Nothing but trouble for the Russians. Better stick to girl babies.

It will be all over soon and those who were defeated will want to forget it.

Next week Judge Parker may have an opportunity to take a bath in Salt creek. How would he like Debs, Watson and Swallow for company?

Tom Watson has endeavored to put some ginger into the campaign, but most of the people who applaud his hot shots will vote for the other fellow.

New York has the largest subway in the world and the municipality owns it. La Grange has sold its water works and electric light plant. Quite a difference between La Grange and New York.

The air ships worked all night when not expected to. We hope they may soon become popular and put the automobile out of business. Then us plain people may cross the road.

Don't vote for a man because he wears a tag—vote for the man who represents your ideal of honesty and integrity. This is a great and glorious country and all our misgovernment is the fault of the voters who elect the rascals.

Isn't it ridiculous for a plain, hard-working American to spend his life accumulating money in order that his daughter may wed some European with a title? And it does not appear to make any difference what reputation may be behind the title.

Now that Miss Astor is wedded to a man named Spender, he will have an opportunity to live up to his name. It must be quite a relief to the Astor tenants in New York to know who will spend the money they pay for rent.

It does not matter whether the Philippines cost two hundred or six hundred millions. It was out of our line of business and we should never have engaged in it. The cost of wrong doing cannot be estimated in dollars and cents.

The country is not independent of the town any more than the town is independent of the country. The value of land, outside of its fertility and improvements, is determined by the location, and the latter is the most important factor of value. Land located near a live town is worth more than land near a dead one. The trade of a farmer does much to build up a town. But benefits to the farmer are as many as those accruing to the man he favors with his trade. When a farmer patronizes a mail order house, hundreds of miles away, he may be saving a little temporarily, but he is sending away trade which would help build up an adjacent town, add value to his own land, and perhaps afford better educational facilities for his children. In the majority of cases the home dealer asks no more than the mail order house, and also backs his sales with his reputation. Think over this matter before you send away your orders.

People think it is easy to "run" a newspaper. An exchange says that one week's experience would change the opinion of most people on this subject. Did you ever count the words in a column of ordinary newspaper print? There are about two thousands words in a column. Suppose you sit down and write a thousand words on some subject, and then another thousand on another, until you have written eight or ten thousand. Keep that gait up for a month, a year, and see if it is easy. Then chase a local item all over town, and after you have gotten the facts all right, condense them into a few lines—an hour's work that can be read in a few seconds. Do this for a dozen items that seem insignificant after they are printed but which you know are important; then have the items criticized and inaccuracies pointed out when it is too late to correct them. Oh, yes, it is easy to "run" a newspaper.

We are becoming vegetarians, according to statistics which show that in forty years the consumption of meat foods has decreased thirty-six per cent and vegetable foods increased eighty per cent. The statisticians further assert that buckwheat cakes and pork and beans are becoming unpopular. You now know what to eat.

The duty of true citizenship is that of voting for those who make and execute the laws. Election occurs next Tuesday, November 8, and the regulation question arises. Has each man given the questions involved in the campaign the consideration they require? Every man, no matter what his politics, should go to the polls and cast his ballot according to his honest convictions. Let every voter study the situation with great care and do his utmost toward furnishing the best of government for the nation, state, and county. The true citizen can do nothing less.

Here and There
Tom Watson's physician advised him to stop talking. Tom fled him on the spot.

There will be seven tickets on the official ballot at the November election with an additional ballot for an amendment vote on the Chicago charter.

The bank robbers are once more getting in their work—getting so bold as to do the work single handed in the middle of the day and making good their escape.

It may be of interest to farmers to know that the post office department does not require rural carriers to deliver mail where vicious dogs are kept. In such cases the animal must be removed or delivery will be discontinued.

Coal prices will be high this winter and the excuse given is a scarcity of anthracite fuel. The lack of transportation facilities was said to be interfering with shipments from the east to Chicago.

The hobos have struck a new lead. When refused a hand-out at a farmer's house they just cut his telephone wire, when they get out of sight, to prevent the good wife from posting her neighbors that they are likely to have a visit from Tired Tommy.

Chicago burglars are working country towns. The marshal at West Chicago noticed a stranger trying store doors and commanded him to halt. The stranger started on a run and was shot at and fell, but instantly arose and continued his flight. Surrounding towns are complaining of night marauders, and police forces will be kept busy.

The overflow of crooks from Chicago is spreading out into the country, and tales of robbery and even murder are appearing frequently in the papers. The village authorities are wide awake and nail any hard citizens who cannot give a satisfactory account of themselves and thus forestall any devilry they may be up to. A little clear-headed, sensible prevention beats all the cures.

"Lest You Forget"
Every dollar spent in Downers Grove is a Downers Grove dollar. Don't forget it.

Every dollar sent away is a Downers Grove dollar. Don't forget it.

Downers Grove dollars means Downers Grove prosperity. Don't forget it.

Downers Grove prosperity is your business. It is up to you. Don't forget it.

