THURSDAY, NOV. 20, 1902.

Do most of us eyer stop to think of the origin of what is now a great national festival? Of late years Thanksgiving has become, with some of us, little more than an occasion for indulging in unlimited turkey and plum pudding, perhaps going to the matinee or a football game or some other sort of junketing in the afternoon. We scarcely realize the deep solemnity of the first Thanksgiving day ever celebrated on this continent by our stern Puritan forebears from whom we inherit both our strenuous dispositions and our dyspepsis. The first Thanksgiving occurred in the Plymouth colony soon after the landing of the Pilgrims in 1621. The little harvest of the settlers had been successfully gotten in, the Indians were for the moment peaceful, and everything looked brighter and more promising to the little community than it had for a long time, so a day of thanksgiving to God for his great mercies was appointed. Of the best huntemen of the colony four were singled and ordered placed on file. out by the governor, who sent them "fowling, that there might be wherewithal for a feast of rejoicing." The game one barrel of oil sent Dec. 1, 1901, was they brought back with them was the wild turkey; Lence the bird whose sovercignty on that day has for over 200 years been undisputed. It is believed by the best authorities that the first celebration took place in October, as it was out of doors and lasted nearly a week. Every twelve months or so other days of thanksgiving followed for about 47 years, but at no one given time or season. Each congregation appointing the day that it deemed most convenient, sometimes it occured in the spring after a hard winter, more often in the fall to return thanks for a generous harvest.

COLORADO

That is the title-of a very beautiful seventy-two-page book published by the C., B. and Q. railroad. It is most entertaining and informative, besides being illustrated with exceptionally fine engravings. The rates to Colorado are so cheap this year that many will take their vacation there. They should ask the C., R. and Q. ticket agent for this book. Price, 6 cents.

come put a penny in the hurn," is an old time dairy proverb. It often seems to vork though no one has ever old why.

When mothers are worried ecause the children do not gain strength and flesh we ay give them Scott's Emul-

It is like the penny in the nilk because it works and ecause there is something stonishing about it.

Scott's Emulsion is simply milk of pure cod liver oil with some hypophosphites especially prepared for delicate stomachs.

Children take to it naturally Cook Stoves because they like the taste and the remedy takes just as naturally to the children because it is so perfectly adapted to their wants.

For all weak and pale and thin children Scott's Emulsion is the most satisfactory treatment.

We will send you the penny, A. e., a sample free.
