

Downers Grove Reporter

Published by the Year 1928. Subscription price, $1.50 per year in advance...

Downers Grove, Ill. Telephone 664. 64 So. Main St. Business 1084.

ARRIVAL OF MAILES From West: 6:08 a.m., 9:32 a.m., 1:24 p.m., 5:28 p.m. From East: 8:57 a.m., 12:09 p.m., 6:06 p.m.

DOWNERS GROVE.

(9-22-28) OFFICIAL TIME CARD. Effective Sept. 27, 1928. (Subject to change without notice.)

Table with columns: Leave Chicago, Arrive Downers Grove, Leave Downers Grove, Arrive Chicago. Lists various times for different routes.

Table with columns: Leave Chicago, Arrive Downers Grove, Leave Downers Grove, Arrive Chicago. Lists various times for different routes.

An enlightening commentary on the present state of affairs in Morocco is contained in a recent dispatch of the London Times...

The Shakespeare Memorial Committee has agreed that the tercentennial monument to the poet shall take the form of an endowed national theater in London.

"All the trouble came of Eve's having nothing to do on mornings. Had she had Cain and Abel to wash and dress inside Paradise, the whole family would never have found themselves outside."

Admiral Dewey, who as a youth served under Admiral Farragut at the Battle of Mobile Bay, unveiled, in August, a memorial tablet that has been set in the walls of the house in the Portsmouth navy yard where his great chief died in 1870.

Among the returning Americans who landed, one day in September, from an Atlantic liner, was a woman who had spent eleven weeks in Europe.

The czar has as many crowns as a fashionable lady has hats. He is regarded by his people as a religious as well as a secular monarch.

"Prof. Boogles is a fine example of too much learning." "What's your drift?" "He can predict a shower of rain, but when it comes he hasn't common sense enough to keep from getting wet."

only change I made in my wardrobe." Now that it has been demonstrated that a woman can make a tour of Europe with all her belongings in a single hand bag...

There has been much talk of race suicide in connection with the statistics of population in France, and considerable alarm has been expressed over the tendency toward small families in this country.

England's War of the Roses. That flower, more than any other, incites Britons to envy. Summer in England is the time of year when the wars of the roses compete with summer maneuvers in strenuousness.

Back Home. When Alzora Dunn had shaken the dust of Brattleville from her feet—literally, for it was a hot, dry summer—and departed for Chicago, Gus Mitchell of course had been at the railroad station to see her off.

Some Chinese Mills are Crude. Beans or Grain Dumped into Hollow Piece of Masonry and Rolled. China in the interior of the empire presents many odd sights to the traveler.

Has Many Crowns. The czar has as many crowns as a fashionable lady has hats. He is regarded by his people as a religious as well as a secular monarch.

Over-Wise. "Prof. Boogles is a fine example of too much learning." "What's your drift?" "He can predict a shower of rain, but when it comes he hasn't common sense enough to keep from getting wet."

Women and Men. "Do you know the thing that strikes me as most remarkable here in Chicago," said the visitor from the old country, "is this: You see such tall, exquisite and beautiful women with such little puny, insignificant men, I was at the Auditorium the other day. Really, it was distressing. The women looked like fair, white ships of sail being towed along by tugboats."

PAPERS BY THE PEOPLE

IMPROVED LABOR CONDITIONS.

By Vice President Fairbanks. There has been during the past few years a very noticeable improvement in labor conditions. This has been due in a large degree to the perfection and influence of labor organizations and to the cooperation of many thousands who have believed that the improvement of the conditions of labor was a matter of the very first importance to the great body of our citizenship.

SCOPE OF MAN'S WORK. By Prof. Kenyon L. Butterfield. The sharp distinction sometimes drawn between vocational studies and culture studies is already being modified. Some time it may be obliterated.

THE DAISY-FIELD. Man looked upon the sky by night, And loved its tender azure, bright With many a softly beaming light; And sang his Maker's praise.

Back Home. When Alzora Dunn had shaken the dust of Brattleville from her feet—literally, for it was a hot, dry summer—and departed for Chicago, Gus Mitchell of course had been at the railroad station to see her off.

Some Chinese Mills are Crude. Beans or Grain Dumped into Hollow Piece of Masonry and Rolled. China in the interior of the empire presents many odd sights to the traveler.

Has Many Crowns. The czar has as many crowns as a fashionable lady has hats. He is regarded by his people as a religious as well as a secular monarch.

Over-Wise. "Prof. Boogles is a fine example of too much learning." "What's your drift?" "He can predict a shower of rain, but when it comes he hasn't common sense enough to keep from getting wet."

