COUNCIL, No. 110.

OF THE ROYAL LEAGUE

The entertainment given by Victor, Council of the Royal League at Mo daff's hall Tuesday evening was one of the best entertainments ever given in the village and was thoroughly enjoyed the Bird case; by the large and appreciative audience Archon J. N. Modaff welcomed those present on behalf of the council and introduced the several numbers of the following program:

Piano solo Miss Henrietta Staat-Recitation Miss Gladys Clampitt Song Walter Stants Address L. C. Witte Violin solo John Woelfersheim, Jr. Accompanied on the plano by Miss

Henrietta Wolfersheim. Exhibition of Indian club swinging Alvin Sucher

Miss Mildred Briggs, Walter Staats. Original poem. Mrs. R. E. Briggs And a song, "Evening Devotion," by and Miss Briggs. The local talent performed in their usual good style and were well ap-Mauded, Prof. Rountree, who is the Supreme Orator of the Royal League, took the fancy of the andience with several original pieces delivered in his own inimitable style.

L. C. Witte, who is Archon of the Advisory Council, in his talk on the good of the order, made some good points in favor of fraternal insurance. Alvin Sucher's in his exhibition o club swinging was a marvel of skill especially when he used his electrical clubs, which alone was worth the price of admission, but there was no admission fee charged.

Victory Council pays the bills and their members and friends are always welcome to come up and spend a pleasant evening at their expense.

THE CIRCUS.

The choir of St. Joseph's Church will give a "circus" at the Auditorium on next Saturday evening, April 24.

The entire affair will be on the bur lesque order. Do not be afraid of being attacked by the wild animals, as they are all harmless.

There will be a number of side shows; for instance, the wild man of Horney; stake charmer, palmist, sword swallower and many others. An enjoyable entertainment is noticipated.
