The Wagner Ladies' quartette and Elma B. Smith, impersonator, delighted an audience at the Auditorium Saturday night at the fourth entertainment of the course. The singing of the quartette was especially good but the hit of the evening were the impersonations of Miss Smith, whose imitations of babies and children were clever and provoked loud bursts of applause. Especially true to life was the impersonation of an infant crying. Her bird warbling was also a pleasing feature.

Root was elected chairman of the program committee for 1904-5. A vote of thanks was tendered Geo. B. Heartt for the many courtesies the club had received at his hands.

A VERY CLOSE CALL.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa.