Women and Men. "Do you know the thing that strikes me as most remarkable here in Chicago," said the visitor from the old country, "is this: You see such tall, exquisite and beautiful women with such little puny, insignificant men, I was at the Auditorium the other day. Really, it was distressing. The women looked like fair, white ships of sail being towed along by tugboats."

ing. Agriculture is to be amply recognized in the schools, if agriculture, properly defined and taught, is efficient educational material, both city and country boy may profit by it.

"PINK TEA" DIPLOMACY. By Spencer Eddy, U. S. Minister to Argentina. The old conception placed on diplomacy by Americans is fast disappearing. It has not been so many years back since the impression prevailed that a diplomatic post was nothing more than a medium through which our country maintained its social entente cordiale with other nations.

LACK OF POLICE SUPERVISION. By President Elliot of Harvard. In no other civilized country of the world is there such absence of effective police supervision as in the United States.

Back Home. When Alzora Dunn had shaken the dust of Brattleville from her feet—literally, for it was a hot, dry summer—and departed for Chicago, Gus Mitchell of course had been at the railroad station to see her off.

Some Chinese Mills are Crude. Beans or Grain Dumped into Hollow Piece of Masonry and Rolled. China in the interior of the empire presents many odd sights to the traveler.

Has Many Crowns. The czar has as many crowns as a fashionable lady has hats. He is regarded by his people as a religious as well as a secular monarch.

Over-Wise. "Prof. Boogles is a fine example of too much learning." "What's your drift?" "He can predict a shower of rain, but when it comes he hasn't common sense enough to keep from getting wet."

Women and Men. "Do you know the thing that strikes me as most remarkable here in Chicago," said the visitor from the old country, "is this: You see such tall, exquisite and beautiful women with such little puny, insignificant men, I was at the Auditorium the other day. Really, it was distressing. The women looked like fair, white ships of sail being towed along by tugboats."

Primitive Stone for Grinding Purposes. China is a laborious job. A block of round masonry is set up and stowed. The beans or grain is dumped in and then rolled to the proper degree of coarseness or otherwise.

Women and Men. "Do you know the thing that strikes me as most remarkable here in Chicago," said the visitor from the old country, "is this: You see such tall, exquisite and beautiful women with such little puny, insignificant men, I was at the Auditorium the other day. Really, it was distressing. The women looked like fair, white ships of sail being towed along by tugboats."

MRS. FISH ON WOMEN. Noted Society Leader Says a Good Husband is Better Than a Vote. One of the leaders in American suffrage is Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, whose husband, a prominent financier, is the son of Hamilton Fish, President Grant's secretary of state.

Back Home. When Alzora Dunn had shaken the dust of Brattleville from her feet—literally, for it was a hot, dry summer—and departed for Chicago, Gus Mitchell of course had been at the railroad station to see her off.

Some Chinese Mills are Crude. Beans or Grain Dumped into Hollow Piece of Masonry and Rolled. China in the interior of the empire presents many odd sights to the traveler.

Has Many Crowns. The czar has as many crowns as a fashionable lady has hats. He is regarded by his people as a religious as well as a secular monarch.

Over-Wise. "Prof. Boogles is a fine example of too much learning." "What's your drift?" "He can predict a shower of rain, but when it comes he hasn't common sense enough to keep from getting wet."

Women and Men. "Do you know the thing that strikes me as most remarkable here in Chicago," said the visitor from the old country, "is this: You see such tall, exquisite and beautiful women with such little puny, insignificant men, I was at the Auditorium the other day. Really, it was distressing. The women looked like fair, white ships of sail being towed along by tugboats."

Primitive Stone for Grinding Purposes. China is a laborious job. A block of round masonry is set up and stowed. The beans or grain is dumped in and then rolled to the proper degree of coarseness or otherwise.

Women and Men. "Do you know the thing that strikes me as most remarkable here in Chicago," said the visitor from the old country, "is this: You see such tall, exquisite and beautiful women with such little puny, insignificant men, I was at the Auditorium the other day. Really, it was distressing. The women looked like fair, white ships of sail being towed along by tugboats."

Women and Men. "Do you know the thing that strikes me as most remarkable here in Chicago," said the visitor from the old country, "is this: You see such tall, exquisite and beautiful women with such little puny, insignificant men, I was at the Auditorium the other day. Really, it was distressing. The women looked like fair, white ships of sail being towed along by tugboats."

Sermons of the Week

Faith is important as a foundation. But faith without works is dead.—Rev. Florence R. Pell, Presbyterian, New York City.

The Message of Life. Christianity is the message of life and should not be interpreted in death.—Rev. F. W. Hinnitt, Presbyterian, Danville, Ky.

The Catholic Church. The Catholic Church stands for law and order, public morality and the sanctity of the marriage bond.—Pope Pius X., Rome.

