

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Miss Chaplain's 140 Carpenter street; 7:30, prayer meeting; 8, business; afterward, the social hour. All are urged to attend. New faces especially welcome. Come; let us give you a glad hand.

The Baptist Ladies' Aid are going to give a pumpkin pie social in the Baptist church Nov. 6.

The L. O. T. M. will give a dance at Modaff's Hall Thursday, Nov. 5. The Downers Grove band orchestra will furnish the music.

There is a rare treat in store for lovers of high class music in the concert to be given by the choir of the First Baptist Church of this village, Nov. 19, 1908. As has been the custom at all previous musicales a silver offering will be taken. Be sure and reserve Nov. 19th for the concert and don't miss it.

C. H. Straits and son Walter spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Walbaum at their new home in Antioch. They have an ideal location for the lover of nature and sports, being situated within a couple of miles of at least eight lakes which are famous summer resorts and good hunting and fishing grounds.

A Correspondent—One correspondent has recently learned to write all explanations to the editor upon a separate sheet of paper, when sending in items. This same correspondent wishes to apologize to Rev. Dr. Prescott, whose name happened to come at the end of the list of visitors to Naperville. "Notes to the Editor" included.

The local fire department will run their annual dance Thanksgiving eve. Some of the boys will be around to see you within the next couple of weeks. The firemen have used up all their surplus funds in building their meeting room back of the village hall. They ask every property owner in the village to help the treasury by buying a ticket for their dance.

The Philathens had a rally Thursday evening, Oct. 22. The speaker of the evening was J. C. Ahrens of Chicago, teacher of an organized Bible class of the California Avenue Congregational Church, and he was a very earnest as well as entertaining speaker. Was sorry he had to leave so early and miss the singing by C. K. Row and sister, also violin solo by Mrs. Grace Dewey. Mrs. Cook, class president, made a short address, as did Dr. Farnlow. Then came the friendly contest for autographs; afterwards refreshments. Nearly one hundred were present.

Wheaton Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Sanford are of Geneva Lake, Wis. this week.

William H. Linscke has established himself in business at Glen Ellyn.

Alonso E. Wilson, Luther H. Grange and Judge Herrick spoke at West Chicago on Monday evening.

The frame of Fred Weinstock's barn was raised last week and the structure is being rapidly completed.

Rev. Evans made an address before the Association of Congregational Churches at Geneva, Ill. Tuesday night.

Frank E. Herrick is a candidate for the office of Clerk of the Appellate Court from this district, on the Prohibition ticket. He asks the votes of the citizens of Wheaton.

Charles D. Marston, who was superintendent of the Lincoln Chautauqua here last summer, visited here a few days this week. The season lasted twenty-four weeks without a vacation.

Hon. Myron A. Waterman of Kansas City and Alonso E. Wilson of Wheaton addressed the voters here at Library Hall, Tuesday evening. Both were very strong speakers. The outlook for Mr. Wilson's election are promising, exceedingly hopeful. Mr. Waterman is managing the campaign for Wilson in Will County. Our fellow townsmen is the only candidate making an active canvass who is not endorsed by the Illinois Liquor Dealers' Association, and who is not condemned by the Legislative Voters' League of this district. Wheaton should give Wilson a landslide vote.

CONCERT.

The lovers of good music are advised that on the 15th of November a concert of instrumental and vocal music will be given in the Methodist Episcopal church by Prof. Arthur E. Fisher, organist and pianist, and Charles La Berge, violinist, assisted by Miss Loula Schmidt, pianist. An exceptionally attractive and entertaining program will be given. This will be the first opportunity of hearing Mr. La Berge since his return from Europe. Make no other engagement for Friday evening, Nov. 13. Look for program in next week's issue.

WOODEN WEDDING.

About forty friends and neighbors went in a body to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Chessman of East Grove and helped them celebrate their fifth wedding anniversary. The affair was a complete surprise to the young couple. The ladies of the Sewing Club presented Mr. and Mrs. Chessman with a handsome oak pedestal as a souvenir of the occasion. Dainty refreshments were served and a jolly evening was enjoyed by everyone present, and all declared the host and hostess excellent entertainers.

