TRLEPHONE DOWNERS GROVE 221

THURSDAY, MAY 21, 1903.

Mrs. Clemence Guild of Aurora, has started suit for divorce and other relief in the Kane county circuit court at Geneva, the defendants name being her husband, George W. Guild, of West Chicago, and Andrew Campbell and H. G. Warren, also of West Chicago. The suit was started through Mrs Guild's attorneys, Aldrich & Worcester. In her bill Mrs. Guild sets forth that she was mar ried to Guild in DuPage county in October, 1898. She was subject to abuse and to unjust accusations after her marriage and she left him on March 27, 1900, filing a bill for divorce at the time. A week later the couple were reconciled and again lived together, during which tin e she alleges that Mr. Warren, who is a minister. persuaded her to deed a house and lot ever to her husband, and she now sues for divorce and recovery of her property, which she believes is in the posession of Andrew Campbell. The case will come up at the next term of court.

The commissioners appointed to spread the assessment for Wheaton's sewers and drains have finished their work and the roll was filed in the county court Wednesday. The assessment as spread makes the rate to property owners along the line of improvement for the two systems $1.04 per front foot. Property off from the line of improvement receives a small assess ment for the outlet and to include them is the district so that if they ever want sewer or drain on the streets upon which they reside they will be able to get it. A the above rate a 66-foot lot would be assessed $68 64 for the two improvements.

The ticket headed by Mrs. Carlisle won by a big majority.

Samuel Rickey, one of the oldest in mates at the Kane county poor farm, has committed suicide by starvation. About March 18, Rickey, thinking there was nothing more in life for him, decided to die by starvation, and from that time until his death, forty-six days, he has not tasted a particle of food, and only a little water occasionally. The authorities tried to make him take food, but he absolutely refused. He said he expected to die in eighteen days. Rickey was 76 years age and was born in Ireland. He had bee nat the farm for twenty years, being sent there from Champaign.

The road commissioners of Leland have placed an order for 25 carloads of crushed stone to be used on some of their worst. roads this spring, and if satisfactory resalts are obtained from its use, it will be are made good. The village board having purchased and used one car last year as an experiment, are fully satisfied with the result, and have ordered ten cars to be used on the roads and streets of the village. This is certainly a step in the right direction and should be encouraged by all tax payers.

The fourteenth annual convention of the Eigin district Christian endeavor union was held at Sandwich on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The district comprises the counties of DeKalb, Kendall, DnPage, McHenry and Kane. The meetings were held in the Preshyterian and Congregational churches and were largely attended. The delegates were cared for at private houses and were royally entertained.

During the quiet hours of Sunday night thieves gained entrance to the home of Charles Linsley in Hinsdale, by cutting out a pannel of the kitchen door. The intraders had evidently previously settled upon their plunder, for in passing through son's Weekly. the dining room they ignored the silver. much of it solid, and contented themselves with three overcoats from the hall-tree.

Two important deals in farm property ear Hinsdale were made last week by Ins. McClintock. The Sara Pflefer farm of 60 acres, south of town was sold to Mr. Price, and the Henry Mueller farm, which posists of 80 acres northwest of Hinsdale been bought by Wm. Swigart.

The contested case brought by Henry L. Glos against E. F. Heidemann as president of the village of Elmhurst will be tried at the October term of circuit court instead of the county court. A recent decision of the supreme court makes a trial of the case necessary in the circuit court.

Last Monday morning while Mrs. Geo. Bullerman, who lives in Hinsdale, was out in the yard her eighteen months' old daughter was nearly drowned by falling headfirst into a tub of water. The speedy return of Mrs Bullerman probably saved the child's life.

CRY OF THE FARMERS FOR HELP.

Up from the meadows sweet with hay comes the Macedonian cry for help. With thousands of idle men in the cities and towering sky scrapers filled with bilious chair warmers, all suffering for outdoor air, the farms and farm houses are almost deserted and crops are endangered by a famine in help.

Such is the wail of the agriculturist as sounded through the columns of the leading agricultural papers. Susie has abandoned the free and independent life of the farm and its joyous communion with nature to "take dietation" and pound a typewriter in a smoky, stuffy, crowded city, and John has been allured away from the ozone of the hills and the music of the lowing kine to fill his lungs with the microbes from unswept streets, his ears with the din of ungodly strife and his eyes with the bewildering dazzle of electric signs.

for help. He dosen't expect to coax Su-ie and John back to the sun-kissed soil, but he hopes to tempt some of those who are city born and bred, anaemic in body and exhausted in mind, out to the meadows that are redolent with sweet clover and to the field that will soon be yellow with the harvest. His only hope is to allure those who have never tasted the sweetness and freshness of country life.

The farmer has abandoned the idea of attracting "hired help" to the farm. The annual election of the Woman's no longer hopes to tempt the city hobo to honest toil and healthy appetite. His adnoon, and it was the most strepuous affair | vertisements in the agricultural journals sound sleep, health, appetite and a good

THE NEW ARMY RIFLE.

It is Practically Certain to Be the Best in the World.

The new United States army rifle is a remarkable evolution in small arms since the old Springfield single loader had its day. Practically twelve years cover the period of the development, although the experience of the Spanish and Philippine wars has nat urally made the progress more rapid since 1898 than before that time. When the Krag was made the basis of more or less criticism, but it was poorly conceived. The Ordinance department has never regarded model as necessarily a finality, but has ever been bent on improvements. Consequently modifications have been numerous and steady, and there is no reason why, with this constant application of experience and inventive genius the United States service magazine rifle should not be equal to any used instead of gravel, until all the roads in the world .- Springfield (Mass.) Came Near Causing Physician Lose a Patient.

A doctor tells a good story in connection with a lad who until recently was in his employ. It was part of this youngster's daily duty to answer the surgery bell, and usher the prospective patients into the consulting room. One morning there presented himself at the surgery entrance mechanic, with whom Buttons was on speaking terms. "Hullo, Jackson!" he remarked, "what's the matter with you?" "Oh, I just want to see the doctor," replied the visitor. "Have yer brought yer symptoms with yer?" inquired Buttons, "cos that's the fust thing he'll ask yer about. If yer ain't got 'em ye'd better pop back an' get 'em." "And would you believe it?" adds the doctor, "that fellow was actually about to act on the boy's advice when I entered the surgery!"-Pear-

Take a Look at Venus. Young man, when you have finished your dinner to-night, go up to the roof or out in the street or yard by your home and take a good, long look at the star of the evening. She will do you much good. In the first place, the mere fact of your having thought enough to spend the time to do this will aid your mental development. In the second place you will have to lift your eyes and chin from the mire of the street about you to clean glory of Omnipotence. In the third place, you cannot look for five minutes at Venus or at any other planet or star without absorbing into yourself some of the calm, sflent power which wheels this Vicholson came over from Hins- universe along its unbroken track, with never a slip of the tire or jostling
