Arctadian Club Banquet

On Saturday evening, January 28, 1907, the Arctadian club of Downers Grove, Illinois, held its fifth annual banquet at the home of Miss Cora Wheeler.

After supper an interesting talk was given by the president, followed by letters from old members who have moved away.

The rest of the evening was spent in dancing and playing games, and at eleven forty-five the members wended their way to their respective homes.

Below we print Mr. Hall's paper in full believing that what it contains will be greatly appreciated by our readers.

The Arctadian club has a bright, prosperous time before it. We must grow because we are young, and we must grow in the right and best way.

I am sure you will agree with me and say we are advancing, as Dr. O. W. Holmes' 'Chambered Nautilus'.

What can we do to please him? Miss Helena Fisher is always welcome. She is an attentive listener and enjoys a place on the program.

For she's a maid of nineteen summers, No chance for you new comers. She'll treat you right when in her sight.

Miss Edith Childers is a member that is well liked by all. I predict that she will use her musical talent more and more.

Miss Cora Handy, our vice-president, is a splendid office holder. She assists when deep problems are puzzling our president.

Greenville Fridham, our secretary, though absent to-night, is a faithful member. He loves that secretary book, and takes naturally to it.

A faithful member is Greenville Fridham. But where is Ben, where has he hid him? O, he'll return, and I dare say.

Walter Mosberg, a member who lives in the suburbs of Downers Grove, must be praised for his interest and willingness. Such a member always helps a club.

I knew a man who went to skate. Took girls took he with him: He saw a dark spot on the lake.

Miss Ann Findlay is a member that deserves praise. She has a home that is an elegant place for a club to meet.

Murray Skinner, an ex-president, but it is not what we used to be, but what we are to-day.

er especially, for they say that he is fortunate in angling.

A little fish lived in a stream. 'Twas hard to catch, so it did seem. The bait was good, O, did it bite?

The foregoing stanzas are not necessary, for the name Skinner to me signifies winner.

The club owes much to Dickinson, Fred. On the roll always may his name be read. On the program likewise may we see it.

For a song, a speech, or a little hot air. Miss Emma Skinner, one of our musicians, is a pillar to our club.

Get busy, John Gray. The summer will soon be here. Beyond money and pay, You'll find it will pay.

Boy Worley has shown interest in our club. He believes, as most of us do, that it is easy to learn Esperanto.

Give Marion a drum and a stick of gum. And thus let's try to amuse him. He alone is a band, yes, he has the sand.

Samuel Kennison received a unanimous vote to become our president. Business is so that Sam cannot fill the office.

attendance. They compose a program committee themselves, and Miss Agnes, talented in teaching, knows when we are advancing and leaning on the oars.

A little smattering of Latin and Greek. Will enlighten a garden best: But tell us, Miss Dunn, When you've named the one.

There is a young lady named Grace. On the program she can fill any place. There is a young man, shall I tell?

Miss Lucille Trevette is a member who loves Esperanto. We know there are no tongue-twisting words, yet we agree that the study is fascinating.

Harry Hall, he beats them all. From the piglets to the giants tall. He's clever and bright, And just straight.

We offer one hundred dollars reward for any case of catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

Walding, Kinnam & Marvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood.
