DAN CUPP'S DIRECTORY

posed to make advances to timid men. Unfortunately Mr. Pentoney is of a shy and retiring disposition and will require considerable urging, but the one who will win an affectionate genial husband.

Warren H. Jones is a young man of excellent character and refined taste. Was a member of the bachelor's club eight years ago and hasn't forsaken it yet. Quite a student and is a talented musician. Swell dresser and is popular with the ladies.

Louis E. Jones is one of Downers Grove's most popular young men and apparently he thinks "the sweetest life that was ever led, is to always court and never wed." He, too, is well prepared to furnish a cozy little nest and is worthy of your best effort.

Walter Clough is open hearted and good natured, and rapidly making himself known and respected in business circles. He is tall, dignified and popular with the young ladies. Now we wonder which girl can edge up to him and get a whispered "yes" to the momentous question.

Arthur R. and Walter C. Whiffle, brothers, are two confirmed north side bachelors who have lived here since they were little shavers. They were good boys and, like good wine, they improve as the years go by. Both of them are devoted to their mother and every girl of judgment knows that a young man that is good to his mother will make a good husband. The Messrs Whiffle are handsome men. They ought to be taken early in the year.

Harry L. Blodgett, better known as "Rab" is still single while his friends all agree that he ought to be in double harness. Harry has a heart big enough to love all the girls, but when he comes to concentrate his affections he will fairly worship the girl who wins him.

Harry M. Bateman is one of the choicest of Downers Grove's bachelors. He is sunny tempered and genial. It may be true that he has contemplated matrimony, but there is not much evidence of it. He would make a kind and affection husband and some nice girl could win him, we think. "Battie" would certainly appreciate a cozy little home presided over by a nice young lady.

Rupert Bateman is a steady young fellow who, apparently, gives little thought to the girls. If the right one sets her cap for him we think she can win him before the leaves fall.

Gaylord Earnest is one of the tall kind and is bashful. Naturally modest and retiring he hesitates about making advances to the young ladies. Now that leap year is here there ought to be hope for him. Industrious and energetic, he will be able to make a nice little home for a wife.

W. H. Baker is a confirmed bachelor with artistic tendencies. He is industrious and steady and just the kind of a man a woman can admire and love. We hope to see him mated soon.

Peter Johnson is still on the market and in the prime of life. He is of a happy disposition and has plenty of this world's goods with which to provide a handsome home for the successful wooer.

Then there's Charles H. Leach a brilliant member of the legal profession who should be wedded to some loving woman. He suffers from bashfulness but is chivalrous to a degree.

John Gray is another young bachelor in the eligible list. He is steady and industrious. He is just a bit bashful but a bright girl will not let that discourage her.

In some respects a bachelor resembles an apple. The finest specimens grow on the topmost boughs and are difficult to secure. But once brought down, the fruit is the finest flavored of any on the tree. Edmund Gorman is one of this variety. Refined and well educated and a capable business man, he is certainly worth a try.

Thomas Meehan is one of Downers Grove's most handsome single men. Correct dresser, dignified and gentlemanly. A prize for some girl.

Mark L. Root is another of the confirmed members of the bachelor's club. Has quiet, studious tastes and is of artistic temperament. Would make a model husband.

W. F. Truax is manager for the Chicago Telephone company's exchanges here and at Hinsdale, so may be said to have double chances in the matrimonial field. Ought to be an easy matter to "get him on the line."

Frank Krambs and Fred Mertz, partners in business, young and eligible. Rumor says the former's affections are already engaged, but you never can tell. The junior partner ought to possess charms for some loving, loyal girl.

Then there is a score of others, young and old. All choice selections—men whom any maid would be proud of winning. Among them can be mentioned W. D. Herrick, Jack Cross, Chas. Wells, John Wermuth, Geo. Hawk, Howard Fairweather, Edward Glodings, Glen Edwards, Bert Davies, Will Lemple, J. B. King, Henry Logenhausen, William Lawson, Louis Baldeaman; all old enough to marry and care tenderly for some true woman. If Downers Grove girls cannot pick a husband out of this bunch they certainly will be forced to remain bachelors until for-

Hair Splits

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for thirty years. It is elegant for a hair dressing and for keeping the hair from splitting at the ends."—J. A. Gruenfelder, Grandfork, Ill.

Hair-splitting splits friendships. If the hair-splitting is done on your own head, it loses friends for you, for every hair of your head is a friend.

Ayer's Hair Vigor in advance will prevent the splitting. If the splitting has begun, it will stop it.
