Wednesday, April 16.

The provisions of the present Chinese exclusion act were extended until Dec. 7, 1904, by the senate, and applied to the Philippines and all other insular possessions of the United States. The senate took this action by a vote that would have been unanimous had Senator Hoar consented to cast his ballot for it. The drastic exclusion bill which was framed by congressmen from the Pacific coast and given the committee's indorsement was defeated. The bill as passed was in the form of a substitute proposed by Senator Platt of Connecticut. It was carried 48 to 38. Some minor conditions were made, admitting Chinese persons connected with national expositions, and providing for certificates of identification for Chinese in our insular possessions. Mr. Lodge secured an agreement making the Philippine civil government bill the unfinished business. After a brief executive session the senate adjourned at 6 o'clock.

The day in the house was again occupled with discussion of the Cuban reciprocity bill.

Thursday, April 17.

The day in the senate was mainly occupied by a speech by Mr. Morgan on the Nicaragua canal bill. The resolutions offered by Mr. Culberson (Tex) directing the secretary of war to send to the senate a statement of money paid by the United States on account of the Philippine commission and a statement of the amount of money expended for sending troops to the Philippines and for their maintenance were agreed to. The senate Chinese exclusion bill was substituted for the one passed by the house in order to facilitate consideration of the measure. The senate then at 4:50 went into executive session, and at 4:55 adjourned. The opponents of the Cuban reciprocity bill occupied most of the day in the house, the feature being a vigcrous speech by Cushman (Rep., Wash,) against the measure. Mr. De Armond (Mo.) delivered a forcible speech in favor of tariff reduction on trust articles. The other speakers were Mesars, Pierce (Tenn.), Douglass (N. Y.) and Lacey (Iowa) for the bill and Messrs. Jenkins (Wis.), Gaines (W. Va.), Warner (III.), Gardner, (Mich.), Jones (Wash.) and Loud (Cal.) against it. Mr. Loud declare: that directly and indirectly Cuba already had cost the United States $1,-000,000,000.

Friday, April 18. In the senate consideration was begun on the bill temporarily to provide a form of government for the Philippine Islands. The measure was read which a little over $3,000,000 is apand the committee amendments were agreed to tentatively, but no action on the bill was taken. Mr. Rawlins of fered a substitute for certain sections of the measure relating to the method of government in the islands, the operation of the courts, and extending to the Philippines the land laws of the United States. Mr. Rawlins also offered, on behalf of the minority. substitute for the entire measure, granting, on the condition of the restoration of peace in the archipelago. independence to the Filipinos, and providing for the formation of a constitutional government in the Philippines. Mr. Carmack offered two amendments, one providing that no person or corporation shall hold persons in slavery, under penalty of a fine of not less than $10,000, and the other declaring that the United States regards with extreme disfavor the admission of the Philippine Islands as a state of this Union. Fifty-five private pension bills were passed, as were also bills to ratify an agreement with the Red Lake and Pembina bands of Indians of the Red Lake reservation, Minnesota, and appropriating $1,000,000 to carry the agreement into effect; prevent any consular officer of the United States from accepting any appointment from any foreign state as administrator, guardian, or to any other office or trust without first executing a bond with security to be approved by the secretary of state; appropriating $60,000 for enlarging the public building at Kalamazoo, Mich. and provide a commission to obtain designs for a monument or memorial to Abraham Lincoln, and appropriating $25,000 for the purpose, the commission to consist of the chairmen of the library committees of the house

Pilot Pretchard's child was tossed from the burning steamer into the arms of persons waiting to catch it in the yawl, but its head struck on the side of the boat, and then it fell into the river and was lost.

One of the surviving members of the crew gave this account: "The fire was discovered at 4:05 o'clock in the forward hold. By 4:15 o'clock the entire boat was in flames, and at 4:30 o'clock the steamer was a wreck. The front stairway burned, cutting off any avenue of escape. We alarmed the sleeping passengers, bursting open their doors to awaken them. They ran out without putting on life preservers, and crowded aft.

"The officers held them back while one yawi was loaded with women and children. The scene was awful. About twenty or thirty were taken off in the boat, and then some of those in the water were rescued. Many who were not burned up in the steamer drowned in the river.

"When we reached shore we were unable to stand and had to be helped out of the water. It seemed as though we were crazed by fright, for we were screaming even after we were safe

RATHBONE BOND IS ACCEPTED

Havana cable: The court accepted the bond of $100,000 offered by a fidelity company for the appearance of Estes G. Rathbone. The court requires, however, that this bond be drawn before a notary. This involves much time and expense, as the notary's fees and a state tax must be paid.

Rathbone's attorneys insist that the habeas corpus proceedings be continued and claim that the bond should be drawn before the court, as is customary, without further delay or further expense. In the habeas corpus petition Rathbone's attorneys declare the court's delay illegal and intimate that the court may be impeached for such action.

Radicals Lives During Riot at Louvain.

KING LEOPOLD TO ARBITRATE

Though Beaten to Parliament, Roform Lenders Will Request the Beiglan Ruler to Settle the Question of Universal Buffrage.

Five Socialists were killed, twelve wounded, and many policemen injured at Louvain, near Brussels.

The fight between the Socialists and the soldiery was the direct result of the rejection by the Chamber of Representatives of the Socialist demand for universal suffrage.

The streets of Louvain are barricaded and the war department is in charge.

Rioting is reported from Bruges, where the police charged the mob with drawn swords, wounding ten Social-

M. Van Dervelde, the Socialist leader, declared that, beaten in Parliament, the Socialists would make a direct appeal to King Leopold to arbitrate the differences between the Socialists and the government.

The rioting at Louvain was the most serious of the week. It began with a Socialist demonstration in front of the residence of M. Schollaert, the President of the Chamber of Representatives. The police in attempting to disperse them, were received with a shower of stones.

A similar riot occurred in another part of Louvain, and altogether five persons were killed and twelve were wounded. Some of the mob carried the dead and wounded to the Maison des Proletaries.

The rioting at Louvain began at about half past 7 o'clock in the evening. A band of Socialists paraded the streets of the town, smashing windows. They broke through the police cordon in the Rue Tirlemont. The civic guards became hard pressed by the rioters and fired a volley. The guard fired a second volley in front of the Catholic club. It is reported that twelve policemen were wounded. In some quarters the number of wounded policemen is placed at twenty, and several are said to have been mortally wounded.
