles was born on the estates of the Duke of Devonshire, where his father was a gamekeeper and his mother, prior to her marriage, a beautiful girl. Before he was 17 years old he had ridden to the hounds as an attendant, acquired an acquaintanceship with the manners of nobility and had taken some $85,000 from the strong lox of his master. Then he fled to Algiers, where requisition papers receive no recognition. He posed as the son of the house of Beresford and claimed the right to call both Lord Charles and Lord Marcus of that name "uncle." One day he met Miss Maud Lilienthal an American heiress to $1,000,000, who came from Yonkers, N. Y. Although a mere youngster he was an adept at winning his way into the graces of the opposite sex and one day the American colony was surprised to learn that Miss Lilienthal had eloped to Cairo with the "Lord." His subsequent career would fill a novel.

Beir to Money Starving. Frank Alvord, aged 36, was found starving in the reading room of the St. Louis public library, where he had gone for sheiter from the coll. He was found on the floor in a faint, and when resusitated at the hospital said he had hardly tasted a morsel of food for five days. Efforts to find employment, even as a dishwasher, had been futile, and he was too proud to beg. In his pocket was a letter from a sister in Suffolk, Va., stating that the estate of a grandfather, which had been in the courts nearly a half century, was about to be settled, and that Alvord's share, $1,800, would be sent to him in a few days, Presidents of the United States. When the house committee on naval affairs met for organization Representative Rixey of Virginia proposed that the various measures relating to Admiral Schley be considered by the committee as a whole instead of awaiting the consideration of a subcommittee. The sentiment of the committee was against the proposition and it was determined to allow these measures to take the usual course. There are ten resolutions and bills bearing on the Schley case, and they will be in charge of the regular subcommittee on organization, rank, and pay, consisting of Representatives Watson, Dayton, Cousins, Taylor, Meyer, Cummings and Wheeler.

A general increase of almost 15 per cent in the postal receipts at the fifty principal postoffices of the United States during December last is shown in a official statement which compares the receipts with those for December, 1900. Chicago, with almost 23 per cent, reports the greatest proportionate advance, the total for last month being $783,994. New York advanced almost 14 per cent to $1,120,900. Jerney City, N. J.; New Haven, Conn., and Dayton, Ohio, are the only cities reporting decreases.

The pension appropriation bill was completed by the House committee on appropriations and reported to the House. "It carries $139,842,230, exactly the amount of the estimates, as against $145,243,230 appropriated last year.

Saturday, January 11. Speaker Henderson called on President Roosevelt in the morning and had along conference regarding the Schley bills and resolutions that are now pending before the committee on naval affairs.
