"I Want Everybody to Know How Completely It Cures Indigestion."

This shows the unselfish disposition of Mr. Hodge, of Orchard Cottage, Ippleden, Newton, who, having been cured by Vogeler's Compound, wishes every other sufferer to know of the benefit he has received from this marvellous remedy. He tells his story as follows:—

"Gentlemen—I find Vogeler's Compound a remedy above all others; last year I was in a thorough had state of health, and could hardly drag one leg after the other. I had tried desens of remedies advertised to cure indigention and all its attendant evils, but was rapidly going from had to worse, when I had the good fortune to be recommended to take Vogeler's Compound. I did so, and am thankful to say it made a new man of me. I should like other people to know its virtues, and how completely it knocks under the worst forum of indigestion and dispepria.

(Signed) "George H. Honge.

Vogeler's Compound is the greatest remedy of the century for all stomach disorders and liver and kidney troubles in both men and women. A free sample bottle will be sent on application to the proprietors, St. Jacobs Oil, Ltd., Baltimore, Md.

Why le It

That St. Jacobs Oil always affords instant relief from pains, after all other remedies have signally failed? Simply because it is peculiar to itself, wholly unlike another remedy. It possesses great penetrating power, reaching the very seat of the disease. It acts like magic. It conquers pain quickly and surely. It is an outward application, and is used by millions of people.

NAMES HOPKINS FOR SENATOR

Republican Convention Asks
His Election by Next
Illinois Assembly.

OUTLINE OF THE PLATFORM

High Praise for National and State Administrations and a Special Eulogy for the Ente Governor Tameer—Indersoment for State Civil Service.

For U. S. Senator, A. J. Hopking.
For Treasurer, Fred A. Busse.
For Supreme Court Clerk, Chris Mamer.
For Superintendent of Public Instruction, Alfred Bayliss.
For University Trustees, Mrs. Laura
Evans, William B. McKlutey, L. E.

Kerrick.
For Clerks of Appellate Courts—Second District, C. C. Duffy; Third District, William C. Hippard; Four., District, A. C. Millspaugh.

Albert J. Hopkins of Aurora was indorsed as candidate for the United States senate to succeed Senator Mason, and the foregoing ticket was nominated by the Republican state convention at Springfield, III.

The platform adopted by the convention, after high praise not only for the national administration but for the state one as well, and after a special eulogy for the late Governor Tanner, neclared for a civil service law which shall prevent the dismissal of state employes "on every change of administration," and favored a convict labor law which, while keeping prisoners employed, shall prevent them as far as possible from competing with free labor.

The indorsement of Congressman Hopkins for United States senator was the occasion for the only real fight of the day.

The resolution of indorsement was passed after a ruling of the chairman of the convention, Lieut. Gov. Northcott, which not only denied to Speaker Lawrence Y. Sherman the right to introduce a minority report opposing instructions on United States senator but also prevented him from introducing his civil service plank.

Lieut. Gov. Northcott also refused to allow Speaker Sherman, Congressman Reeves, and other opponents of the Hopkins resolution to speak to the question.

Regarding the action of the convention, Senator Mason said:

"I will succeed myself as United States Senator for Illinois. I have made no fight for state delegates. The ultimate effect will be to elect me and to defeat Mr. Lorimer for Congress, defeat the Cook County ticket, and greatly endanger the State ticket."

LAST RITES OVER CORRIGAN

New York dispatch: The body of the Most Rev. Michael Augustine Corrigan, D. D., Archbishop of New York, was interred in the crypt of St. Patrick's Cathedral in the presence of eight Archbishops, eighteen Bishops, more than 1,000 priests and a great multitude of people.

The great funeral was conducted with all the impressive solemnity and ceremony of his church and was attended by a remarkable gathering of the clergy.

Almost with the break of day crowds began to assemble at the cathedral and when the hour of the funeral arrived a vast throng had assembled to pay last reverence to the dead prelate.

At the close of the service a death mask of the Archbishop was taken. The body was placed in a casket, which was taken to the crypt under the high altar and placed in a van't beside the bodies of Archbishop Hughes and Cardinal McCloskey. Bishop McQuaid of Rochester said the final prayers.

A wreath of Easter lilies, white roses, and snowballs was received at the Cathedral from President Roosevelt. Another wreath bore the name of John W. Mackay.

Rome cable: A requiem mass for Archbishop Corrigan was sung in the Church of the American College, Bishop MacDonnell celebrating.

FIRE IN PONTIAC CELLHOUSE

Coolness of Officials Averts Paule Among the 300 Insentes.

Pontiac, Ill., dispatch: A disastrous fire at the Illinois state reformatory destroyed the north cellhouse block, which was supposed to be the strongest and best of its kind in America. There were over 300 inmates in the cellhouse when the fire broke out and panic was averted only by the timely assistance of officers who were off duty. The inmates were immediately rushed to the south cellhouse and for a time it seemed as if this too would be burned and company r was called to quarters in case its assistance would be needed.

San Francisco dispatch: Plans are being quietly pressed in the east for the creation of a new steamship line between San Francisco and Hong-Kong to run in conjunction with the proposed Canton-Hankow railroad.

Freehold, N. J., dispatch: Probably the biggest boy, in the state is Jay Hopping, of New Monmouth. He is fifteen years old, six feet two inches tall, and weighs 207 pounds. WANTED TO CLIMB OVER THE GATE

They are telling a story in Washington about the new Secretary of the Navy. Mr. Moody was riding on one of the Boston surface cars, and was standing on the platform on the side next the gate that protected passengers from cars coming on the other track. A lady—a Boston lady—came to the door of the car, and, as it stopped, started to move toward the gate, which was hidden from her by the men standing before it.

"Other side, please, lady," said the conductor. He was ignored as only a born and bred Bostonian can ignore a man. The lady took another step toward the gate.

"You must get off the other side," said the conductor.

"I wish to get off on this side," came the answer, in tones that congenied the official into momentary silence. Before he could either explain or expostulate, Mr. Moody came to his assistance.

"Stand to one side, gentlemen," he remarked, quietly. "The lady wants to climb over the gate."—New York Times.

E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham: — Being a mother of five children I have had experience with the general troubles of my sex. I was lacerated when one of my children was born and from that hour I date all my afflictions. I found that within a few months my health was impaired, I had female weakness and serious inflammation and frequent flooding. I became weak and dizzy but kept on my feet, dragging through my work without life or pleasure. A neighbor who had been helped by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound insisted that I take at least one bottle. I did so and felt so much better that I kept on the treatment. For seven months I used the Compound faithfully and gladly do I say it, health and strength are mine once more. I know how to value it now when it was so nearly lost, and I appreciate how great a debt I owe you. The few dollars I spent for the medicine cannot begin to pay what it
