master to the Mutilated Corpse.

Train Completes Work of Assassins, the Body Being Severed Just Below the Shoulders-Robbery May Have Been Cause of Crime.

Wheaton, Ill., special: The body of a man, which had been hacked partly into two pieces with a large blunt knife and then laid on the railroad track for a train to complete the dismemberment, was found by James J. Robertson in the yards of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad at West Chicago. Three deep wounds had been made in the neck in addition to the severing of the body. A knife covered with blood was near the body.

Informant Escapes.

Early Thursday morning Yardmaster Robertson was approached by a stranger, who said to him:

"You will find the body of a man on the Elgin branch just east of the Elgin, Joliet and Eastern track." Robertson immediately started out Arthur Brundeen, a Swedish boy, to find it. The stranger followed him excitedly until near the place described and then turned and made his escape. He cannot be found and be-> unable to give a description of him. Grewsome Sight.

cause of the darkness Robertson is Upon nearing the spot indicated Robertson came upon a hunting cap and then stumbled over the body. It had been severed in two just below the arms. The head and shoulders being inside the track and the rest of the body outside. The body was still warm. In the neck three deep wounds, made by a knife, showed the manner of the victim's death.

The man had worn two black coats of good quality and two pairs of trousers. A duck hunting jacket, but neither gun nor ammunition was found. It is supposed he had come from Chicago after game. Nothing of value was found about the man. His money and watch had been taken, as his clothes gave evidence.

Knife la Clew.

The only clew which may lead to the solving of the mystery came from the knife, which has the name of a Plainfield firm stamped on a blade and on a page of a memorandum book found in the man's coat was the name Barber. This was nearly erased and indistinct.

Two suspicious characters had been seen about the yards earlier in the evening. No trace has since been found of them. The murdered man was about 46 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches in height and weighed 140 pounds. He had black hair and mustache and brown eyes.

Stranger Takes Railroad Yard- Citizens Are Stirred by Visit of Apache Kid to Fort McDowell.

THREE DEEP WOUNDS IN NECK INDIAN TRIBES ARE RESTLESS

Lack of Food and Incident Distress Has Produced Discontent Among the Redmen in Arizona and an Uprising is Not Unlikely.

Apache Kid, the most noted leader of the Apache Indians during the last ten years, has suddenly and unexpectedly returned to Fort McDowell in Arizona. His reappearance has caused uneasiness among the white inhabitants living near the fort. While he gave no reason for his presence, his friends took care to have it plainly understood that the chief was in search of a wife or wives.

Since the arrival of the Apache chief two friends who returned with him have been wooing all the eligible Apache women of Fort McDowell, but have so far failed to find a squaw or squaws to suit the matrimonial wishes of Kid. The two friends finally got drunk because of disappointment over their failure to find a gentle wife for their chief and they, with several others, started a celebration at Fort McDowell that terrified the whites, who believed a new Apache war was in process of formation. As a result of the disturbance Apache Kid and his two friends are now under military surveillance.

Fear Indian Revolt.

Old settlers at Fort McDowell are suspicious of Apache Kid. They would be greatly pleased if he and his friends were imprisoned without delay in order to frustrate any evil pur poses he may have. They fear that he is plotting a new Indian revolt. He already has several wives.

Apache Kid could not have returned to civilization at a more critical time than the present. Recently there was serious excitement among the Apaches and Mohaves owing to the distress and discontent among them. These two warlike tribes came so closely together owing to their common sufferings that it was believed they had formed an alliance hostile to the whites. The white inhabitants of central Arizona went so far as to prepare themselves for a struggle with the redskins. Apache Kid, the most dreaded of Apaches, arrived at Fort McDowell, where Mohaves Apaches come more closely in contact than anywhere else, just when his appearance served to confirm the reports of the alliance of the two great Arizona tribes against the whites.

Has Been in Mexico.

The dreaded chief must have passed most of his time in the last five years in northern Sonora and Chihuahua. It is known that a stray band of member of the family. Apaches has been operating in that region and Kid has probably been the leader. The members of his band stole enough cattle to keep themselves supplied with meat without exciting any concerted action against them on

During the past year the Apaches northern Sonora and Chihuahua have had a number or conflicts with the mormon colonists of the region because of raids which they had made on the cattle of the latter. It looks now as though the mormons had made matters too warm for the Apaches and the result is Kid's return to Arizona.

From Paris to San Francisco With But One Change of Care-The Overland Limited and the Trans-Siberian Express.

Travel from the far east to London and other European points which has heretofore sailed from China, Manchuria, The Philippines and Japan through the Suez Canal, is likely hereafter to follow the Royal Mail, which it has recently been demonstrated, can be brought to London through San Francisco and across the United States three or four days more quickly than via the old route.

The traffic department of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway has advices that the Russian Ministry of the Interior has arranged with the International Sleeping Car Co., for new sleeping car service on the Trans-Siberian Railway, between Moscow and Port Arthur, to be weekly at first, triweekly later on, and eventually a Train-de-Luxe to be inaugurated between Warsaw and Port Arthur leaving Warsaw daily. At Warsaw connection is made with the famous Express Du Nord from Paris, Berlin and other European capitols.

Thus Port Arthur will be within easy reach of Paris, and from Port Arthur the journey is completed in fast vessels across the Pacific to San Franciseo and on the New Overland Limited via the Southern Pacific, Union Pacific and Chicago & Northwestern Rys. to Inter-Continental travel is thus practically established through what had, until recently, been supposed to be the wastes of Siberia; now proven to include much rich farming country which is being rapidly settled. Such circling of the globe will be a delightful holiday beside which the present transatlantic journey takes on a very ordinary aspect.

The equipment for the Siberian Express is to be in control of the International Sleeping Car Co., and the service will be of the highest character, more nearly approaching the American standard than is usual on the Conti-Caney, Ky., experienced a state of siege on account of a fight between the Frisbee and Mans factions. The child of Bob Frisbee was buried in the county. Kelley and Bob Mans and Gatau Howard, enemies of Sam Frisbee and Frank and Al Lykins, were at the cemetery and began raising a disturbance. Frisbee's friends protested. The Mans boys walked outside the graveyard and dared the Lykins boys to follow. Frisbee and some friends started with the Lykins boys for the hotel by another route when the Mans boys began shooting.

THE TEST OF TIME Mrs. Clara J. Sherbourne, professional nurse, of 257 Cumberland street, Portland, Maine, says: "I heartily wish those who suffer

neys would try Doan's Kidney Pills. They would, like me, be more than surprised. My back annoyed me for years. Physicians who diagnosed my case said it arose from my kidneys. When the grip was epidemic I was worn out with constant nursing, and when I contracted it myself it left me in a very serious condition. I could not straighten nor do the most trivial act without being in torture. The kidneys were too active or the secretions were too copious, and I knew what was wrong, but how to right it was a mystery. It seems odd for a professional nurse, who has had a great deal of experience with medicines, to read advertisements about Doan's Kidney Pills in the newspapers, and it may appear more singular for me to go to H. H. Hay & Son's drug store for a box. But I did, however; and had anybody told me before that it was possible to get relief as quickly as I did I would have been loth to believe it. You can send anyone who wishes more minute particulars about my case to me, and I will be only too glad to tell them personally. As long as I live I will be a firm advocate of Doan's Kidney Pills."
