Mild Angry: Painting Burned
 Because her mistress scolded her for creating a disturbance in the kitchen, Eva Richardson, an Evanston servant, it is charged, took an oil painting and burned it. Miss Richardson was employed by Mrs. Alice L. Gove, 1704 Chicago avenue, Evanston. It is said she boasted to a friend of having destroyed the picture. Mrs. Gove caused the arrest of the girl. She valued the painting at $50.

Two Girls Make Their Escape
 Myrtle Randall, of Elgin, and Jennie Waddley, of Aurora, escaped from the girl's home at Geneva, Saturday night, and have not been found. They were missed late in the afternoon and the officers were at once notified. This is the first instance in some time when any girls have attempted to escape. The Randall girl is the one convicted of trying to blackmail D. C. Cook, the publisher of Elgin, recently.

Chicago Man Seriously Injured
 A. Rice, a contractor residing in Oswego, was seriously injured while at work on a new house being built near Oswego, Saturday afternoon. He was on the roof of the building, which is two stories high, and in some manner slipped and fell to the ground. He was picked up and carried to a nearby residence and medical attendance summoned. He suffered three broken ribs and a broken collar bone.

Gasoline Motor Not Satisfactory
 The trials of the new gasoline motor engine recently purchased and set up by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy have proved the machine to be a failure as far as speed is concerned, and the car has been sent back to the locomotive shops for an overhauling. Patterns are being made for two large cylinders, which will be turned out of the machine shop as soon as possible, so as to rebuild the engine in the course of several weeks. With the large cylinders on the engine the company officials expect to get the desired speed out of the car.

She Didn't Marry the Family
 Over at Sterling a young woman who was married a couple of months ago does not have a very exalted opinion of her mother-in-law. A few days ago her husband had published a notice which stated that she has left my bed and board without just provocation and I will not hereafter be responsible for any debt she may contract. The notice created quite a stir, but was not a mark to the one that the wife had published, in which she declared, "I wish to inform him and the public that after reading the notice in the daily paper that it was the first intimation I ever had that Judson Dowd was in possession of any bed or board, and I was under the impression that I married Judson Dowd, and not his mother."

Wheaton Happenings

Mrs. H. M. Arndt spent last week at the world's fair at Saint Louis.
 Honorable Oliver Wayne Stewart addressed a large audience at the college chapel on Monday evening.
 Alonzo E. Wilson, candidate for the legislature from the forty first senatorial district, spoke at Wayne, Tuesday night.
 Justice Herrick officiated at the marriage of S. P. Swanson and Miss Julia Eulert, both of Lemont, Illinois, last week.

 Henry Secker, the alleged taker of the Hunt jewels, pleaded not guilty to the charge and will be tried next month. He is out on bail.
 Reverend Doctor Ferris was called to Carpentersville, Illinois, to preach a funeral sermon last Tuesday. This is an old parish of the doctor's.
 Twenty five indictments were returned by the grand jury for the October term. This is above the average number considerably. Only six no bills were found.
 The Lombard burglar, Mason, who had his arm shot off while trying to get into the building, pleaded guilty to the offense of attempting to commit burglary and was given an indeterminate sentence to the penitentiary at Joliet. The other alleged burglar, who is supposed to have been implicated in the same crime, pleaded not guilty and will be tried when the adjourned session convenes on November 14. The culprit, Mason, was given a scathing rebuke by Judge Bishop, in addition to his sentence.

 Mike Cantwell, the genial, jolly barber of the city barber shop, has just branched out as a conductor on the electric railway. Now the close shaven may be on him.

Cass Correspondence

Miss Freda Munn is attending school in Leamont.
 Miss Lydia Muehl visited with Miss Carrie Oldfield last Monday.
 Joseph Shepherd and family, of Lockport, Illinois, visited with Mrs. Elmer Oldfield last Sunday.
 James and George Littleford and Henry Leibold left for a ten day trip to Canada on Monday.
 The musicale at the Cass church, given by talent from Downers Grove and Cass, last Thursday, was a decided success, clearing about seventeen dollars.
 Mrs. Thomas Leonard, of Chicago, spent last Sunday with Mrs. M. H. Madden, and Miss Ella Leonard was the guest of Miss Lottie Littleford on the same day.
 Harry Gregory is considering the purchasing of an automobile, a fast one and one which will out-trip the "Yellow Jacket" that occasionally passes through here.
 Several families from Cass and vicinity will move to Missouri in the near future. One enterprising land agent states that the natives there, when in need of money, simply go to the woods, round up a wagon load of fat hogs, that have fattened on nuts, and market them.

Methodists Change Pastors

Reverend E. F. Farnikel, of Grace church, Elgin, takes the pastorate of the Methodist church here and Reverend H. H. Ross goes to Elgin. Mr. Farnikel has been at Elgin for six years and has been much liked by the people there. He has done much in his field of labors there and the church asked him to remain. He has been in the ministry for a number of years. Downers Grove will welcome him, no doubt. Reverend H. H. Ross, who leaves next week, has been here four years as pastor of the Methodist church, and has made many friends, both in and out of his church. He is a careful student and a good speaker, and many here will be sorry to see him go. In Elgin no doubt he will have a wider field, and one and all wish him much success.

An Editor Has Troubles

Poor old Hinsdale! The editor fell asleep and allowed an issue to go through with the date of the paper two weeks old. Then he got all the women folk of the little village down on him for donning "frighten" clothes and calling "honor" lace "monitor" lace, and when he tried to pinch himself and revive the Latin of the days of "Twenty years ago, When you and I were boys, Tom," he ran in something about a horse, which was possibly more modern knowledge, as there evidently were no "ponies" in ye editor's barefoot days to play. But when the editor tried to lay all the blame for all these mistakes on the office "devil" it was a meaner act than "swiping" from the proverbial poor church mouse. Eh, now, think it over.

Necessity though a stern task master often develops strong independent minds that rise above the throng to eminence and distinction.

Broke Into His House
 S. LeQuinn of Cavendish, Vt., was robbed of his customary health by invasion of Chronic Constipation. When Dr. King's New Life Pills broke into his house, his trouble was arrested and he's entirely cured. They're guaranteed to cure, 25c at all druggists.