An "express rifle" is a gun in which is used a large charge of powder and comparatively light bullet. Such guns are used generally by hunters of large game in India and Africa for the reason that the bullet has great penetrating force with its heavy powder charge.

SCHOOL NOTES.

ILLINOIS CORN EXPOSITION.

District School Exhibit—Class X. We are receiving so many letters of inquiry, concerning the District School Exhibit, we offer the following explanation:

November 6 has been appointed Corn Carnival Day for each district school by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Francis G. Blair, and on that day a "corn show" will be held in each district school. On November 12, which has been appointed Exposition Day in each county, the best of the ear corn exhibits will be collected in the county superintendent's office, or at some place designated by him.

The county superintendent, or a committee appointed by him, shall select the school having the best exhibit and send same to Springfield for the State show, which shall be the district school exhibit from that county; or of the county superintendent or committee appointed by him shall make a collective exhibit from as many of the schools of the county as they choose and send same to Springfield for the State show, as the district school exhibit from that county.

At the Illinois Corn Exposition, each county in the State will be assigned a space 12x12 wherein to make its district school exhibit. This space will be inclosed by a frame work 4x4s.

Each county will be expected to arrange its district school exhibit in an attractive way in the booth assigned it. On page 45 in the final premium list will be found this classification and a list of the prizes, amounting to $539. The prizes will be delivered to the county superintendent of schools of the winning counties, to dispose of as he sees fit.

Prizes are offered for the three divisions of the State, northern, central and southern, and for the sweepstakes. It is advisable for the county superintendent to fill out an entry blank, enclose $1 and send to Illinois Corn Exposition, Springfield, Illinois, at once, so that a space may be reserved for the district school exhibit from his county. The first entries will receive the best spaces.

Any boy or girl desiring to personally compete for the prizes offered in Classes E or K must make separate entries for same and send $1 for each entry.

A final premium list will be mailed to anyone upon request.

SALETTE TO THE FLAG.

At the given hour in the morning the pupils are assembled and in their places in the school. A signal is given by the principal of the school. Every student or pupil rises in his place. The flag is brought forward by the principal or teacher. While it is being brought forward from the door to the stand of the principal or teacher every pupil gives the flag the military salute, which is as follows:

The right hand upflitted, palm upward, to a line with the forehead, close to it. While thus standing with the palm upward and in the attitude of salute, all the pupils repeat together slowly and distinctly the following pledge:

"I pledge allegiance to my Flag and to the Republic for which it stands, One nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

At the words, as pronounced in this pledge, "to my Flag," each one extends the right hand gracefully, palm upward, toward the flag until the end of the pledge of affirmation. Then all hands drop to one side. The pupils, still standing, all sing together in unison the song "America"—"My Country, 'Tis of Thee."

In the primary departments, where the children are very small, they are taught and repeat this, instead of the pledge as given for the older children.

"I give my head and my heart to God and my country. One country, one language, one flag."

In some schools the salute is given in silence, as an act of reverence, unaccompanied by any pledge. At a signal, as the flag reaches its station, the right hand is raised, palm downward, to a horizontal position against the forehead, and held there until the flag is dipped and returned to a vertical position. Then, at a second signal, the hand is dropped to the side, and the pupil takes his seat. The silent salute conforms very closely to the military and naval salute to the flag.

Principals may adopt the "silent salute" for a daily exercise and the "pledge salute" for special occasions. Prepare Lincoln Day program.

J. C. E. SOCIETY ENTERTAINED.

Marie Downer and Frances Hughes entertained the Junior Christian Endeavor Society of the Congregational Church at the home of the former on last Friday afternoon. After the games a meeting was held to talk over plans for strengthening the society for the winter's work. The Juniors pledged themselves to endeavor to bring back those members who have dropped out of the society for one reason or another. Last week's meeting was very interesting. Rev. Allingham gave a talk on the topic "A Temperance Pledge, and What It Means." The meeting was well attended.

LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.

The Ladies' Library Association have received from Major E. A. Blodgett of Chicago a valuable addition to their library, consisting of 150 volumes, besides maps and charts of the entire history of the Civil War. A new catalogue of all the works in the library will soon be ready and for sale at a nominal sum in the library rooms.

WAITING FOR A FORTUNE.

