MMIGRATION PASSES ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS

Arrivals at New York City Number 619,980 Steerage Passengers, an Increase of 72,783.

New York special: Immigration a this port in 1903 has passed all previous records. During the calendar year 619,980 immigrants—steerage passengers-arrived here, as against 547,197 in 1902, an increase of 72,

The year of 1902 was a record-breaking year, the increase over 1901 having been about 139,000. As was the case last year, the heaviest immigration was during May, when 92,861 steerage passengers were admitted at New York. Almost as many came here in April. The immigration was larger every month of the current year, compared with the monthly figures in 1902, with the exception of the current month. Last December 36,000 immi grants, approximately, landed here. This month the numer will probably not exceed 32,000.

Southern Europe contributed by far the largest proportion of the total. here was, however, a marked increase in the newcomers from northern and western Europe, especially Norway, Sweden and Denmark. Italy. nevertheless, leads all the rest. The exodus of Italian laborers, with whom the outward bound steamers were loaded early this month, has shown a marked falling off.

How Senator Carmack Induced Repre contative to Keep Premise. Representative Cochran of Missouri had often promised Senator Carmach of Tennesses that he would present him with a special growth of fine Missouri tobacco that could not be beat in the world. The Tennessee senator, who enjoys a good "chaw," waited in valu for this precious gift. So the other day he wrote a note to Cochran, telling him to come over to the Senate side of the Capitol quickly, as he wanted to see him on important business. Cochran, who is a short, stubby man, came down the corridor puffing like a little gasoline runabout. Carmack led him quietly into the benate cloakroom and Cochran settled himself into a seat for the anticipated conference.

"Cochran," said Carmack," give me a chew of that tobacco."

Cochran handed out a plug and the Tennesseean placed a good portion of it comfortably in his mouth. Quietly turning to leave the room Carmack Baid:
