At Lotus club night in the entertainment course last Saturday evening a number of features were presented which made the entertainment one of the best of the course. The club itself is making commendable and steady progress and is rapidly forging to the front rank of musical organizations, both in chorus work and quartettes as well as individually in solo work. Their singing was exceptionally pleasing. An especially pleasing innovation was the whistling of Robert C. Bain and Miss Ruth B. Boise. Mr. Bain gives the same careful study to whistling that a vocalist gives to the culture of the voice. The result is music as sweet, pure and true in tone and compass as can be rendered by any vocalist. Mr. Bain and Miss Boise were repeatedly encored. Miss Boise also gave a violin solo in an artistic manner. Windecker, the great, presiding deity, gave a half hour of mystifying feats of all kinds which proved him a clever master of his art.
