AT THE CHICAGO THEATERS

THE CHICAGO OPERA HOUSE

Re-Opens on September 6th With William Gillette's New Comedy

"Ticey."

The season of the Chicago Opera House, entirely redecorated, recarpeted and generally renovated from the front to the rear, will be inaugurated Saturday evening, September 5th, when Frederic Thompson will present for the first time a new comedy by Willam Gillette, entitled "Ticey," which on its trial presentation last spring gave every evidence of possessing the ear marks of success which have been attained by this versatile author and comedian's many other dramatic efforts, such as "Held by the Enemy,

"Sherlock Holmes," "Clarice."

In the new Gillette play, Mr. Thomp son believes he has an offering which will be in line with his other success es. He has provided an exceptionally strong company which has been selected with the special fitness of each for the character they are to interpret; if includes in the name role, Mary Ryan who is well and favorably known in Chicago from her association with the old Dearborn Stock company, where she was a great favorite from her many pleasant impersonations in comedy. drama and musical contedy. In "Ticey" she has a most attractive role and one which gives her the best opporplainant has heretofore med his till of tunity of her career. The principal male role will be in the hands of Frederic Lewis, who has been associated for several seasons with Julia Marlowe ness to go with same. Address Reporter fendants, returnable on the first day of and E. H. Sothern. In his new play office. Mr. Gillette has evolved a novel theme into a most entertaining and amazing

MAJESTIC.

For the week of August 31st the Mr jestle Theater, Chicago, will offer one of those entertaining vandeville bills for which it is noted throughout the country, the headliner being the Blonds Typewriters, who will present a divert ing little musical playlet called "Fun to An Office." It is one of the productions of Gus Edwards, the famous composer and music publisher, who has already supplied the vandeville stage with number of good novelties. A half degen handsome young ladies, all blondes, take part in this act and they have been supplied with a number of Mr. Val wards' latest songs, written especially for them. Another important number will be the Eight Beriln Madeages, were in Chicago for the first time. All last season they were the great dancing permatten of Broadway in New York Frank Byron and Louise Langdon, who are about the funniest farceurs on the stage, will be seen in their laughing art "The Dude Detective," an act which has probably answed more people that any other in vandeville. The Foun Brothers Brown and Keeler bave singing and doneing turn which will liven up the bill, as they are noted for their fun-making efforts. Adams, the pretty violin virtueso known as the gypsy violinist, will be one of the favorites.

The nearer a young person can in tate the steadiness of an older person the better it will be for him.
