Carpenters are busy repairing the buildings damaged by the late tornado that swept a path of twenty miles south of Downers Grove. Windmill agents are also employed in the erection of new towers, not one being left standing in the path of the storm. The Methodist church at Cass is out of plumb over a foot and the Lutheran church at Lace will also need considerable repairing.

We do not discredit the beauty of the famous cards with which Cleopatra whiled away dull days in Greece, but for superiority of finish and design, and pleasurable playing qualities, "Congress" playing cards excel all other cards of today and ancient times. Smooth as Ivory; thin, elastic; they give an added pleasure to a game of cards. Local dealers have a good demand for them.

Lulu Tyler Gates and company opened the entertainment course at the Auditorium Saturday evening. Every seat in the house was taken which speaks well for the success of the course. Mrs. Gates is a reader of merit and she was ably supported by Helen Carter McConnell, contralto soloist; Marie Ludwig, harpist and H. Boone Benton, clarinet and saxophone soloist. They gave a pleasing program. The next entertainment will be given Nov. 28 by the Lotus club.
