Clear Criminal Calendar

Judge Bishop Disposes of the People's Cases in Circuit Court.

Hinsdale Man Fined $500 and Ninety Days in Jail For Assault—Demler and Budora Sent To Pontiac Reformatory.

The October term of circuit court convened on Monday with Judge Bishop presiding. Monday and Tuesday were taken up in disposing of the criminal calendar, many prisoners pleading not guilty and wishing a trial. Following are the peoples cases:

Albert Jones was the man charged with stealing golf clubs and balls at the Elmhurst golf club house. Jones is a colored man and plead not guilty to the charge. He claimed that he had purchased the golf outfit from a gentleman who had gone to Porto Rico. The value of the property stolen was estimated at $75. The case was tried by jury on Tuesday and Jones was given a penitentiary sentence.

The case of Victor Schroeder from Itasca, charged with assault was not prosecuted.

William Goebel of Hinsdale, got in trouble with a fellow boarder last spring and after being knocked down twice, made an assault on his assailant with an open knife and cut his assailant in the chest. The defendant plead not guilty to the charge and the case was tried before the judge. The court found the defendant guilty of assault and battery and sentenced him to pay a fine of $50 and costs and stand committed until paid.

Chas. Why was indicted for stealing money from a party at Naperville, but his whereabouts is unknown. A capias was issued returnable forthwith and the bail fixed at $1,000.

Ewin Ruddock, living north of Winfield, had working for him Sophia Rowe, she having a husband but had not lived with him for four years. Sophia had only lived with her husband a few days after they were married. The neighbors in the Ruddock neighborhood threatened to whitecap Ruddock for living with Mrs. Rowe, in an unbecoming manner. A short time after a little rose appeared in the home. Ruddock got a cousin by the name of Wm. R. Cooley to come out from Chicago and marry Mrs. Rowe, he promising to pay Cooley $50 and paid $20 down the day of the marriage. The two men then lived in a manner which caused the neighbors to take a hand in the affair.

Cooley being a married man when he married Mrs. Rowe made a charge of bigamy stand against him, the judge sentencing him to Joliet, the penalty for bigamy being from one to five years. Ruddock received a fine of $150 and costs for adultery and Mrs. Rowe was fined $100 for fornication. Ruddock is a widower and he and Mrs. Rowe appeared before the judge and said if she could secure a divorce from her first husband before the next term of court they would be legally married and live together as man and wife.

Frank A. Wallace of Hinsdale got full of hop tea and J. A. de Honstine, aged 60 years, who was shingling a roof was the object of his wrath. He was on the ground when a war of words led to making an assault on de Honstine who was on the roof. Wallace hit de Honstine on the head with a hammer knocking him senseless. That he was not killed was a miracle. The old man was laid up for two weeks. The case was tried before the judge who sentenced Wallace to 90 days in the county jail and to pay a fine of $500 and to stand committed until the fine and costs were paid.

John Bonick of Downers Grove was fined $50 and costs, $66, for violating the liquor law.

Wm. Livingston who stole tools and razors from Chas. Ott's store at Wheaton, was sentenced to the penitentiary at Joliet.

Edward Budora and George Demlar of Downers Grove, two boys who broke into a house at Downers Grove, plead guilty and were sentenced to the reform school at Pontiac.