Mr. Blinkey Will Not Worry Over It, but All Ready for It. Like many another man, Mr. Blinkey is always hoping that something will turn up, says the New York Sun. He's an intelligent man and he knows perfectly well that there isn't one chance in 718,000 million billion that he'll ever get a dollar that he doesn't work for and earn; and still he's always hoping and thinking that something might happen.

And so when he gets to the office in the morning he looks in the letter box there, not really with the expectation of finding a fortune, but nevertheless, thinking that there might be something; not disappointed if there isn't, but wishing that he might find there a check for $1,000,000 from somebody or somewhere, or notice of some fortune that had been left to him that he was now to come and claim.

It's just the same when he goes home at night. He's been away all day, time enough for forty things to happen, for forty fortunes to come, and still it is not an absolutely impossible thing, and so he's always kind o' hoping that he'll hear some good news when he goes home.

He never does; he finds everything going along there placidly; there hasn't been any fortune sent in or brought in by Uncle Sam, and he knows they'd speak of it if there had been; but sometimes he says to Mrs. Blinkey jokingly:

"Anybody leave us two million to-day?"

"No," says Mrs. Blinkey smiling.

"One million?"

"No."

"Half a million, maybe?" says Mr. Blinkey.

"No, nor half a million," says Mrs. Blinkey.

"Perhaps it was a hundred thousand? We could do with that."

"No, not a hundred thousand."

"Not a dollar?" says Mr. Blinkey.

"No, not even a dollar," says Mrs. Blinkey.

"Well, then," says Mr. Blinkey, "I guess I'll smoke my pipe," and he does this right cheerfully. But he's always hoping.

THE WATER CURE.

Beauty and Health at the Beck of Every Woman.

Water! water, just as it is, if pure, is the most efficacious and cheapest of beautifiers. Generally speaking, we drink about one-fourth as much as we should through the day. Physicians advise water repeatedly, but we do not "get the habit." We are perhaps busy, and may allow a day to go by without one glass of water between meals; then we drink freely while we eat, which is worse than not drinking water at all, as it retards digestion, especially when the water is icy cold. One should drink water four times a day regularly, half an hour after breakfast, after luncheon, after dinner and half an hour before retiring, the temperature to suit individual taste, (except, very cold). The quantity should never be less than four to six large glasses or three pints in twenty-four hours; the water should not be ice cold, nor of a nauseating lukewarmth. Many benefit by a cup of hot water before breakfast in the morning, and if troubled with a form of indigestion called "gas" half a teaspoonful of powdered charcoal should be added. It affords speedy relief; then omit any liquid at meals. Avoid fatty, rich foods; masticate thoroughly and slowly. It is surprising how soon one becomes used to not drinking while eating, and also how soon the good results will be manifest. Many feel better when they drink a smaller quantity more frequently; but the individual must be his own judge regarding this, just so long as he imbues his prescribed three pints in twenty-four hours.

One woman, whose skin is the admiration of all, washes her face with lukewarm water, the best toilet soap and a piece of soft old flannel each night upon retiring, and rules it very gently upward with an old linen towel. In the morning she dashes cold water over her face and neck and pats it dry with a Turkish towel, and slips a cupful of hot water again. She has never used a cosmetic, and attributes the beauty of her skin to the generous use of water, both internally and externally.

To keep the blood in perfect circulation there is no better aid than bathing. Use a Turkish towel mitten for the scrub-off and a huck, or Turkish, towel for the vigorous afterward. This is most beneficial as a tonic bath. A little salt added sometimes gives good results to those in poor health.

The value of systematic and proper use of water is really wonderful, but for a person who is physically weak (unless it is ordered by a physician) the cold "dip" in the morning should not be indulged in. Sometimes it depresses, and again it accelerates, the heart action, and causes exhaustion or sinking. After a strenuous day, what a luxury to have a sponge or tub bath, to don fresh linen and to sit down and rest. One should not indulge in it while very warm, or immediately after eating, however. Water is one of the greatest luxuries, and one which rich and poor may enjoy with equal freedom.

Looking for Light.

"Do you think Bliggins would make a good husband?" asked the conscientious youth.

"Why do you ask?" inquired the girl in surprise.

"Because if you think such a fool as Bliggins could manage it I have a good mind to take a change myself."—Washington Star.

