Additional Locals.

L. Harshorn has been on the sick list for a week.

Walter Wells is an employee at the Fair in Chicago.

W. E. Clough was out from Chicago Tuesday at Bush and Simonson's.

Mrs. Kessell is enjoying a visit from her sister Mrs. Carter of Boston.

John Harden returned Saturday from a several weeks visit at Whitewater, Wis.

Mrs. Frank Ward of Burlington is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. T. Davis, this week.

Mrs. Samuel Ballman of Naperville was the guest of Mrs. John Kessell the past week.

The local camp, Modern Woodmen of America, is preparing to give a benefit dance in the future.

F. M. McMains is at the West Side hospital in Chicago this week undergoing an operation for a throat difficulty.

George Yackly of Naperville, Miss Carrie Kuhn of Kansas, and Miss Annie Karl of Joliet, have been visiting at Will Roths the past week.

W. H. Colville left yesterday for Peaton, Ill., where he goes to take charge of the Burlington railroad station as agent. His family went with him.

The quarantine has been removed from the Strong residence, the grand daughter of Mrs. H. Strong having recovered from a light attack of scarlet fever.

A class of four young people were confirmed at the Episcopal church Sunday afternoon. Bishop Anderson delivered an eloquent and earnest discourse to a large audience.

William Blackburn, husband of Mrs. Alice Williams Blackburn, formerly of Downers Grove, died in Chicago, Dec. 27. The funeral was held in Chicago Dec. 29th. Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn had been married only about six months.

Levi Mertz was laid up several days the past week with a sprained ankle. Last Wednesday he stepped on a piece of iron in the basement of Mertz & Moebel's store which turned with his weight, resulting in spraining his ankle.

Mrs. Elsie Patterson left for her home at Normal, Ill., Saturday. She has been in poor health for some time and the board of education has granted her a two months leave of absence from her duties as teacher in the schools. Miss Cohn of Chicago will fill her position.

Mrs. E. Foster attended the funeral of Mrs. P. A. Sweetman at LaGrange on Thursday last. While her death was very sudden it was not unexpected as she has been a sufferer from asthma of the heart for a year, and had been growing worse for the last three months. The remains were taken to Chicago on the noon train and the burial made at Graceland.

The second annual exhibition of the Naperville Poultry association will be held next week at the rink, Jan. 17th to 22nd. At least 600 of the best fowls in northern Illinois will be on exhibition, besides a number of other interesting features. The first exhibit held last year, was a pronounced success, and the managers are planning to handle this year an entry list and attendance fully double that of a year ago.

Diedrick Lausing has a paper in his possession of interest to members of the Eighth Illinois Cavalry. It is a printed copy of the constitution adopted by the Eighth Illinois Cavalry association at Benton Barracks, Mo., July 11th, 1865, just previous to the mustering out of the regiment, which occurred July 17th. The paper is yellow with age and worn through at the creases.

At the last meeting of the local Odd Fellows lodge the following resolutions were adopted: Whereas, death has entered the home of our worthy brother, Daniel Dunn; and whereas, their heads are bowed low with sorrowing hearts for the loss of their beloved son, Walter; therefore be it resolved that Downers Grove lodge No. 780, I. O. O. F. hereby tenders its sincere and heartfelt sympathy to its sorrowing brother and his family; and further resolve that these resolutions be spread on the records of the lodge and a copy sent to the stricken family. J. D. Horton and M. E. Stanger, committee.

The Hopkins theatre stock company will present Shakespeare's great love tragedy, "Romeo and Juliet" next. With the strengthening of the company that has been done recently the management feels confident of giving an excellent production of the classical masterpiece. Richard Butler, whose training was largely under the late Thomas Keene, one of the greatest modern Shakespearean actors, will play Romeo to the Juliet of Selma Hermann. During the past month Miss Hermann has given ample proof of her ability as an emotional actress and there is no doubt her Juliet will compare more than favorably with that of some of the greater actresses that have been seen in the exacting role in recent years. As Peter, Sam Morris will have opportunity to demonstrate his art as a drill comedian.
