Cars Kill David Grant

Well Known DuPage County Resident Meets Death on Electric

Barn Destroyed by Fire in Addison—Henry Glos, Defeated for Mayor—Other County News Taken From Exchanges.

On last Saturday David Grant and wife were out in the woods gathering wild flowers. In the evening about 7 o'clock he started for the home of his daughter, Mrs. D. M. Gurnea, who has been ill, to take some of the flowers to her. In going to her home it was his custom to walk in the middle of the road as the sidewalk on Chase street is dilapidated in places. The Northwestern and electric railways parallel each other and Mr. Grant had crossed the Northwestern tracks and stepped on the tracks of the electric when the east bound car which left Wheaton at 7:17 struck him, death being virtually instantaneous; the accident occurring at 7:20. The deceased, David J. Grant, was born Oct. 10, 1834, at Brantford, Canada. When a small boy he came with his parent to York Center, DuPage county. April 22, he was married to Mary M. Sackett. About 1860 he moved to Wheaton where he resided until the time of his death. In October, 1862, he enlisted in Co. F, 105th Ill. Infantry, and engaged in many battles of the war. He was recognized as a very brave man on the field of battle. The funeral services were held from the home on Howard street Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. W. L. Ferris preached the sermon, and was assisted by President Blanchard, who also made appropriate remarks. There were a large number of friends and relatives present. The body was borne to the Torode cemetery, south of Elmhurst.

Thomas Snow, mayor of Batavia, was found dead in a room at Hotel Schlitz in Aurora Sunday night. A post mortem was held, but the report is being withheld pending further investigation. His death is attributed to kidney trouble. Mr. Snow engaged the room Saturday afternoon and when he had not appeared at 7:30 the next morning, Manager Wall investigated and found him dead. Mayor Snow was one of the wealthiest men in Kane county. He is reported to be worth a million dollars or more. Deceased was one of the principal owners in the United States Wind Engine and Pump company of Batavia.

The large barn on the farm of Henry Rosenwinkle, in Addison, occupied by Louis Thies, Jr., was burned to the ground last Thursday evening, together with the contents and 23 head of cattle and four horses. Mr. Rosenwinkle had the barn well covered with insurance. Thies had but $800 insurance on the personal property. The origin of the fire is a mystery as Mr. Thies was at the barn at 9 o'clock that evening and everything was all right. An hour and a half later his neighbors woke him up and the building was then a mass of flames.—Journal.

Henry B. Fargo, the new mayor of Geneva has the distinction of being the only man able to beat Major Dennis J. Hogan within the last eight years. "Denny" Hogan was four times elected mayor of Geneva and has served for eight years. Mr. Fargo was elected on the Republican ticket, his fight being made principally on the saloon issue. Major Hogan is a strong democrat, but was always elected on the peoples ticket because the democratic vote in Geneva is light.

At the corporation election at Elmhurst, the boys succeeded in defeating Henry Glos, the banker and tax title man, for mayor, in one of the liveliest contests that has ever taken place in that city. Mr. Glos was popularly supposed to carry the vote of that suburb in his vest pocket and his defeat has carried consternation among and caused a rattling of the dry bones of the leaders of York township.

Judge Brown left for Ottawa Monday, where he will be busy as a judge of the appellate court until July 1st. He said the neglected docket of that court had been pretty well cleaned up, the judges having disposed of all the cases litigants wanted tried, and some of the cases which attorneys did not want opinions on.

Wm. J. Manning of Warrenville, has piped water from his artesian well to the station of the electric. A park will be laid out near the depot where Mr. Manning will furnish the water for a fountain. An automobile to convey passengers from the depot to the business portion of that city would be a convenience.

C. D. Bird of Hinsdale, 27-year-old son of Curtis D. Bird, auditor of the C. B. & Q. railroad company, who was arrested on a charge of larceny and forgery made by W. P. Garrison, 1101 Unity building, was dismissed Wednesday by Justice Prindiville on a want for prosecution.
