CLOCK GIVEN UP BY SEA.

Gift to Late King Oscar "Goes" After Centuries of Polar Sen.

At the entrance of the chamber the Scraphin in the royal palace in Stockholm there is a clock which was the late King Oscar's especial pride. represents a lion held in leash by youth, both of which figures move with the clockwork in the most natural fashion. It was a gift from the explorer Nordensk jold

The other day, when President Fallieres visited the palace, King Gustaf related the story of the clock to him as he heard it from the explorer. One day, while in port at Spitzbergen, Nordenskjold was visited by a fisherman, share them __poston Post. who said:

"Since I began my life I brought up many marvels from the sea. I know that there is no limit to the power of God, but, none the less, I was afraid when my nets brought up chest of metal so heavy that it burst the meshes and required four men to put on board. Fearing some witch craft, we left it a while unopened, but finally, with great labor, we used up innumerable instruments on what appeared to be the enchanted walls of the chest, and brought forth this."

Nordenskjold replied: "You are right, my son. You cannot keep the prodigy. How much do you want for your 'catch?" For 30 crowns he bought the statue clock, fished up from among the icebergs of the Polar sea, and presented it to King Oscar. Antiquarians were consulted, and all agreed that it was one of the famous Augsburg clocks, such as alone were made there at the end of the fifteenth century. They further promised that it had been so well perserved in the ice and in its metal case that it should "go" and strike perfectly, and so R

AUDITORIUM THEATER, CHICAGO.

Milward Adams, Manager.

"The Newlyweds and Their Baby," the big music show founded on George McManus' famous cartoons of like name, has scored greatly at the Auditorium Theater, Chicago, where it is now running. The big company of sixty-two and a baif people (the half, of course, being the baby) the music, the wardrobe, the scenery, all made good and as for Mr. Rosen, who plays the part of the baby, Napoleon, well- Examiner, Nov. 15, 1908; bis consummate skill in handling this role imbedded him in the hearts of all. At the opening performance Sunday old gray beards shook with volcanic mirth: grandmammas cried out that Napoleon Newlywed, the baby, was the cutest thing that the stork ever brought home. Children and beardless youths clamored for more. There you have it. Summed up. "The Newlyweds and Their Baby" scored one of the biggest hits of the current season at the Auditorium. The play remains for two weeks more.

MAJESTIC.

For the week of Jan. 25th the Ma-Jestic Theater, Chicago, will have a strong bill, headed by the famous Leo Ditrichstein, one of the most clever and for the occasion he has arranged a clever one act comedy and provided himself with an excellent supporting company. Miss Selma Branatz, whose juggling feats are way out of the ordinary, and who seldom, if ever, misses a trick, is another headliner. The Vindobonas, who come direct from the European music halls to appear exclusively in the leading vandeville theaters in this country, offer some clever grotesque musical conceits. Ben Welch, who is perhaps the best exponent of Hebrew and Italian characterizations. will be another of the important people on the bill. M'lle, Renz and her wonderful horses is another act that is always welcome on a vandeville bill. The Dellaven sextette offers a pleasing musical and dancing spectacle called The Under Study." Frank Gardiner and Lottle Vincent will play their laughing fantasy called "Winning a Queen." Raymond and Caverly, the erman comedy due, who have made andiences laugh in all parts of the world, will be on hand with a new line of funnylsuns and parody songs.

Add the pineapple and Not only will "The Melting Pot" achieve, before its Chicago run ends, the record number of performances given by any play in Chicago, but it will also have the honor of playing to larger crowds and to larger receipts than any other serious play that depends upon thought and study for its success. "The Melting Pot" owes its prosperity to the spirit of optimism which pervades its every scene, to its patriotism and love of America, and American institutions. That "The Mel: ing Pot" is thoroughly American in theme is proven by the inspiring demonstration given its great third act nightly, also by the enthusiastic manner in which the National airs rendered by the orchestra are received when the andience rises to its feet and remains of standing until the overture is concluded. THE KING OF DIAMONDS HAS LICEMSE TAKES AWAY. Alleged Bogus Cem Man Raits at Newspapers.

BURLINGTON, IA., Nov. 14.—For some time past newspapers in Iowa cities have been reporting the operations of a man whom they called "The King of Diamonds." It appears that there was nothing criminal in his operations, which consisted in selling "phoney" diamonds, but his methods of procedure were not exactly according to the rules. He usually drops into a jobbing house and tells of meeting such and such a representative of the house on the road and selling him a diamond to be delivered at the store. He explains that the diamond is only an imitation, and offers to sell anybody else around the place the same thing. Thus be works, up an interest and usually succeeds in selling some of his glassware. Mr. Jack of Diamonds dropped into City Auditor Norton's office one morning and secured a license to sell his wares. He had only been out a short time, however, until Chief of Police Hiltz learned of him. Calling in the peddler, he relieved him of his license and gave him back the money he had paid for it. As the man had committed no crime he was re-to trouble or embarrassment, as shown by the following article from the Chicago leased. He was bitter against the newspapers for injuring his business.
