IMPRESSIVE, BUT NOT REAL.

Speaker's Eloquence Was From the Head, Not the Heart.

An Englishman relates the following election experience: "I was taking part in canvassing a constituency without a representative. I was announced as a speaker at a mass meeting held in a large hall within shadow distance of a famous cathedral. One of the other orators delivered the most impressive speech I have ever heard. He spoke of the struggle of the poor, how they had to bear their burden. He made me almost cry by his eloquence. He talked about his own little home, which he only just managed to keep together by the sweat of his brow. 'Who is he?' I asked. 'Well,' replied my friend, the candidate, 'he is known in his own town as 'Popshop Dick,' because he is a prosperous pawnbroker.'"

HER FACE IN THE WAY.

What Caused Little One's Dissatisfaction with the Mirror.

"I have no great fear that Gertrude will grow up to be vain; that is, if her present attitude toward her big blue eyes and pretty curls continues," said a fond mamma. "This morning she stepped on a stool in front of my big mirror and stood there for several minutes regarding herself with a queer little frown, and all the while dodging from side to side as though playing bo-peep. 'What's the matter, dear?' I asked, and the answer I received was so different from anything I could have expected that it quite staggered me. 'Oh, mamma,' she said with a pout, 'it does bother me awfully. Every time I look in the glass my face gets in the way!'"

Tommy's Essay on Preachers.

The following essay by a youthful boarding school boy throws quite a new and interesting light on church dignitaries: "There are three kinds of clergymen bishops, rectors and curates. The bishops tell the rectors to work and the curates have to do it. Curat is a thin married man but when he is a rector he gets fuller and can preach longer sermons and becomes a good man, we should always respect a curat because sum day he may become a rector and we must always pity those who are low down in the world, any of us may become unfortunate so we must not hit a man with a stone."—English Exchange.

The World's All Right.

I never shall believe this world is turning very wrong While things are as they are, while men Delight in dance and song. The world must still be swinging right As long as people shout And vie to see the villain on the stage At last put down and out.

While men are glad to look upon The beautiful and bright, The world, with all the faults it has, Must still be swinging right. While melodrama's vice is blessed And virtue there has praise, I'll not believe the world has turned To very wicked ways.

Grip

Brought On Sciatic Rheumatism.

Nervous Prostration Followed.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Gave Back Health.

"I was laid up during the winter of 04-05 with sciatic rheumatism and nervous prostration brought on by a severe attack of La-Grippe. The rheumatic pains were so severe at times that it was impossible for me to turn in bed. I was unable to sleep. I had one of our best physicians in attendance, took all the advertised remedies for troubles of this kind but got no help whatever until I took Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. Six bottles restored me to health. I am better now than I have been in years. I have a better appetite, sleep, and I have a new lease of life. I have recommended Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine to many people."—Fred Brown, 1012 S. D.

"I was seized with pain in my heart and under the left shoulder, with such heavy oppression that I was unable to get up. I had a doctor in my case but he said that it would never get better. I also had a weak, all-around ailment in the region of my heart. My doctor told me to use the Nervine and stomach trouble was relieved. I failed to receive any benefit from any other medicine. I was then recommended Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I used both and was cured. I have recommended Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine to many people."—Mrs. J. C. Collins, 1012 S. D.

VERY LOW RATES to the Northwest

The Northern Pacific has a new and very Low Rate for Colonists, Homeseekers and others in effect from Sept. 15 to Nov. 30, 1903.

This gives not only farmers a good chance to go homeseeking, after crops are harvested, but all others who wish to move permanently into the growing, teeming, improving Northwest, or those who wish the visit, at a trifling expense, the fine tourist resorts of the Northwest, are afforded an unusual opportunity to do so.

The finest valleys in the Northwest, good for grain, hay, fruits, root crops; for mixed, stock or dairy farming; for irrigation or not, as one wishes, are found along the Northern Pacific or its branch or connecting lines. The growing, thriving towns are found there, too. It is a great country, where hunting and fishing are unsurpassed and where the hotels are first class.

Call on any N. P. R. agent for rates and detailed information or write to Charles S. Fee, Gen. Pass. Agt., St. Paul, Minn. Send six cents for "Wonderland 1903."
