A VISIT TO OUR COUNTY FARM.

nd Mrs. Nowe Entertain Supervisors an Party of Friends.

Under the auspices of the committee of the county farm, Messrs. Churchill, Bender and Steven, the members of the honorable board of Supervisors with several invited guests drove out and took dinner with Supt. and Mrs. Howe at the county farm last week Tuesday. After a repast, such as only she can serve, the guests, under the guidance of Superintendent Howe, were shown through the buildings and about the premises where everything was found to be in elegant condition, most seru pulously neat, efficiently managed and theroughly cared for, reflecting great credit upon the committee and much honor upon Mr. and Mrs. Howe for the superb manner in which the inmates are cared for and for the deep interest they show for D. Page county.

Fifteen years ago last Friday a resolution was introduced by Charles Cooper, states attorney, and passed by the board of supervisors appointing a committee to look after the wards of this

As one looks over the model farm today, the best kept public farm in Illinois, also at the buildings so elegantly and substantially constructed, then turns from the farm where weeds are strangers, and from the buildings and surroundings, the sanitary conditions of which cannot be surpassed, as citizen of DuPage county his heart swells with honest pride as he is driven up in front of an elegant court house and thinks of how much has been done with Mrs. Alfred Heckman at Rogers since the day of that resolution; as again his mind turns to the source of The monthly meeting of the Ladies' so much thrift and beauty and a deep feeling of gratitude comes over hi toward the men whose keen business ability, tact, self-sacrificing and hard work has given DuPage county a farm not equaled in Illinois, a court house the queen among her sisters, a sheriff's home, and jail which United States of ficers say has no peer for comfort and cleanliness, and above all a county on tirely out of debt.

All honor to our board of supervisors past and present, whose hands have so beat true to the highest and hollest impulses for every citizen of DuPage

Among the guests were Wm. Gary, Editor Monroe of the Democrat, Frank Høgeman, O. H. Givler, A. L. Hamilton, L. C. Brown, F. B. Petronet, L. C. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Stusser others, about thirty in all, who will rise up and call Mrs. Howe blessed and extend their heartfelt thanks to the honorable committee for their kind invitation - Illinotan.

GIVE NEWS-BOYS A PICNIC.

Fifty boys from the darkest side life in Chicago are being given a happy day in Lyman's woods, as the guests of the Epworth league and their friends. They are being entertained with awings and races, and are being given all they can est of good wholesome food with plenty of fresh milk to drink. Thes boys are brought out from the city under the direction of the Chicago Boys' club and Mission, 262 State street, which the Hon, Luther Laftin Mills president and W. W. Cooper, a promisent manufacturer, is vice-president and J. F. Atkinson superintendent. Many of the boys from this club-the enrollment of which reaches a thous and or more-have no homes and aleen out on the lake front during homes are homes only in name. majority of them are news-boys. merchants and homes of our village are responding very kindly in helping Hindale to provide food for this most worthy work but a little money for the pur chase of some things that have to bought is much need. The boys come out on the 11:05 train today and return on the 5:58. The Bareau of Charities looks after the matter of transports tion. Great credit is due the railroads for their generosity in this work.

PRESENT GOLD WATCH.

Sunday morning as the opening exercises of the Bapfist Sunday school were being conducted by the Supt., W B. Towsley, an interruption was caused by one of the members walking forward and addressing the gathering. The superintendent stopped his part of the program very much surprised but evidently content to allow all an opportunity of freeing their minds. During the brief but very pointed and grace ful speech that followed he found himself being presented with a handsame solid gold watch and seal fob, as an expression on the part of the Sunday school and its friends of their appreciations of his devotion to the interests of the school and unselfish labors in its behalf. The surprise was a complete on and in reply Mr. Towsley though some what overcome, endeavored to res hespeaking for the future a countries of the co-operation with his the work which had brought then
