JUNE WEDDINGS.

The marriage of Miss Lillian Dawes, of Downers Grove and Frank Clarence Allen, Jr., of New York, was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Jane Bateman on Tuesday evening, June 2d.

The spacious home of Mrs. Bateman on South Main street was the scene of one of the prettiest home weddings ever held in this town, when the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Dawes was united in the bonds of matrimony to F. C. Allen. The house was beautifully decorated by Miss Helen White, of Highland, with roses and smilax and an altar of the same was erected at the east end of the parlor, where the ceremony took place. At 6 o'clock the guests began to arrive in their automobiles and carriages, and at 6:30, to the strains of Lohengrin's beautiful wedding march, played by Mrs. L. L. Herrick on the piano and accompanied by Miss Lucy Herrick on the violin, the wedding march began. Mr. Allen, accompanied by his brother, Percy Allen, entered the room from the west, while Mr. Dawes, the father of the bride, awaited her at the foot of the staircase.

Miss Maud Bateman, maid of honor, slowly descended the stairs. She was attired in a white embroidered mull gown and carried a large bouquet of Marguerites. After she reached the altar the bride, attired in a gown of net enveloped in a veil of tulle, carrying a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley, appeared in all her loveliness.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Frank Newhall White, of Chicago, uncle of the groom.

After congratulations were over with the bridal party and the bride's dearest girl friends, first proceeded to the dining-room, where a bounteous wedding supper was served.

As the bride ascended the stairs preparatory to going away, she threw her bridal bouquet over the baluster and it was caught by Miss Mabel Freer, of Hinsdale.

Mrs. Clarence Allen soon reappeared in her going away suit of Copenhagen blue silk with tan hat, and with much laughter they were pelted with confetti as they disappeared in the dark and were whisked away to the train in a swiftly moving automobile. After a short wedding tour they will be at home to their friends in Milwaukee, Wis.

The gifts were numerous and costly, consisting of money, Oriental rugs, furniture, silver, cut glass and many pieces of bric-a-brac and useful articles.

Mrs. Allen and her fortunate spouse have the best wishes of their hosts of friends.

Out-of-Town Guests: Mr. and Mrs. J. Percival Allen, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore F. Holbrook, Clinton Holbrook, Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. William R. Dawes, Misses Eleanor and Marion Dawes, Neil Dawes, Edward Elbert, Evanston; Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Dawes, Edward Dawes, Mrs. L. L. Herrick, Miss Lucy Herrick, Miss Eva Neiler, Miss Pearl Bonstedt, Rev. and Mrs. Frank Newhall White, Misses Margaret and Marion White, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Holbeck, Mrs. Albert M. Hobbs, Aurora; Miss Etta M. Elliott, Chicago Heights; Miss Helen Hudson, Oak Park; Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Dewey, Miss Mabel Rutherford, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Jennison, Miss Katherine Bruffette, Miss Florence Northrup, La Grange; Miss Mabel Freer, Hinsdale; Miss Helen M. White, Highland Park; Laura B. Green, Hilliard S. Green, Misses Julie and Rose Barnard, Naperville; Mrs. Gertrude Judd Smith, Glenview; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hall, Sandwich.

WEDDING AND BAPTISM.

A quiet and unostentatious home wedding was celebrated at the residence of Mrs. Olaf Erickson, at 151 Saratoga avenue, on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. The contracting parties were Mr. Edward John Lawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Lawson, of this village, and Miss Ada Christine Erickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Erickson. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. F. Farmiloe, and the beautiful and impressive ritual service of the Methodist Episcopal church was used. The bridesmaids were Miss Jennie Erickson, sister of the bride, and Miss Selma M. Lawson, sister of the groom. The groom was supported by Mr. Theodore Erickson and Mr. Emil Johnson. The bride was neatly and tastefully attired and wore a white gown.

The wedding march was played by Miss Jessie Carrie, of Anstlin, who also delighted the guests and entertained the occasion by rendering several instrumental and vocal numbers of her own composition. The decorations were ferns and cut flowers. Mrs. A. Johnson, of Chicago, and Mr. John Nelson, of Downers Grove, with the members of the two families, were the only guests of the occasion. The bride and groom were the recipients of many valuable and useful presents. A bountiful and elaborate course dinner was served and the happy couple quietly slipped away from the company and started East for a short wedding trip.

On their return they will be at home on Foot street, near Franklin. Immediately following the wedding ceremony Grace Eileen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wells, was presented to the pastor by her parents to receive the sacrament of holy baptism, Miss Jennie Erickson acting as sponsor. The en-

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES SCHOOL NOTES

The high school commencement took place Friday evening at the M. E. church.

Dr. Fox, versatile speaker and lecturer, who sways an audience to his moods, was the speaker of the evening. His subject was Dante, giving him the first place among the great men of the world.

Painting word pictures of Florence, the birthplace of the poet, interspersing his interesting talk with bright, sparkling sallies of wit, humor and pathos, referring to married life and some married men as mere machines, and going back and forth from the house to the shop or office, his whole thought to make money and save it. Some people make as much money as they can and can as much as they make, and the children of such men usually do not turn out very good for them.

Referring to the number of women in the audience without escort he inferred that they had married machines and could not induce the machines to come along.

In speaking of Dante he took his audience down into the depths of the inferno and traveled with them up the heights of fame and achievement.

It certainly was an inspiring and instructive lecture for the graduates and all present. After Dr. Fox had finished H. P. Jones in a neat little complimentary speech presented the graduates with their diplomas.

At the close of the exercises Supr. Avery and wife entertained the graduating class and high school teachers at their home.

