MAJOR RATHBONE TO BE RELEASED

Surety Company to Be Responsible for His Appearance When Wanted.

DUE TO HANNA'S FRIENDSHIP

Senator from Ohio Has Been Entering in His Efforts to Befriend the Man Who, in His Opinion, Did Not Have a Fair Trial.

Senator Hanna has won the first round in his fight for his friend Rathbone. Within a day or two Major Rathbone will be released from prison in Havana. A telegram was sent to Governor Wood from the war department, by instructions of President Roosevelt, ordering the acceptance of a bond for bail for Rathbone's appearance.

Several days ago Senator Hanna arranged with the Fidelity Bonding Company of Baltimore to guarantee the $100,000 bail which the court had demanded. To the surprise of every one the court refused to accept the Fidelity as security and asked that a cash deposit of $100,000 be made before Rathbone was released from prison.

When this report was made to him Senator Hanna replied with a good deal of emphasis that he would not put up a hundred thousand dollars to be placed in the control of the Cuban courts, for if he did he should want some good guarantee, better than any one is able to furnish at the present time, that in case he produced his man when wanted the money in turn should be forthcoming.

This demand for the cash nettled the senator from Ohio and he started out to see if a civilized method of doing business could be applied to Cuba, at least as long as the island is under American control. The result was the order which Secretary Root sent Gov. Wood. As soon as the details can be arranged the bond of the Fidelity company will be accepted and Major Rathbone will walk out of jail.

It is a curious fact that Senator Hanna's earnest stand for his friend has attracted a vast amount of attention throughout the country. Hundreds of letters and telegrams are pouring in upon him, commending his course. Many of the writers say that they do not know whether Rathbone is innocent or guilty, but they like a man who sticks up for his friend in an hour of trouble. In the attitude of Mr. Hanna concerning the affair the American people appear to see a quality which they like.

Mr. Hanna is more than ever convinced of Rathbone's innocence. He has personally interviewed a number of men, Americans, who attended the trial every day and who declare there was not a scintilla of real evidence that Rathbone was guilty of stealing or embezzling and that the case brought against him would not have secured conviction of a tramp in any American police court. Three American newspaper men who watched the trial day after day say Rathbone was convicted unjustly, and that he could never have been convicted at all had it not been for the influence which Governor Wood exercised upon the court. The five judges who tried the case there before no jury were all appointees of Wood.

It is said that nearly everyone in Havana—Americans, Cubans and Spaniards—believes Rathbone innocent. Scores of visitors call to see him every day. After his bail has been accepted he will wait till President Palma takes office and demand a new trial.

GEN. WADE HAMPTON IS DEAD

Veteran Southern Soldier and Statesman Victim of Heart Disease.

Columbus, S. C., special: General Wade Hampton died not altogether unexpectedly at 9 o'clock Friday morning. He had celebrated his eighty-fourth birthday anniversary last week. Death was due to valvular disease of the heart. He had been unconscious for several hours. Twice this winter he had sustained attacks that had greatly weakened him, but he rallied wonderfully. He was out driving a week ago, but it was evident that his strength was deserting him.

The family of Gen. Hampton objected to a state funeral. Bells were tolled in all towns of the state when the news was received and many schools were closed.

Forty Killed in Japanese Cyclone

Tacoma, Wash., dispatch: Oriental advisers say that Japan was visited by a cyclone three weeks ago. It destroyed seventeen fishing villages, killing forty persons and injuring hundreds of others. Scores of fishing boats were reduced to matchwood. The track of the storm was 200 yards wide. It smashed everything before it, raising strong houses like toys.

Prominent Cardinal Near Death

Rome cable: In the event of the death of Cardinal Ledochowski, which is apparently imminent, Cardinal Saffoldi, who is at present acting in his stead as prefect of the propaganda, is expected to succeed to that office.

Orleans Poison to Split Wigs

Terry Hanto, Ind., dispatch: Peter Brockway, a clerk, swallowed poison in the presence of his wife when she refused to borrow money for him with which to visit his mother in Louisiana. He died a few minutes later.

SCULPTOR CAME TO MEND BUST.

And the Irate Janitor Took Him for a Plumber.

Daniel Chester French, the sculptor, is an Exeter boy and a graduate of Phillips Exeter academy. Like all Exeter men, he is very loyal, and has generously donated examples of his work to both town and academy.

A few years ago one of the busts in the academy chapel had the misfortune to lose a nose, and as Mr. French was visiting the town he kindly offered to replace it.