Man of God. To be a man of God is to have a title of nobility worn by the prophets of old—the highest expression that a man is capable of becoming.—Rev. C. R. Hemp-hill, Presbyterian, Louisville.

Final Results. Many of the final results of your life and teaching will report themselves to you long years after you come before the judgment seat of God.—Rev. X. D. Hillis, Congregationalist, Brooklyn.

Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ is both the condemnation of what we are and the promise of what we can be. He is the center of all things, and the final interpretation of the universe.—Rev. R. M. Little, Presbyterian, Pittsburg.

Changing Beliefs. The men and women who have changed their belief first changed their habits. Like a pig sticking into your skin under your necktie is a little faith when he looks attractive.—Rev. Frederick E. Hopkins, Congregationalist, Chicago.

Mind and Religion. The more highly developed the mental life is, the more correctly one thinks, the more complete and perfect his knowledge, other things being equal, the better will be his type of religion.—Rev. John W. Rowlett, Unitarian, Atlanta.

The Sacraments. The sacraments constitute the extension of the incarnation; that is, the carrying of the benefits of our dear Lord's life and death all over the world and along down the ages until He comes down.—Rev. C. M. Conant, Episcopalian, Pittsburg.

Irrigation. Irrigation is akin to insanity on the one side, at one aspect, but only apparently so. Insanity is a disordered mind warping morals; Irrigation is disordered morals warping the mind.—Rev. Edward H. Ponce, Presbyterian, Detroit.

The New Woman. It is a pity man-mimicking woman does not realize that if she insists upon being unsexed and playing the man, she will soon meet with short shrift, and will be treated not like a gentlemanly man, but like a boulder.—Rev. Bernard Vaughan, Roman Catholic, London.

The Greatest Art. The greatest art in the world is the art of living. The greatest thing in living is in knowing how to get along with other people. The highest state of happiness can only come from the most perfect companionship.—Rev. W. W. Bustard, Baptist, Boston.

Spirit Messengers. I cannot believe that any human being has power to call the spirits of the faithful back from Paradise at will for trivial purposes, but I can believe it possible that God may send them as messengers and make them minister to our necessities.—Rev. E. Nuttal, Episcopalian, Brooklyn.

Temptation and Mea. Weak, shallow natures are the only ones exempt from temptation. They are below temptation, not above it. Strong natures never escape temptation, and usually the stronger the personality the stronger and fiercer the temptation.—Rev. William C. Stinson, Reformed, New York City.

Christianity. Christianity puts a man in the way of realizing the right kind of ambitions instead of the wrong kind. It warns us against setting the shadow and letting go the substance. It gives us a scale of values which helps us against mistakes of judgment.—Dr. A. T. Hadley, Presbyterian, New Haven.

His of the World. The rich man who enjoys the pleasures of life looks down upon the poor man, and the poor man looks down upon the man poorer than he. Those people are turning from God. When they die and leave a legacy to their children they leave nothing but disgrace.—Rev. M. C. Morrissy, Roman Catholic, Natchez, Miss.

Cost of Crime. The cost of crime in New York City for one single year is enough to build two subways a year; the cost to the State enough to pay in two years the whole cost of widening the Erie canal from Buffalo to Albany. The cost of crime to the United States is enough, if our people were righteous for two years, to pay the whole national debt.—Rev. John Flagg, Presbyterian, New York City.

Plausible Theory. "The Italian girl graduate can't very well say, 'Beyond the Alps lies Italy.' Wonder what she does for a substitute?" "Says, 'Beyond Ellis Island lies America,' maybe."—Kansas City Times.

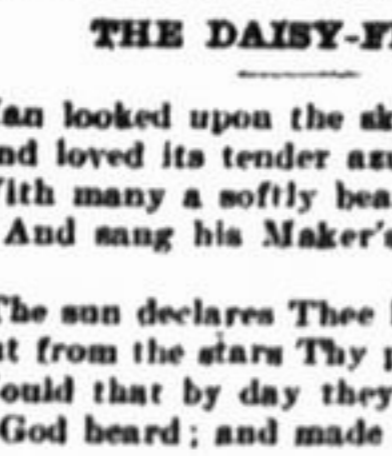

Must Have Been. "Why do you think that the man who tried to hold you up was an amateur?" "Because, when I grabbed him he hollered, 'Police! Help!'"—Houston Post.

C. W. FAIRBANKS.

PROF. KENYON L. BUTTERFIELD.

PRESIDENT ELLIOT.

HE HAD BEAUTIFUL PINK FINGER NAILS.

PRIMITIVE STONE FOR GRINDING PURPOSES.

PRIMITIVE STONE FOR GRINDING PURPOSES.

PRIMITIVE STONE FOR GRINDING PURPOSES.