Pain

From Inflammatory Rheumatism Would Have Killed Our Son.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills Saved Him.

"We began to use Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills six years ago. My wife had liver trouble and a neighbor gave her some of your liver pills to try, after which we bought a bottle of them and my wife used them until cured. Since then I have used them and I must say that I have never used any pills that gave me the satisfaction these have. We also use Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills with greatest satisfaction. Three years ago our son Harry had inflammatory rheumatism. He had suffered so much that I believe if we had not given him Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills which relieved him almost instantly he would have died. I am always glad of the opportunity for praising Dr. Miles' Remedies."—James Evert, Alton, Ill.

"I was afflicted with neuralgia for years and never found any permanent relief till I began using Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They are a sure cure for headache and neuralgia pains. Only this morning I recommended them to a friend with a severe headache and in a half hour he came into the store smiling. The headache was gone. We use them in the family and find them excellent for the women folk. This high altitude makes them very nervous. Grandma says I should tell Dr. Miles she could not live here were it not for the Anti-Pain Pills that she takes occasionally."—L. B. Morris, Helena, Montana.

ILLINOIS COUNTRY PRESS.

It is taking part of the time of the democratic press to explain why the trusts are making liberal donations to the democratic campaign fund.—Golconda Herald.

The democratic party has a record on the trust question, and it is not taking any particular pains to flaunt it before the people, if you notice.—Golconda Herald-Enterprise.

The democrats have paid so much attention to the weeds in the republican fences that they have quite forgotten the dilapidated condition of their own boundaries.—Harvard Herald.

Illinois republicans should not act upon the theory that this is an off year, and not go to the polls. Let every member of the party turn out and perform his duties as a good citizen.—Greenville Advocate.

Like the drowning man grasping at a straw, the democratic party will hang on to free trade this year. And its buoyancy is an uncertain quantity. The American people have not forgotten what free trade did a few years ago.—McHenry Plain-dealer.

Mr. Bryan says: "Our present prosperity is not going to last." That will depend upon the success of the democratic party. If that party gets in we may naturally expect, judging from past experiences, a temporary check, at least.—Shawneetown News-Gleaner.

Every issue ever presented by the democrats has been turned down sooner or later by the voters of this country. Every time they gave a democratic principle a trial they have had cause to regret. Every time the voters have rejected a democratic issue and accepted the republican issue, they have had cause to rejoice.—Nashville Journal.

When you read in a democratic paper, or hear a democratic orator complain that the trust question has been passed over without congressional action, call their attention to the fact that every national statute looking to the control of trusts, met with the hearty support of the republicans in and out of congress, but was bitterly opposed by the democratic congressmen and democratic leaders.—Geneva Republican.

Mr. Bryan cannot understand why it is that the people will no longer listen to his gospel of strife, contention and hatred. This shouldn't be difficult to comprehend. The people now realize that it is the height of folly to squander their energies in foolish contentions. They know that it is the part of wisdom to unite and harmonize the energies which must work together for the common good.—Streator Free Press.

The question up for discussion being whether the average man is better off to-day than he was in 1890, the Globe-Democrat takes the floor and suggests that the man be made a witness himself and be asked: "Would you like to return to the times under the last democratic administration?" The chances are that his feet were sore then hunting for a job. To-day he is busy, prosperous and happy.—Monmouth Republican-Atlas.

Good Financial Showing.

"Once again the State of Illinois has recovered from the days of democratic treasury looting. The recovery has required time and a temporary increase in the tax rate, but the treasury increase has regained something of its former respectable proportions. The debts which were left as a legacy from the Altgeld administration have been paid and on the 7th of this month of October, 1902, there was in the treasury a working balance of $3,042,070."—Governor Yates in speech at Anna, Illinois, on October 9th, 1902.

NOT COMPARABLE.

The Policies of the Republicans and the Democrats Cannot Be Held Parallel.

The master republicans can reduce the rates without peril to our vast industrial edifices, but if democrats should make precisely the same reductions that would not be revision—it would be free trade.—Chicago Chronicle (dem.).

That is not a fair statement and the Chronicle knows it. "If the democrats would make precisely the same reductions" is a fallacious assumption. We have the solemn and reiterated pledges of the democrats that they would not "make precisely the same reductions" or anything approaching a similarity. The fundamental principle of a democratic tariff is the reverse of the republican principle. The latter would tax imports of the same class as those that are or can be produced in this country. The two policies are diametrically opposed to each other. It is, therefore, folly and a waste of time to talk about a democratic congress making "precisely the same reductions" as republicans would make. It is comparing things that are incomparable.