Pop's Guess.

"Pop?"

"Yes, my son."

"What do they call that swine which goes from one of those houses to the other?"

"I guess that is what they call a house-to-house canvas, my boy."—Yonkers Statesman.

No girl has the same name when she grows up that she had when she was christened.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE CHICAGO THEATERS.

RICHARD CARLE AT THE AUDITORIUM, CHICAGO.

Richard Carle, who found such favor in Chicago last spring when he played his newest musical comedy, "Mary's Lamb," at the Illinois Theater, returns to the Auditorium, Chicago, next Sunday matinee, Nov. 1, with his lively company. Mr. Carle has made a number of improvements in "Mary's Lamb" since he wandered east with it, and he brings back almost an entirely new comedy, "Leander" and "Nurse," both of which have proved great favorites. He has also added many lines and jokes, and now the play moves with the speed of an airship.

Since leaving Chicago "Mary's Lamb" has enjoyed a run of a month in Boston and it has been presented in New York for almost four months. Everywhere it is recognized as the greatest of all the musical comedies in which Mr. Carle has appeared, and the eloquent comedian has "The Tenderfoot," "The Mayor of Tokio" and "The Spring Chicken" to his credit. In "Mary's Lamb" Mr. Carle has the part of a hen-pecked husband. He has fitted himself perfectly with his part, and now practically every sentence he utters is the signal for a laugh. During his engagement at the Auditorium, this famous author-comedian will appear for the first time in his stellar career at popular prices: 25 cents, 50 cents, 75 cents and $1.00.

CHICAGO OPERA HOUSE.

Raymond Hitchcock, in "The Merry-Go-Round," the kaleidoscope musical play which has attracted such splendid audiences to the Chicago Opera House during the past week, continues at that house. Each part in which Hitchcock appears gives him an opportunity of which he takes advantage, being entirely different from the previous one. His Hen Stubbs in "The Merry-Go-Round" is an entirely distinct character from that of King Dodo, or the one in which he appeared in "The Yankee Tourist," or in fact that of the many roles in which he has appeared. The company supporting the comedian is a particularly strong one in names, among those most prominent in the cast being: Cathryn Rowe Palmer, a young woman who made a distinct hit on the opening night in the role of Martha Straggles, her rough soubrette work being the best that has been seen here in a long time; Ignacio Martiniello, always an artist; Bobby North, Jonathan Keefe, George McKay, John Cantwell, Charles Aveling, Margaret Sawyer, Alice Sawyer, Stella Manry, Lillian Rice and Angie Weimers. The chorus is an exceptional one, both from the point of good looks, and in the energetic way in which they go about their work, much credit being due to the stage director for this latter feature. The music, while of the "popular" order, is pleasing and catchy, and the whole performance is one of the sort that is so well liked by American audiences.

MY VICKERS.

Much of interest, theatrically, will occur in McVicker's Theater, Chicago, within the next two months. Beginning Sunday, Nov. 1, Kiaw & Erlanger will present Guy Standing and Theodore Roberts in "The Right of Way," the dramatization of Sir Gilbert Parker's splendid novel, presented at McVicker's only at popular prices—Kiaw & Erlanger making an exception of this fine theater.

For Thanksgiving the ever-charming rural New England play, "Way Down East," will be the bill, presented with all the attention to detail and the same complete scenic equipment and the superior cast which have made the names of Joseph R. Grismer and Wm. A. Brady synonyms for all that is good in the dramatic world.

Most interesting, too, is the announcement that Denman Thompson will play for three weeks in December in his famed drama, "The Old Homestead," making his only appearances in the west at McVicker's. Mr. Thompson, who is beloved and revered wherever the theater is known and admired, is over 75 years old. Mr. Thompson plays only in Boston, New York and Chicago, and anyone wishing to see him must journey to one of those cities for the opportunity. His dignified and splendid art is as youthful as it was forty years ago and is ripened by years of thought and study. His engagement is distinctly the great feature of the present theatrical season. He will play during the three weeks in December that precede Christmas.

MAJESTIC.

