POLITICAL MEETINGS.

REPUBLICANS START THE CAM-PAIGN.

Meeting in Auditorium Friday

Evening Arouses Enthusiasm. Sound Republican doctrine was voiced last Friday evening at the initial mass meeting of the campaign when Judge C. E. Irwin of Elgin directed the attention of his auditors to the records of the Republican party and their Democratic opponents. In summing up the case the speaker of the evening, who was formerly a federal judge in Oklahoma territory, declared that it had been repeatedly send stamp for particulars. Empire proved that the Republican party was right in its platform and principles and the Democratic party as repeatedly

> The utterances of Judge Irwin were enthusiastically received and applause punctuated his speech.

> The meeting was attended by a large number of residents of the village and on the speaker's platform in the audi torium where the meeting was held! were the nominees of the Republican party for DuPage county offices.

Capt. T. S. Rogers presided and in troduced the speakers in a few wellchosen words. Hon. Frank Joslyn of Elgin was the first speaker and outlined the necessity for Republican victory.

In his opening words Capt. Rogers called attention to the presence of D. C. Stanley, who voted in 1836, and his grandson, Logan Stanley, who will cust his first ballot in the November elec-

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

Coll McNaughton, candidate for Copgress, and Hon, Samuel Alsebuler ad dressed an attentive audience at the Auditorium Wednesday evening. The meeting was called to order by Bud Kellogg, who before introducing the speakers referred to the Republican rally addressed by Judge Irwin and in a few well-chosen words, good naturedly riddled the speech of the judge pointing out clearly and plainly the mistakes and misstatements. Those who heard the speech will commend Mr. Kellogg for his moderation and the good-natured way in which he pointed out the judge's errors and both Democrats and Republicans will probably agree that Judge Irwin's speech was as good as the uniterial he had to work from would allow. Cell McNaughton on being introduc ed gave without any attempt at impassloped oratory, a logical and clear-cut discussion of the issues of the present

Hon, Samuel Abschuler's matchless thetoric and his unanswerable logic held the attention of the audience until the close and he drew a striking contrast between the two party platforms, denied that the Republican politicians were sincere in their plank The ladies of the Congregational [pledging postal savings banks, and pointed out the fact that they had been in complete control for the past twelve years and could have enacted such a law long ago had they wished.

He did not blame the Republican party because Foraker was bribed-bad men can be found in all parties but did blame the Republican party for the system that permits dishonest men to buy their seats in the Senate. It the plank calling for election of Senais even hinted that they would like to tors by the direct vote of the people go and do likewise, for in union there | while the Democratic convention manimmusic adopted it

He reliented the Republican position on the tariff and gave his audience, a large part of which was Rebublican. nmch to think of. With our lumber supply being so rapidly exhausted and with so bountiful a supply in the Canadian forests, he thought it a crime that to enrich a few lumber barons every man who builds a house and every man who pays rent should be forced to pay more for his lumber than it is worth.

A large part of the audience, of course, were not worried by the deplet ed condition of the American forests by natural demand and the late disastrons forest fires. They know the destruction caused by the fires can be easily and quickly repaired by the Republican Congress. It is only the work of a few noments to add enough to the duty on lumber to make up for the loss on the forest and everyone is happy. Great . the motestire tariff

The meeting was one long to be remembered for the good order preserved and for the respect shown the speakers hy people of both parties,

THE MEN'S BROTHERHOOD AT WORK.

If you were near the Congregational church last Saturday afternoon you would have seen eight or ten men with their coats off and spades in their hands clearing the parkway in front of the church and leveling and beautify ing the lots

President Mills of the Brotherhood and President Graves of the Board of Trustees supervised the work and also did their share.

The night fell on before they completed their work and opportunity awaits the remainder of the Brotherhead to finish up.

The exercise was good for the men it improved the appearance of the church, and demonstrated that the men are not dead in church interests.

Dr. John Lovejoy Elliot, head worker of Hudson Gulld Settlement, New York, was lecturing some boys from the water front on the doings of Nero. SPORTING NEWS.

Downers won the first football game of the season on the local grounds last Saturday when Downers (the team of the purple and white) defeated the Clairmont team of Chicago by the score of 10 to 0.

The Chicago boys put up a game and clever fight, but were outclassed by our local aggregation, hence their de feat. Neither team made much head way in the first half of the game, but in the second half Downers got off with a rush and scored the first goal in the first two minutes of play.

Downers Grove lined up to receive the kick-off at just 4 o'clock, and dur ing the first half the ball was worked up and down in the center of the field neither team being able to gain the ad-

When Downers again lined up to receive the ball in the second half several of the men had been shifted in their positions. In the first play Wells received the ball on a fumble and ran half the length of the field to within three yards of the enemy's goal. Wyllie was then sent through the center, resulting in the first touchdown of the game. On an attempt to kick goal the wind interfered with Wyllie's beautiful kick and carried the ball a triffe outside of the goal. Wells got away for a long quarter back run in the latter part of the second half and scored the second touchdown of the game. O'Mara, captain of the team, played a star game during the first half as right half.. In the second half of the game be retired in favor of Vix, who made a very creditable showing. In the first half Smith made a beautiful forty-yard run, but through ill fortune it did not result in a touchdown. Wyllie's kicking was a feature.

