The dancing season has been inaugurated in local social circles, the second of a series of semi-monthly receptions being held at Carpenter's hall Saturday evening. About forty attended and found pleasure in a varied program of fifteen dances. Music was furnished by the Ideal orchestra. The next party will be given Saturday evening, Oct. 25th.

Mrs. H. H. Curtiss, for many years a resident of Downers Grove, died at her home in Cedar Falls, Iowa, Sunday, Oct. 5, 1902, at the advanced age of 79 years. She was the wife of H. H. Curtiss, brother of the late Charles and R. O. Curtiss of Downers Grove, and is well known among the older residents of the village. H. H. Curtiss built and formerly occupied the old Condit place on Maple avenue. Mrs. Curtiss was here on a visit about six weeks ago. She leaves a husband and two daughters.

Miss Edith Rankin last Saturday entertained sixteen young ladies from the Chicago Kindergarten school, of which she is a member. The girls spent the afternoon in the woods gathering leaves and admiring nature. While on the way to the train, laden with leaves and flowers, the sidewalk gave way, frightening the girls somewhat but injuring no one. They complimented Downers Grovers Grove on their good sidewalks and left for Chicago, thanking Miss Rankin for a very pleasant afternoon.

One-way second-class settlers' excursion rates. Daily during September and October tickets to California common points, also to Prescott and Phoenix, Ariz., will be on sale at the low rate of $28. Also during these days you can buy cheap tickets at very low rates to many other points in the west as follows: Billings, Helena, Anaconda, Missoula and Kalispell, Mont., and Spokane, Portland, Tacoma, Ellensburg and Seattle, Wash., and all other points. For all particulars and general information call on C. P. Scott, ticket agent. Telephone 3.

The Moonlight Maids are billed to appear at Hopkin's for one week, commencing with the usual matinee on Sunday, Oct. 19. The show is said to be the "real thing." It contains a number of first-rate vaudeville acts and one burlesque, entitled "A Circus Day," in which is introduced, besides the principals, a large and cleverly drilled chorus, who are marvels of beauty, with bewitching mannerisms, just the kind of girls the theater-going public enjoy. The costumes, and there are dozens of them, are the joint work of Will Bates and Charles Thompson. The scenery is superb and is from the studio of Gustav A. Hennings.
