Pittsburg over Sunday.

The Hall family have moved to East Grove from Western Springs.

Arthur T. Ballard of Chicago was the guest of his relatives, Mrs. Bolden and Mrs. Birdie Rose, last week.

Mrs. B. M. Muzzey left Saturday for a two weeks' visit with her brother, Lient. H. W. Stickie, at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

Burglars entered the Western Springs postoffice last Tuesday night but were frightened away before securing anything of value.

Many features of more than ordinary interest will make up the program of the May fete to be given at the Auditorium tonight.

Miss Lottie Carro who has been spending several weeks at Mrs. Wm.
Fraenkel's returned to her home in Chicago Saturday.

J. L. Wilson and family of Chicago, former residents here, are spending a few days visiting with relatives and friends in Downers.

Sunday was an ideal spring day and all day long the woods were thronged with parties gathering wild flowers which were in abundance.

Messrs. and Mesdames Frank A. Rogers, T. O. Aldrich and E. E. Downer attended the funeral of the late John W.
Webster at Hinsdale Sunday afternoon.

D. G. Graham went to Plano to attend the funeral of M. T. Green who Glasgow, Scotland, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Jas. Adams, at East Grove. Mrs. D. Reid of Elizabeth, N.

J., is also visiting at the Adams home.
Mr. and Mrs. Henderson intend to visit many points of interest before returning to Scotland.

Word has been received that J. H.
Lundell, a former resident here, died at Santa Rosa, N. M., last week. Mr. and Mrs. Lundell had been in the west several years for the benefit of his health.
They were returning to Chicago and he died on the train. They formerly owned and occupied the place at Middaugh avenue and Franklin streets and sold it this spring to Albert Winters.

The spring flowers are now in their prime in the woods and on the prairies, modest violets peeping out from their rich green foliage in the rocky places, jack in the pulpits, Dutchman's breeches, buttercups and bluebells, and a dozen other varieties, which are eagerly sought for. The ferns too, are now to be had, to complete the bouquet and give it more variety of color with the verdant leaves.

Commander-in-chief Thos. J. Steward of the Grand Army of the Republic has issued a general order to the veterans of the civil war to observe Memorial day, May 30, by decorating the graves of soldiers and sailors all over the United States with flowers, hold patriotic exercises in the public schools and to attend divine services at the churches the Sunday preceding Memorial day.

Suppose you sit down some time and figure out how many dollars you have saved by reading the bargains offered in our advertising columns. The shrewd merchant never allows his stock to become shelf-worn. He would rather sell it at a discount and turn the money over again. And possibly one of those articles he is willing to discount is just what you are looking for. It will pay you to look for the bargains this paper is able to place before you through our wise merchants.
