The Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean is the only weekly newspaper published in Chicago in connection with the great daily papers. It contains a judiciously selected summary of the news of the nation and world, the best stories, home, farm, women's, and other special departments, and fair, patriotic, able editorials, written from a republican view point. It is by far the best general newspaper of the western states. The regular price for the Weekly Inter Ocean is $1.00 and for the Reporter $1.50 but subscriptions will be received at this office for the two papers in combination for one year for only $2.00.

23rd Issues left Sunday night for Arrisona.
Mrs. J. M. Blatis has been quite ill for some time.
Miss and Mrs. Joe Taylor entertained friends from Chicago on Thanksgiving.
I want to buy a farm. Desires full-ly. A. Report, 406, 34 Clark street, Chicago.
Mr. Murray and Miss Emma Skinner spent Thanksgiving with Miss Anna Knutsen of Chicago.
Miss Anna Knutsen of Chicago entertained a number of Downers Grove young people Saturday evening.
Cream of the West flour makes the best bread and is the cheapest flour in town. Every sack is guaranteed.
Mrs. G. W. Weber has been seriously ill with an attack of pneumonia the past week, but is now recovering.
Mrs. C. V. Carpenter entertained the Sunday school class mates of her son, Royce, Friday evening, with games and refreshments.
You can get good dirt for your park way or gardens for 25 cents a load at the green houses of J. A. Wibe on South Washington street.
C. E. Graves left last week for an extended trip over his territory as salesman for Marshall Field & Co. Mrs.
Graves left Friday for Omaha to visit her parents.
Members of the Hathbone sisters gave a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A.
E. Courtright Saturday evening. Pennucchie, ping-pong and refreshments furnished amusement.
Floyd Farrer was home over Thanksgiving visiting his relatives and left Saturday for New Orleans where his duties as civil engineer for the Illinois Central railroad call him.
Miss Julia E. Curtiss of Cedar Falls, Iowa, was the guest of her uncle, R. O.
Curtiss. Miss Curtiss is a native of Downers Grove, but for the past fourteen years has been an instructor in music in the Iowa state normal college.
Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Curtiss entertained Dr. J. H. Frank and wife of Fullersburg, John Russell and wife of Chicago, John H. Torode and family of York and Ernest Sedgwick of York, Neb., at a family reunion on Thanksgiving day.
J. C. E. Bennett's house is rapidly nearing completion and when finished will be one of the most comfortable residences in East Grove. Daniel Dunn has the contract and expects to have the building finished in about three weeks.
Relatives of the family say the reporter was in error last week in stating that Mrs. Orilla Townsend had given property to the value of $3,000 to Doris. The self-styled Elijah had made every effort to secure her money, it is true, but relatives of the demented woman defeated his purpose.
For the first time since 1899 the postoffice department, with the issuance of the new series of stamps now in preparation, will make use of the American flag in one of its designs. This will be a part of the two-cent stamp, which, by the way, will bear little resemblance to the one now in use. The portrait of Washington which has long appeared on the popular stamp, will be replaced by a photograph taken from Gilbert Stuart's famous painting. The famous bust of Washington, so long known to the stamp using public, was drawn from Houdon's profile cast. Let the public, then, soon take its last view of the likeness of Washington, which is doubtless more than any other impressed upon the popular mind.
Among the companies this season to occupy a high place in the public favor is the Bowery Burlesquers which are billed to appear at Hopkin's theatre for the week of December 7. The excellent bill they present demands the attention of all lovers of burlesque and vaudeville. The opening number of the program represents the burlesquers enroute in a sleeping car. This skit is overflowing with fun and has in it a very large element of sensational features which make it doubly entertaining. The specialties which are introduced in the olio are all high class and have the decided advantage of never having been seen in houses of this sort before. Every specialty is a top liner and is sure to please and amuse the most critical.