For the week of November 2nd, the Majestic Theater, Chicago, one of the model playhouses of America, will have another of those "all star" bills for which it is noted. It is said of the Majestic that it presents better all around bills than any other vaudeville theater in the country, and any one who has ever attended any of the performances given in this great theater is certain that it is not an idle boast on the part of the management. "The Van Dyck," a famous one-act play, is new to Chicago and the West, will be offered as headliner for the first week in November, and it is said that this little classic is probably the most pretentious literary work ever presented in vaudeville. Eddie Fay, the eccentric comedienne of "The Belle of Avenue A" fame, will be another of the important entertainers with a line of comedy songs and sayings which have been a source of delight to audiences. The Melant Trio, formerly the popular Melant Trio, but now strengthened by five new members, will present a great singing number which has aroused great enthusiasm in the Eastern theaters. Work and Over, two eccentric comedy acrobats, whose extraordinary twists and funny falls, have caused audiences to laugh, and Harry Richards, a musical comedy star, assisted by Dorothy Daley, play a smart musical sketch. Silbous' trained cats, seen in this country for the first time, is a great novelty, and there are half a dozen other good numbers.

WHITNEY OPERA HOUSE.

Monday night, Nov. 2, the one hundredth performance of "A Broken Idol" will be celebrated at the Whitney Opera House, Chicago, with unusual eclat. On that occasion, every woman who attends will be given a souvenir in the shape of a Billiken, one of those new little idols called "The-God-of-things-as-they-ought-to-be." These little idols are all the rage at the present time, and retail for 75 cents each. The souvenir is particularly appropriate in the light of the name of the show.

"A Broken Idol" it will be recalled had a very stormy beginning. It was first produced in Springfield, during the race riots in that city, and the premiere was attended by many exciting scenes. The chorus girls were escorted to and from the theater under military guard, and the first performance was given under the protection of the mayor of the city and the governor of the State. Otis Harlan takes the lead in the flogging, and Alice Yorkie, Carrie Perkins, Madge Voe, Don Bergere, George Richards, Otto Hoffman, Charles H. Bowers, David Andrada and Lawrence Comer are some of the other well known players in the cast.

SPORTING NEWS.

When the whistle blew for the finish of last week's basket ball game between the Senecas and the Tabernacle, the sports of Chicago, athletic teams representing Downers Grove, chalked up their sixth straight victory, and have yet to suffer a defeat. Two of these victories belong to the football team who have victories over the Charlemonts of Chicago and the Auroras by the scores of 10 to 0 and 15 to 0 respectively. The Senecas also have two victories to their credit. One over the Elgin Y. M. C. A. team, 46 to 37, and one over the Tabernacle Baptists by the score of 42 to 13. The Senecas held one victory, defeating the First Presbyterians of Chicago 22 to 9, and the credit for the other triumph belongs to the D. G. A. C. team, who won one of the closest games ever played in the local hall. With five seconds to play and the score 30 to 29 in favor of the visitors, Torrey caged the ball for the winning basket. Five seconds more and the game would have gone on record as a defeat, but "BIB" was there in a pinch with the necessary work being the best that has been seen here in a long time; Ignacio Martiniello, always an artist; Bobby North, Jonathan Keefe, George McKay, John Cantwell, Charles Aveling, Margaret Sawyer, Alice Sawyer, Stella Manry, Lillian Rice and Angie Weimers. The chorus is an exceptional one, both from the point of good looks, and in the energetic way in which they go about their work, much credit being due to the stage director for this latter feature. The music, while of the "popular" order, is pleasing and catchy, and the whole performance is one of the sort that is so well liked by American audiences.

Downers Grove football team won its second consecutive game last Saturday afternoon, defeating Aurora. The visitors were completely outclassed at all stages of the game, the ball lay in their territory practically all of the time. The heavy line smashes of the Downers boys could not be beat and Smith, Bradbury and Vix tore up many runs good for from five to thirty yards.

In the second half both teams reported to forward passes, as a scoring medium. The passes often went astray or were intercepted, both teams losing many yards through their inability to work these plays. Wells, Bradbury and Vix made the touchdowns for the locals. No goals were kicked owing to the high wind. The boys play the Wonders of Chicago next Saturday, the 31st. They have a good team and the games are always interesting. So don't make any excuses, but be on hand and root for the Downers Grove football team.