Next Saturday the boys play Aurora, which promises to be the hardest game of the year, and they need the support of every available rooter, so get ont, you fans, and see a corking good game of football. Last Saturday's

BILL TORREY

To Be Given a Tryout by Comiskey of the White Sox.

Bill Torrey, the star twirler of the Suburban League (and captain of the Downers Grove basket ball team) will be given a try-out by Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox. 'The Old Roman's attention was called to the young star by members of the White Sox barnstormers. After Gus Munch had been knocked out of the box by the Sox in the fifth inning of the Logan Square game Saturday, Torrey took his place on the slab and allowed the pear-champs of the American League but one scratch hit during the remainder of the game. Torrey was discovered by Judge Melville of the Normals while he was twirling sensa tional ball for La Grange in a game reginst Downers Grove, which was dayed at La Grange. Torrey made the longest home run ever made in An sen's park not very long ago.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE CHICAGO THEATERS.

AUDITORIUM THEATER, CHICAGO. "Mary's Lamb is to trail "The Lion and the Mouse," Two popular attractions in quick succession at the big Auditorium, Chicago. Next week is the second and final successful week of "The Lion and the Mouse," the popular drama of financial cupidity balked by feminine cleverness at the Auditorium Theater.

Oliver Doud Byron and Dorothy Donnelly, who interpret the leading roles in Klein's great play of love and political intrigue, are nightly securing great er favor with Chicago audlences, Mr. Byron appearing in the masterful role of "Ready Money" Ryder and Miss Donnelly as the resourceful young wontan who tames the financial "Lion."

Immediately following the engage ment of "The Lion and the Mouse" blazes forth the lavish musical production, "Mary's Lamb," with the only Richard Carle as the star and moving spirit. The favorite Chicago comedian will bring the same amusing piece that he presented for a month last spring at the Illinois Theater. Popular prices will also prevail during the limited stay of the Carle company, which has con vulsed New York, Boston and other big Eastern city audiences during long runs since its initial appearance here. In the author-star's support are Miss Ce cilia Rhoda, Miss Julia Ralph, Miss Nellie Brewster, Miss Mina Davis, Miss Rita Stanwood, Miss Winifred Gilraine, DeWitt Mott, Sylvian Langlois, Jarry ("Scamp") Montgomery, Abbott Adams, George Bogues and many oth ers. The stunning chorus is not th least of the elements contributing to the success of the Carle production

WHITNEY OPERA HOUSE.

Preparations are being made for the elebration of the 100th performance of "A Broken Idol" at the Whitney Opera House, Chicago. On this occasion every woman who attends will be given a souvenir "Billiken," which has been especialy designed for B. C. Whitney by Miss Louise Hertzel, the artist who has created a furore with her little God of the Things as They Ought to Re." The statuette is novel and it has been copyrighted, so that it cannot be esed in connection with any other play but "A Broken Idol." This novel orna ment is called "Iwt" and is in the form of a little grinning Chinese idol. The show is now the most popular musical comedy in the city and abounds novel features and tuneful songs. The Chinese dragon in the first act is considered one of the best poveities ever shown in this sort of entertainment and the bulloon ascension in the his act is a sensational feature. Otis Harlan, who is being featured in the farce has introduced a whistling specialty in the finale of the first act that has made a hit. Miss Alice Yorke is the prima donna, and the cast is an unusually strong one. Election returns will b rend from the stage on election night.

RAYMOND HITCHCOCK AT THE

CHICAGO OPERA HOUSE. At the Chicago Opera House, Ray mond Hitcheock in the kalchloscopic terpsichorean musical play. The Merry-Go-Round," has made a big hit and on the opening night hundreds of people were turned away and there can be no question that this nest popular come dian has never been seen to better ad vantage than in the role of the cour try banackin, "Hen Stubles," The star has several capital songs which he renders in his own inimitable manner, one of the best being a semi-serious one called "The Orand Army Man," which never falls to get five or six encores. On the opening night in New York an instantaneous hit was scored by Miss Cathryn Rowe Palmer, a hitherto un known comedience who proved berself not only a surprise but a genuine de light. There are so few women on the stage who can be truly humorous that when one does sente a success as Miss Painer undoubtedly did, it is a thing for which the theaterpoing public is to be congratulated. Miss Palmer, too, has a number of pleasing songs, the one she sings in Italian dialect about her wonderful "Brother Sylvest" being, possibly, the best. The company is large one and a notable one in names, among the principal members being such well-known artists as Ignacio Martinetti, "Bobby" North, Jonathan Keefe, George McKay, John Cantwell, Charles Aveling, Margaret Sawyer, Alice Sawyer, Stella Maury, Lillian Rice and Angle Weimers, all of whom contribute to the success of the enter fainment. The chorus is exceptionally strong in good looks and are well train

Miss Margaret Rut ledge, of the original Broadway com pany, will be seen as the "Gibson Girl" with Mr. Harry Husk as the "Gibson Man" and six stunning show girls as the background for the striking series of Gibson pictures. Preceding the Gibson number another affective little mu sical number from "The Belle of May fair," called "My Little Girl Is a Shy Little Girl," is presented by the Misses Violet Holmes and Daisy Smith. Katte Barry, the famous little English charthat make the Cumberland parrows acter comedienne, will be another welcome addition to the bill.