The public schools closed Friday. The eighth grade promotion exercises were held at the auditorium Thursday night, May 28th. The members of the class, with one or two exceptions, and a good audience were present, notwithstanding the great downpour of rain, the heavy wind, and thunder and lightning. The class gave an excellent and well-prepared program, which was enjoyed by those present.

On Friday afternoon, each room in our schools gave a special program, commencing with Decoration Day. Several members of the local post visited the schools, speaking to the children of life as the soldier of the Civil War knew it in those never-to-be-forgotten days. On Saturday—Decoration Day—the children of the public schools assisted the Grand Army of the Republic to decorate the monument at the cemetery.

LOS ANGELES CORRESPONDENCE

Old Friends Meet.

On Tuesday evening, May 26th, some former residents of Downers Grove gathered at 1007 South Olive street, Los Angeles, California. At this address Franklin and John Hulif have a very pleasant room. In the front yard are two California palms, which are very attractive in appearance.

Roy Worley, James Gumbrell and Fred Alford were the other Downers Grovettes who came to this "affair." Fred Alford has been in New York City for the past three years with his mother and sisters, and Roy Worley has been away from Downers Grove for about six months. All these boys were in the Young Men's O'ward Club in Downers Grove, and some were together in the high school. It would have been fine could Dr. R. C. Davies, of Monrovia, Calif., and who was "manager" of the above-mentioned club, have attended this gathering, but he is busy curing folks of the various ills with which humanity is afflicted.

A LOCAL OPTION IDYL.

He thirsted for booze:
It was labeled "Cold Tea."
He saw through the ruse:
And he chuckled with glee.
No questions to ask,
Just plunk down your plunk,
And pocket your plunk,
And go on a drunk.
With a smile and a wink
He hastened away
To enjoy his first drink
Since the seventh of May.
In a dark, dingy place
He sampled his booze:
And oh, what a face!
When he saw through the ruse.
'Twas a mean, dirty trick.
Yet he plainly could see
It was no use to kék.
For 'twas really cold tea!

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of our dearly beloved daughter, Minnie A. Kiederer, who died one year ago, June 9, 1907.
Rest in peace dear Minnie,
You are forever gone away;
You are gone but not forgotten,
We think of you every day,
God has given, God has taken,
All of us must bear that pain,
For the loving one has promised
We in heaven shall meet again.
—From loving parents.

A KNOCK.

Oskaloosa, Ia., June 1, 1908.
Editor Downers Grove Reporter:
During a sermon delivered by Rev. S. H. Zentl, of the Christian Church, on "Hindrances That Keep People from Going to Church," he contended that many people did not care to go to church because the sermons were not entertaining enough, and they would much rather go some place where they might be amused and enjoy themselves. As an illustration he cited an instance of "A great, long parade in the city of Chicago with thousands of people in line, and when it was over they all went out to Downers Grove, where they consumed eighty (80) barrels of beer."

After the sermon was over it was up to me to explain matters to some of my friends, as I had previously told them about Downers Grove being a dry town. So when the reverend gentleman was extending the glad-hand to his faithful flock I asked him regarding the affair. He admitted that it was not directly in the town and also that it was rather ancient history, as it happened in the fall of 1888.
ROBT. D. WALL.

OAK FOREST CEMETERY.

To the large number of Downers Grove people who visited Oak Forest cemetery on Decoration Day, the appearance of the cemetery was certainly a great surprise. As one old gentleman said, "It is certainly God's acre."

One would judge from the care and thought spent upon making it beautiful that the lots would be very expensive, but such is not the case. There are no preferred spaces. It is all the same price. That is thirty cents a square foot, and the lots run all sizes, suitable for families of two or twenty. The terms of payment are so easy that a family of smallest means may buy a lot. The lot will be open to use from the first payment.

Many families feel that during the course of events they may be scattered or even move to another place. The same watchful care will be given, in Oak Forest cemetery, to those who have no near ones to look after the lonely grave. It has always been a matter of great pride that each and every lot has an equal amount of care whether it is visited every day or once in ten years, by the family.

Prudence suggests that we look forward to the future requirements, and, as the purchase of a lot should be an expense incurred but once in the history of a family, it is well to take advantage of the present moderate price and secure a lot large enough for all future needs.

IN MEMORIAM.

Decoration Day of 1908 is now only a memory, once more the veterans have gathered to honor their dead comrades and in following the band forgot for the time being their infirmities and old age in the memory of those stirring days, when in the full vigor of young manhood they answered their country's call to duty, a duty well performed, even though achieved at the cost of thousands of lives and the cutting short of careers of thousands of young men who gave up their lives for a good and noble cause.

This sacrifice has not been in vain, for to-day this reunited North and South represents a nation of a peaceful, progressive and prosperous brotherhood, ever ready to maintain the integrity and honor of the land of their birth or adoption, as the case may be.

On the morning of Decoration Day Naper Post gathered at their headquarters and marched in a body to the depot, where they boarded the 9:08 train and went to Hinsdale, taking part in the exercises at Fullersburg; they returned to Downers at noon, and at 2 o'clock they formed in line at Main and Curtis streets, headed by the band and escorted by the fire department, they marched to Maple avenue and counter-marched to the cemetery, where the impressive G. A. R. ceremonies were conducted.

After a couple of appropriate songs were sung by a selected choir, the school children, headed by Prof. Avery, marched to the monument and decorated it profusely with floral offerings. The ranks were then reformed and proceeded to the M. E. church, where Chief Justice Carter of the Supreme Court of Illinois delivered the address of the day.
