TOMAS ESTRADA PALMA.

had been ruled and the victory won, through American intervention. It was natural that his grateful countrymen should select Tomas Estrada Palma to be their first president in fact, as he had already been their president 30 years before in name.

President Palma found high office no bed of roses. His political opponents accused him of undue ambition and of usurpation of power.

The veteran patriot retired to his old estate on the Cauto river, far from the turmoil of politics and intrigue. There he ended his days in the seclusion of a private life.

On entering the stable suddenly the head of the house found the hostler and his own young son deeply engaged with the broken trail of a kite.

"How is it, William," he began, severely. "I know I never find you at work when I come out here?"

"I know," volunteered his son; "it's on account of those rubber heels you're wearing now."

Restored to Health by Vinol "I was run down and weak from indigestion and general debility, also suffered from vertigo. I saw a cod liver preparation called Vinol advertised and decided to give it a trial, and the results were most gratifying.

Vinol is not a patent medicine—but a preparation composed of the medicinal elements of cod's livers, combined with a tonic iron and wine.

All such persons in this vicinity are asked to try Vinol on our offer to refund their money if it fails to give satisfaction.

VINOL is sold in Downers Grove by Bush & Simonson, Druggists.
