The opening of the fifty-eighth congress was particularly an occasion of honor to Illinois by reason of the selection of Joseph G. Cannon of Danville as speaker. Without a dissenting republican vote he was chosen to the most honorable and influential office in the gift of the house of representatives and as he took the gavel he was greeted by loud and prolonged hand clapping.

T. F. Potter & company have recently finished the equipment of several large poultry houses with their superior hennery apparatus for F. O. Butler, W. H. Edwards and Contractor Johnson at Hinsdale. The Butler hennery is an especially large and elaborate affair and will have every approved appliance manufactured by this company for the proper care of poultry. The house was built and equipped at an expense of $2,500.

Scores of tramps and other disreputable appearing personages danced at the poverty hop given by the ladies of the Rathbone Sisters at Carpenter's hall last Thursday evening. Nothing but "hard times" clothing was permitted without penalties. A few who wore their ordinary attire were fined for their temerity in ignoring the mandates of the ladies. A program of 16 dances was given to music furnished by the Ideal Dance orchestra. During the evening hard times refreshments were served. Mrs. Harry M. Courtright and Richard G. Morden were awarded prizes for presenting the "trampiest" appearance. Mrs. Bert C. White and Mrs. Chas. P. Blodgett had general charge of arrangements and to their efforts the success of the party was largely due.
