PLOT TO RELEASE REYNOLDS. TRIO OF SAFE BLOWERS.

Death of Miss Edna Craigmile of LaGrange-Barwyn Without Fire Department-Other County News From Exchanges.

While Frank Reynolds was in jail at red precinct, but were soon discovered by Sheriff Gorham. Apparently they are trying the same game in Kane county, as is shown by the following from the Aurora News: "Shertff Demmer of Geneva is anthority for the statement that a concerted effort is being made to release Frank Beynolds, Frank Barber and Harry Colin, the trie of Chicago safe blowers new in jail at Geneva. He bases his belief on the fact that the men are constantly meeting callers from Chicago in the ane of fashionably dressed wemen. Every visitor to the jail is watched with the greatest care by the sheriff and no one is allowed to visit the place unless under the strict surveillance of an officer. The prisoners are kept in cells apart from one ther and cannot communicate in the ghtest manner. An extra guard is kept at the jail and the outside walls are being pairolled by armed guards ready to frestrate any attempt which might be nade to liberate the men or to pass saws or other instruments of this description brough the windows. Only Wednesday Raypold's wife visited him and had a long talk with him in the presence of the sher-M. A short time afterward two women who had been hanging around the jail rece admitted, and though they were for emspicion by the sheriff they tave no signs of recognition when brought face to face with the criminals. On being questioned one of them gave an Elgin address and said that the other was her guant from Chicago."

obsists of one policeman; who acts as omptain, lieutenant, sergeant and the whole terce. Residents of the village as a result are trying to find answers to the following questions: What would we do if our homes caught fire? What would we do if a band of thieves began work in our town? What would we do if we had a strike and riots? And then what would we do if our police force became ill or resigned? No one has come forward with the answers desired and the residents of the village are talking of helding a mass meeting to air their troubles. When Berwyn separated from Cicero its troubles began. The police department dwindled to one patrolman and the volunteer fire department is almost a myth.

Edward Schink of Deer Grove enjoys the unique distinction of being the only man in that vicinity who ever caught a large fish in the cornfield. This unusual experience came to Mr. Schinck Monday afternoon and was made possible by the blg overflow of the Green river, which is far out of its banks and covers many acres of corn. Mr. Schink was wading in his cornfield on the eventful afternoon and noticed a great commotion in a shallow pool of water. Upon investigation he found a large catfish floundering in the EFFORT MADE TO SMUGGLE SAWS TO the pool. He speared the fish, which weighed eighteen pounds, with a pitchfork.

Mrs. R. Dorman and her sen Elliott of to $20.00. LaGrange had a narrow escape during the recent storm. Elliott had just stepped out of his sleeping room for a moment Wheaton efforts were made to secure his when the lightning came down through escripe and saws were spirited in the bar- the ceiling, filling the room full of sulphurous smoke and dust, going out through a second opening in the ceiling and through the attic to the dining room, where it followed the gas pipes to the basement, twisting the pipes into many shapes. Had Elliott been in the room he would doubtless have been killed.

> The family of Emil Ehinger of Wheaton awoke one morning last week to find that burglars had entered the house during the night and ransacked the lower rooms for money. A cost and vest were taken into the yard for safer examination. Entrance was gained by the basement door and the other doors left open for a hurried exit if necessary. Mr. Ehinger was ill in an upper room and was being cared for by his wife. The burglary was a matter of surprise to them the next | this season it will pay you to use the morning, but the loss was alight.

Valentine Rau, who lives on the Karsten farm north of Wheaton, hitched his team to the grain binder to pull it from under a shed and get it in working order for the sesson. He had his horses by the bits, but as the binder moved the team became scared and they started on a run, dragging Mr. Rau under the binder tongue. He was severely bruised and has since been confined to his bed. Had he let go be would have been in the guards of the machine and perhaps killed,
