THEMPHONE DOWNERS GROVE 221.

THURSDAY, MAY 8, 1902.

If there is a chance to boom business, been it. Don't pull a long face and look as though you had a sour stomach. Hold ap your head, smile and look for better Hide your little hammer and try to speak well of others, no matter how small you may know yourself to be. When a stranger drops in, jolly him; tell him his is the greatest town on earth—and it is. Don't discourage him by speaking ill white people live. No man ever got rich by trying to make others believe he was the only man in town or the only man the ladder of success by treading on others' corns. Keep off the corns and don't knock. You are not the only one; there are others and they have brains and know something as well as you. There's no end of tun minding your own business. It makes people like you. Nobody ever gets stuck on a knocker. Don't be one.

The season for the annual pilgrim we have no way of judging of his pld could bestow. worthings. But bereafter he must work in Evanuton as to how willing tramps are army of busy men and women workers do to week. Out of forty-one tramps offered and how they do it, to show them the suployment by the Mark Manufacturing works of art, the wonderful collection go to work, and when they got to the the world, and the architectural glories factory and saw the other men at work it and priceless treasures of the capital; to made them sick and they too refused. describe and explain its giant activities; to Most of them said emphatically that they take them through the White House did not have to work. We have made a from the attic to the cellar, through every column promise to the mayor to make it forbidden room, and to portray not only our business to see that no able bodied its daily life, past and present, but its tramp gett a bite to eat in Plainfield un- brilliant social and official functions as ten he sarns it. The city marshal will be well; to tell the story of every president, Instructed not to house them in the village and of every woman who has ever reigned alaboons or fernish them food until they in the White House; to visit the treasury, have raked stones enough off the street to the dead letter office, and to solve the sum their lodging or meal, and when the marvels and mysteries of every governstones are all raked off we will set the ment industry; in short, to present every muall boys throwing stones so there will interesting phase of life and scenes in he some for the next tramp to rake. THIRTY YEARS IN WASHINGTON-

Logan-Extracts From Preface. This Magnificently illustrated volume is published with the concent and aid of the United States government, and this fact alone is evidence of its sterling merit and of the great care that has been bestowed upon it. It is said that all roads lead to Washington just as they did to ancient Rome. Certain it is that the eyes of millions who cannot behold the marvels and glories of our national capital in person are constantly turned toward it.

This book is a complete panerama of the countless interests of the national capital as seen by a famous woman whe, as the wife of an influential senator, a soclety leader, and a friend of every mistress of the White House from Lincoln to the present time, has been in close touch with the inner life of Washington, and enof your neighbors, but lead him to believe joyed rare privilages for studying the 8 rooms; faces east; lot 100x141 that he has at last struck a place where mighty activities of the government, such as no other person has ever before been able to command.

Many distinguished men and women who knows anything. You can't climb have long urged Mrs. Logan to give this volume to the world. She has received letters from thousands unknown to her, expressing the hope that it would be written. In her preface she says:

"My first introduction to life in the city of Washington was in 1858, General Logan being then a member of congress, and for more than thirty years I have lived there almost continuously, an interested observer of passing events. As the of the knights of the road has opened and wife of a senator, I may say that I enjoyvisitations of tramps are daily occurrences ed unusual privilages and opportunities We have no use or sympathy for the able to see and know the inner life and activibodied man who will sponge his living in ties of the capital city. Its illustrations are a triumph of American art. It is worth the price of the book An ordinance amending an ordinance just to look at these 50 magnificent full-"An ordinance revising, page plates, from photographs taken with amending and consolidating the gen- government consent and aid exclusively seed; also white clover and blue grass eral ordinances of the village of for this volume. They portray wonderfully interesting scenes. The government generously waived all "rules and regulations" in order that this book by a woman of Mrs. Logan's standing and influence should be as perfect and complete as possible. One can linger a long time over these beautiful plates, and though he turns from each with regret he is pretty sure to find the next one of still more absorbing interest.

We do not know when 740 pages given us more genuine pleasure. If speak warmly of the book, it is because richly deserves it. It is sold only by agents, and all who introduce such a work ought to be cordially welcomed. Put into your homes. To own it is to prize it; to read it is to obtain a liberal education. We believe that the heat way to keep out poor books is by introducing good ones, and a better one than this has never been brought to our notice.

The book is published by the old and well-known firm of A. D. Worthington & Co., Hartford, Conn., whose imprint is sufficient guarantee of the excellence of nor more than fifty dollars in every this first-class volume. They want more agents for it. An agency for a book so popular as this offers to men and women he same shall continue, after notice an unusual good opportunity to do well.

Children's Fertilizer.

That's a good name for Scott's Emulsion. Children are like young plants. Some will grow in ordinary soil. Others need fertilizers,

The nature of some children prevents them from thriving on ordinary food Such children grow right if treated right.

All they need is a little fertilizer—a little extra richness. Scott's Emulsion is the right treatment.

Fertilizers make things grow. That's just what Scott's Emulsion does. It makes children grow in flesh, grow in strength, grow rich blood, grow in mind, grow happy. That's what we make it for.