Now, it happened that the bust was not the only thing in the academy that needed mending, for the night before a cold snap had frozen and burst the main water pipe. The plumber, as usual, was late in appearing, and the old janitor was terribly upset. Mr. French put on his studio rig, packed what few sculptor's materials he had with him into a bag, and went to the academy. He didn't know what part of the building the statue was in, says the New York Times, so he rang the bell, called up the janitor, and asked:

"I've come to mend the bust."
"Indeed, it is high time, I 'tought ye'd never come," stormed the irate janitor. "The wather is jist runnin' arl over the buildin'!"

A Catch in His Back.

Palmer, Oregon, April 14th.—W. J. Uppendahl of this place has had a great deal of trouble recently with his back. Every time he went to do the least bit of lifting he used to have what he called "a catch" in his back. He says:

"It did not have to be very hard work to give me such a severe pain that I could not move.

"I suffered quite a long time before I heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills. I used four boxes and now I can work as hard as any one and my back is as stout and strong as it ever was.

"My wife used some of the pills too and she thinks there is nothing that beats them.

"I can positively recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to anyone who has a pain in his back, for I know they will cure it."

She Ought to Know.

Four-year-old Ruth was seated on the floor tending to the cares of a large family of dolls, one member of which was in rather a dilapidated condition.

"How old is that dollie, Ruth?" inquired a visiting friend.

"She is fifty years old," answered Ruth, gravely.

"Why, Ruthie," exclaimed sister Margaret, "I don't think she is as ancient as that."

"Margaret," and the large brown eyes were raised in surprise. "I certainly don't ought to know the ages of my own children."

And Ruthie was right, the doll had been her grandmother's.

A Nasty Practice.

A nasty practice is what the Chicago Inter Ocean calls the pasting of repeated layers of wall paper, one upon another, thus covering up the filth and germs of disease that may be propagated in the very absorbent and decaying mass of flour paste, paper, animal glue, colors, etc.

They give opinions of eminent health officers and sanitarians, urging that such practice should be stopped by legal enactment, and also take occasion to say that these sanitarians recommend Alabastine as a durable, pure and sanitary coating for walls.

The Inter Ocean says: "This is a very important question, and as it costs nothing to avoid this danger, why take any chances?"

CONGRESSMAN WILBER SAYS "Pe-ru-na is All You Claim For It."

Congressman D. F. Wilber, of Oneonta, N. Y., writes: The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.

Gentlemen:—Persuaded by a friend I have tried your remedy and I have almost fully recovered after the use of a few bottles. I am fully convinced that Peruna is all you claim for it, and I cheerfully recommend your medicine to all who are afflicted with catarrhal trouble.—DAVID F. WILBER.

Peruna a Preventive and Cure for Colds. Mr. C. F. Given, Sumner, N. B., Vice President of 'The Past-time Boating Club, writes:

"Whenever the cold weather sets in I have for years past been very sure to catch a severe cold which was hard to throw off, and which would leave after-effects on my constitution the most of the winter.

"Last winter I was advised to try Peruna, and within five days the cold was broken up and in five days more I was a well man. I recommended it to several of my friends and all speak the highest praise for it. There is nothing like Peruna for catarrhal affections. It is well nigh infallible as a cure, and I gladly endorse it.—C. F. Given.

Gave New Life and Strength.

Mr. Edward Laws, Crown Point, Ind., writes the following: "I must tell you what a grand help Peruna has been to me. For over two years I suffered with catarrh of the lungs and throat, and although I doctored for it, nothing brought me relief until I tried Peruna. One bottle helped me greatly, and three more effected a complete cure, while at the same time it gave me new life and strength to my whole body that I feel like a new man and ten years younger. I hope that my testimonial may induce others who are similarly afflicted to try Peruna.—Edward Laws.

A Prominent Singer Saved From Loss of Voice. Mr. Julius Weisheit, 176 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y., is corresponding secretary of The Singsong, of New York; is the leading second bass of the Singsong, the largest German singing society of New York, and also the oldest.

In 1899 The Singsong celebrated its fifth anniversary with a large celebration in New York City. The following is his testimony: "About two years ago I caught a severe cold while traveling and which settled into catarrh of the bronchial tubes, and so affected my voice that I was obliged to cancel my engagements. In distress I was advised to try Peruna, and although I had never used a patent medicine before, I sent for a bottle.

"Words but illly describe my surprise to find that within a few days I was greatly relieved, and within three weeks I was entirely recovered. I can never without it now, and take an occasional dose when I feel run down."—Julius Weisheit.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.
