SOPER THAR STRICTLY CASE IN ADVANC ared at the P. O. at Downers Grove, Iil.

TREEPHONE DOWNERS GROVE 221.

THURSDAY, DEC. 18, 1902.

The pastors of Joliet have organized gainst the professional medicant who represents himself as a distressed member of their church from some other city. The other day one of these fellows called on the Methodist pastor, and after be had gone it occurred to the minister that the man might be an imposter. It also occurred to him that if the man was a fraud he would work the same game on other pastors. S he called up the other ministers and told them of his experience with the stranger. None of them had seen the man until h caught the Presbyterian minister, who was called to the telephone just in time to break into a most harrowing account of the stranger's misfortunes which he was disposed to hear with sympathetic inter est. On comparing notes the clergyman found that the imposter had told each the same story except as to the detail concerning his church connection. To the first minister he was a strauded Methodist and spring as soon as the frost is out of the to the other a Presbyteriau.

Downers Grove most assuredly needs a home for public entertainments. We are going on towards a population of three thousand and not a fit place in town where the people can be catered to in the amuse ment line. The men of money don't seem to catch on. They are evidently afraid that such an opera house as Downer Grove requires would not pay a very rich percentage. The plans of the re-organization committee provide for a suitable auditorium. Here then is an opportunity to get aboard a scheme for public improvement in this line. We believe the people are ripe, if assured that an adequate opera house will eventuate out of the committee's efforts and intentions, for whatever may be set in motion looking towards the realization of a worthy object. We believe the people are now ready to aid them and second their efforts in all reasonable ways to affect this purpose.

Lorimer's friends are claiming all nor of votes for his candidate for speaker, III. Miller, and state they have Judge Sherman beaten hands down. But wait; it is just as well to delay the counting o the Miller majority until the republican cautens. The Cook county been heen't sleeted his man yet, and before he does will have the biggest fight on his bands he ever experienced in his oweer. The people of the state of Illinois have become about tired of Lorimer's 'cramming down your threat" methods, especially when the material to be crammed is a political non-

For a number of years the geologieall survey has been keeping records of the flow of streams on the Southern Atlantic alope. Only a few years ago capitalists in the northern states were of the opinion that the southern streams were of but little value for water power development and it was impossible to induce northern capital to come into the southern states for manufacturing purposes. Largely owing to the greater information now available in regard to the flow of these outhern streams mills run by water power are now being built in all of the outhern states.

At the beginning of the nineteenth century there were 16 cities in the country which had a population of more than 4,000. Philadelphia was first in the list, with 69,000, with New York a close second, while Baltimore had taken third place from Boston by 25,000 to 25,000. At the same period the comulation of the country was 5,308,-483, of which only five per cent. was

A bired man engaged in work about the kitchen of J. C. Banks at LaGrange, took what he supposed to be a pan of water, but what proved to be gasoline, and placed it on the gas range. The fluid blazed up at once and Frank Banks undertook to carry the pan out doors but was obliged to drop it when near the doorway. His hands and face were quite badly burned in the NOTICE OF FILING FINAL SETTLEMENT. brave attempt. The fire communicated to the woodwork of the kitchen and the destruction of the house seemed eminent. Prompt work, lowever, confined the blaze to the kitchen.

Elgin, the seat of the butter market of of the world, may possibly lose its prestage. The Fox River Butter company of Autora having purchased the bankrupt Sand creameries. This gives to Aurora and the Fox River Butter company con trol of the finest creameries in the best dairy country in the world. Aurora having the crasmeries it will probably start s board of trade of its own, and in this case Elgin, as a board of trade town, will not be in the running.

Arrangements have been made whereby the delegates to the judicial convention a Yorkville, Satorday, January 3d, will leave Wheaton on a special electric train at 10:80. The delegates from DeKalh county and the northern half of Kane will come here and all will go down to gether in a body. It will be in the nature of a mid-winter excursion, many our people never having rode on the electric, and the ride from Wheaton to York ville and return will be a very pleasant
