It was that on Saturday he stole a bunch of Stone Avenue-Hinsdale round trip tickets; on Thursday he stole 250 milk tickets at Lisle, valued at $37.50. and later a Hinsdale-Chicago 25-ride ticket. Schrickel's father came out to Hinsdale after his arrest and, after giving the boy a profuse cursing, refused to do any anything for him and asked that he be sent to a reform school. When brought before a justice he plead guilty and was taken to Hinsdale, making the fourth Hinsdale prisoner in the county jail.

Sunday night fire on the Dunham stock farm, a mile west of Wayne, resuited in a loss of $12,000, $6,000 to the stock which perished and an equal amount for the barn which was burned. The fire was caused by lightning, which struck barn No. 6 at 9 o'clock. The building burned rapidly, as there was no apparatus on hand with which to fight the flames. The barn was rebuilt only eight months ago, having been burned at that time. The loss is almost fully covered by insurance. Eightsen blooded mares and colts were lost. The barn was 60x200 feet in dimensions and housed by the Percheron stock. each breed of horses being in a separate
