 Letters from Mrs. F. W. C. Hayes states that she is pleasantly situated at Tallahassee, Florida. She says that the winter there has been fine and that the gardens are full of roses, japonicas and other flowers. Christmas day there, she says, was like a northern Fourth of July with fire-crackers, tin horns and fire works in the evening. It is so very warm when the fourth of July really comes that they just can't make any noise, and the American independence must have its expression sometime.