The catalogue houses never return a single dollar to Downers Grove. Don't forget it.

A catalogue house never fixed a road or built a crossing in Downers Grove. Don't forget it.

A catalogue house never built a building or paid a cent of tax in Downers Grove. Don't forget it.

The penny-wise policy never made a man rich. Don't forget it. It makes him the secret laughing stock of his neighbors, though. Don't forget that.

Everybody knows who is building up Downers Grove with good old Downers Grove dollars, that these facts cannot be kept a secret. Don't forget it.

Facts and Fancies

A visitor to this country from Turkey has been writing his impression on the American people and does it thus:—The ladies dress beautifully and look beautiful when they have their war paint on, but the men dress in all shapes and forms, some with vests and some without vests, some with slouch hats and some with straw hats and some with caps, some smoking cigars, some chewing tobacco, some guzzling beer and some howling temperance. They are a most uncouth and slothfully set of people.

The greatest handicap to rural delivery of mail is bad roads. Some road workers are from ten to twenty years behind the times and don't know it. Other road workers do not care, so they obtain their per diem. It is high time that we are getting value received for every dollar's worth of labor performed on the roads. Working out one's taxes in the usual way is too hard on the jaws and ought to be "cut out."

It is told of an Indian Territory editor that he visited an insane asylum, while in Saint Louis recently, and was mistaken by a lunatic for a fellow sufferer just arrived. Becoming confidential, the inmate asked the editor what made him go crazy, and to humor him the editor replied, "Trying to make money out of the newspaper business." "Rats!" said the lunatic; "you're not crazy; you're just a damn fool."

So many tramps bothered Sam's place that in his desperation he put up a placard, "Beware of the Dog." One of his neighbors while passing asked him why he put that up when he had no dog. He said it was cheaper than owning a dog.

A Boston preacher has applied for divorce on the grounds that his wife uses slang and has adopted a walk which he considers bad form. This poor man's soul should be liberated at once.

A writer in Farm and Fireside says that if hornets are handled gently they will become as docile as butterflies. How are you treating your hornets—harshly or kindly? Pause and reflect.

At a seance in Boston a lady spectator snatched a red jacket from a materialized Indian spirit, and it seems that all the mediums in Boston are unable to "dematerialize" that jacket.

It is said that we are in childhood twice and manhood but once, and so a Tennessee college has opened its doors for the education of "old" children. No admittance under seventy.

The ticket to be voted at the November election will contain 281 names. Gee whiz! It will have to be as big as the side of a house to hold them.

A man labelled "Tombstone" wants to raffle himself off to get a wife. Does the label apply to his place of residence or the structure of his teeth?

Japan is said to have 8,000,000 gods, as well as a numerous galaxy of goddesses. And Russia is beginning to suspect that most of them enlisted.

Patriotism does not enter into consideration when a man separates himself from his citizenship but remains loyal to his bank account.

In one of Kurapatkin's reports he states that both wings of his army are working together. He means that they are flying.

Predictions as to majorities are interesting as showing how far a man will go when there is nothing to hold him back.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Lease announces that she will not return to Kansas. We haven't heard of Kansas-shedding tears.

General Booth, head of the Salvation Army, is chasing sinners in an automobile. He uses the "red devil" type.

No one can sustain a good name who does not deserve it, and whose actions are not consistent with its possession.

The campaign hoax can stir up more excitement in a minute than a regiment of spellbinders can raise in a month.

Russia might have expected something amiss when it undertook to catch the Japs in the land of the Tartars.

The "Russian advance" is now said to be continuing at a most spirited pace toward St. Petersburg.

As the term "hold-up men" is getting a little ancient, why not call them "shake-down men"?

Ignorance is always absolute. The less a man knows the more anxious he is to show it.

It is just possible that George Meredith has been reading too many of his own novels.

Are American railways in a race for top place in the mortality tables?

Mr. Hearst's yellow journals are turning "blue."

Pain
From Inflammatory Rheumatism
Would Have Killed Our Son.
Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills Saved Him.
"We began to use Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills six years ago. My wife had liver trouble and a neighbor gave her some of your liver pills to try, after which we bought a bottle of them and my wife used them until cured. Since then I have used them and I must say that I have never used any pills that gave me the satisfaction these have. We also use Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills with greatest satisfaction. Three years ago our son Harry had inflammatory rheumatism. He had suffered so much that I believe if we had not given him Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills which relieved him almost instantly he would have died. I am always glad of the opportunity for praising Dr. Miles' Remedies."—James Evert, Alton, Ill.
I was afflicted with neuralgia for years and never found any permanent relief till I began using Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They are a sure cure for headache and neuralgic pains. Only this morning I recommended them to a friend with a severe headache and in a half hour he came into the store smiling. The headache was gone. We use them in the family and find them excellent for the women folk. This high altitude makes them very nervous. Grandma says I should tell Dr. Miles she could not live here were it not for the Anti-Pain Pills that she takes occasionally."—L. B. Morris, Helena, Montana.

Poorly?
