REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

The republican voters of the respective towns of DuPage county, Illinois, are requested to send delegates to a republican county convention to be held at the court house in Wheaton, on Saturday, March 19, 1904, at the hour of 8 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to the next state republican convention; to the next congressional convention for the 11th congressional district when called, to the next senatorial convention for the 41st senatorial district when called, to the next judicial convention of the 16th judicial circuit when called and to place in nomination the following county officers: Clerk of the circuit court and recorder, state's attorney, coroner, surveyor, and to appoint a new county central committee and transact such other business as may come before the convention.

The basis of representation in said convention will be one delegate for each 75 votes, or a major fraction thereof, cast for McKinley at the general election of 1900. The number of delegates to which each town will be entitled is as follows:

Addison.....	4
Bloomington.....	4
Downers Grove.....	15
Lisle.....	7
Milton.....	4
Naperville.....	5
Wayne.....	2
Wheaton.....	6
York.....	6
Total.....	51

The township committees in the respective towns and precincts will see that the delegates from the different townships are properly appointed.

By order of the republican county central committee. Dated this 5th day of March, 1904. H. H. GOODRICH, Chairman. W. W. STEVEN, Secretary.

FIGHT OVER HIGHWAY COMMISSIONER.

Township politics are warming up to an interesting heat, although the contest centers upon the one office of highway commissioner. The friends of the two candidates for this office are making strong canvasses in the interest of their respective candidates. John P. Mohr, present commissioner, has made an efficient record. That he has fulfilled every duty of his office to the best of his ability is well conceded, and if re-elected his experience will be used for the tax payers' profit. Charles Mihm is the other aspirant for the office. He has lived in the township for 55 years, and is honored and trusted by every resident of the south part of the town, where he has held large tracts of land. He also owns property in Hinsdale. Mr. Mihm is a man of rare judgment, sterling honesty and a high sense of duty. If he is elected he will treat his office as a position of public trust irrespective of private or personal interests. With these two excellent candidates there is no chance of a poor choice. The other candidates on the ticket are assistant supervisor, C. B. Blodgett; collector, Conrad Buschman, town clerk, N. H. Webster; assessor, F. A. Rogers; justice of the peace to fill vacancy, W. E. H. Trowbridge.

By order of the committee. Dated this 10th day of March, 1904. JAMES MCCLINTOCK, Chairman.

NOTICE OF TOWNSHIP PRIMARIES.

Notice is hereby given that a primary election for the nomination of township officers for the township of Downers Grove will be held on Saturday, March 19, 1904, from 2 to 5 o'clock p. m.
