ENOCH ARDEN IN PETTICOATS

Woman Wanderer Returns to Find Husband Married to Another.

IS ABSENT TWENTY-ONE YEARS

Injured in a Railroad Wreck, She is Cared for by Wealthy People and Accompanies Them on a Tour to Europe.

Residents of Rockford, Ill., are much wrought up over a story of real life which rivals that told by Tennyson in fiction in his "Enoch Arden." In the story of real life the one who disappeared and was mourned as dead, but who returned after many years, is a woman. Her name is Louise Olsen, and she returned to find a son and a daughter, whom she left as toddling children twenty-one years ago, grown, and with children of their own. Stranger still, she found the husband she left so many years ago living with his third wife.

The story Mrs. Olsen told was one of horrible accidents, months of suffering in a hospital, a long period of dementia, and many years of travel in foreign lands as the companion of wealthy friends, who had befriended her in an hour of need.

It was twenty-one years ago last November that Mrs. Louise Olsen, wife of Alexander Olsen of Rockford, was called to Plattburg, N. Y., by a telegram which told of the fatal illness of her grandmother, then 97 years of age. With tearful eyes and a sad heart Mrs. Olsen kissed her little children good-bye and bade her husband care for them tenderly until she returned. The mother took a train for New York, but no message ever came to her dear ones at home to tell of her safe arrival or her probable return.

In Railroad Wreck. A few days later the newspapers had long accounts of a horrible railroad wreck in the East in which seventy-one people were killed and some 200 injured. Mrs. Olsen had been a passenger on that train, and an investigation was at once started by her husband. Friends and relatives visited the scene of the disaster, but many of the bodies were mutilated beyond recognition.

A part of the skirt worn by Mrs. Olsen was found and identified, but that was all, and her family mourned her as one of those whose bodies were mangled beyond recognition. Months slipped into years, while the husband hoped in vain for word from the wife he had lost. At last hope was given up, and Mrs. Olsen was thought of only as one dead.

Mother Reappears. Imagine, then, the shock which Frank and Hulda Olsen experienced when their long-missing mother appeared to them in the flesh. She was much older, bent with years, but her mother still, loving as ever, and happy to be united with her children again. Frank Olsen was 8 years old when he bade his mother good-bye, but he remembered her. His sister, Hulda, who is older, and hence remembered her mother better, fainted when she saw her mother at the threshold of their home. She thought her mother's spirit had returned from another world, and it was many hours before she could realize that she was not in the midst of some strange dream.

Mind is Affected. Mrs. Olsen relates that she was injured in the wreck and taken to a hospital in Buffalo with many other victims. It was a long time—she does not know how long—before she recovered. The misery of her physical suffering weakened her mind and she was helpless to seek for her friends or even to let them know of her condition.

Some wealthy people, whose daughter had died in the hospital, took pity on her, cared for her, and took her to travel until she was fully recovered. After she was well she traveled in France with her benefactors as their companion. She has been in Europe with them the greater part of the time for many years.

During all the years of her travels she had not been within visiting distance of Rockford until a few days ago, when she arrived in Chicago. She came out to Rockford immediately to look for the children and the husband she left so long ago. She found them easily. The husband has been twice married since 1881, and is now living with his third wife.

Mrs. Olsen has promised Frank to sever her connection with her wealthy friends, with whom she is now traveling, and to make her home with him in the future.

CREDITORS WILL GET LITTLE

Porter Brothers Fruit Company of San Francisco Has Few Assets.

San Francisco, Cal., special: Henry L. Wilson of Chicago, one of the two receivers of the Porter Brothers company, who is here looking into the affairs of the big fruit concern, stated that comparison of the assets and liabilities of the concern presents a very dubious outlook for the creditors. Mr. Wilson gave out the information that the company probably would not be able to pay 50 cents on the dollar in any settlement that might be made with its creditors and owing to the unsatisfactory condition of the company's affairs he would not venture a prediction as to what would be the outcome of the receivership. The principal western creditors are banks, six of them in this city holding the firm's paper for $190,000 Mr.

JAIL ESCAPE IS KEPT SECRET

Fort Wayne Prison Officials Fail to Report Flight of Convicts.

Fort Wayne, Ind., special: William Stierhen, convict, and Charles Johnson, a convict, sentenced to ninety and sixty days in jail respectively, escaped from the guard in the jail yard two months ago, but the jail attendants made no report of the escape. The time of one of these escaped prisoners would have expired soon, and an officer from Michigan waited to see the prisoner before his time was up and took Fort Wayne, thus exposing the scandal. The escape of the two prisoners and the secrecy maintained caused a sensation in police circles.

THE BEST HAIR RESTORER.

Old Whaling Captain Recommends the Arctic Regions.

"Talk of hair restorers," said the captain of a steamer who has been a whaler, "none of them is in it with the air of the Arctic regions. A man with thin hair who fails to get a new crop if he goes within the Arctic circle is a hopeless case. I have seen whalers who got bald when they stayed at home for a year or two, and got a new crop of hair every time they went towards the North Pole on a whaling expedition.

"How do I account for it? The farther you go north, the land animals get shaggier. It is a provision of nature against the cold. When the Arctic winter approaches, the reindeer, the bears and other animals get a thicker coat of hair or fur. Similarly the hair on the human head thickens when you go far north.

"It is a fact. Now, I don't want you to think that, once the follicles of the hair are dead, new hair always comes, even in northern regions. Sometimes, when a man is apparently as bald as a billiard ball, the follicles are not dead, and there is hope for him."

A Good Story.

Frederika, Ia., July 13th.—Mr. A. S. Grover of this place tells an interesting story showing how sick people may regain their health if they will only be guided by the experience of others. He says: "I had a very bad case of Kidney Trouble, which affected my urinary organs so that I had to get up every hour of the night. I could not retain my urine and my feet and limbs began to blot up. My weight was quickly running down.

"After I had tried many things in vain, I began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills, a medicine which had cured some other very bad cases.

"This remedy has done wonders for me. I have gained eight pounds in two months. The blot has all gone from my feet and legs, and I don't have to get up at night. I took in all about ten boxes before I was all sound."

Those who suffer as did Mr. Grover can make no mistake in taking Dodd's Kidney Pills, for they are a sure, safe and permanent cure for all Kidney urinary disorders.

AMERICA is the land of nervous women. The great majority of nervous women are so because they are suffering from some form of female disease.

Mrs. Emma Mitchell, 520 Louisiana street, Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "Peruna has certainly been a blessing in disguise to me, for when I first began taking it for troubles peculiar to the sex and a generally worn out system, I had little faith.

"For the past five years I have rarely been without pain, but Peruna has changed all this, and in a very short time. I think I had only taken two bottles before I began to recuperate very quickly, and seven bottles made me well. I do not have headache or back-ache any more, and have some interest in life. I give all credit where it is due, and that is to Peruna.—Emma Mitchell.

The greatest obstacle in the way of recovery is that they do not understand that it is catarrh which is the source of their illness. In female complaint, ninety-nine cases out of one hundred are nothing but catarrh. Peruna cures catarrh wherever located.
