AT THE CHICAGO THEATERS

MAJESTIC.

For the week of May 3rd, the Me jestic theater, Chicago, offers a number of unusually high class attractions which are certain to meet with favor at the hands of its patrons. Elita Proctor Otis, the well known come celebrated with theater goers, will present a sparkling little one-act farce entitled "Mrs. Bunner's Bun." This is the first joint appearance in vaude ville of this clever couple, who have just completed their engagement with the sensational New York success. "The Girl from Rector's." Another famons headliner on this bill will be Trixie Friganza, who has starred in many of the most important musical comedy productions, and who is a rec ognized favorite everywhere. Still an other interesting event of this program will be the Tschernoff horse, one of the most remarkable exhibitions of animal training seen on the stage. The Piccolo Midgers, the famous little band of Lilliputian comedy entertain ers, with their burlesque boxing, jug gling and farelcal nonsense. Happy Jack Gardner, the musical comedian, known as "the man with the horn," is always brimful of clever jests and parodies, and Crouch and Welch present a dainty dancing novelty. Bob Adams, well known through his many song compositions and Bob Allen, have a singing number, and there are half a dozen other clever persons who help make up a very pleasing show.

M'VICKER'S THEATER.

So many novelties and so many great eposides are crowded into the three hours of "The Sins of Society." which is running in McVicker's theater, Chicago, some has said it is as full of entertainment and thrills as a threering circus. O. L. Hall in the Journal said: "It is the biggest and best melodrama ever seen in this country and is drawing the town to McVick er's," and therein he spake knowingly. for the spacious playhouse on Madison street is packed at each performance of the great Drury Lane play.

The biggest of the thrills-those in which scenery and acting are combined are the clubhouse lawn at Longchamps on Grand Prix day; the leap over the waterfall on the upper Thames river; the sinking of the mon ster ship, the Beachy Head, with ber load of hunanity, and the two impressive church scenes wherein the biorgan of McVicker's booms out Pleydell's "Hynm" and the Wedding March which Mendelssohn wrote for "The Midsummer Night's Dream. Perhaps the greatest novelty in this tremendoms production is the dog breakfast, a scene which satirizes the fads and whims of society women, and which gives great opportunity for the display of handsome gowns-the two Painter and Decorator hundred worn in the play are from the atelier of Redfern of Paris and express the latest modes of the gay empl tal of the world. Caroline, Duchess of Danebury, is the histess and the guest chafter and talk scandal, and feed their pumpered pets on the daintiest of foods. The dogs are of many sorts and they are dressed in jewels and satths, silks and laces. They behave with the gravity of human beings.

CHICAGO OPERA HOUSE. PLAY GOERS OFTSIDE CHICAGO MUST ORDER TICKETS AHEAD FOR MR. HENRY E. DINEY IN

"MARY JANES PA Mr. Henry E. Dixer has scored se great a sucress in Hr. Henry W. Savage's production of the beautiful Middle West home play at the Chicago Opera House that the management of the latter theater wish to impress upon play-goers outside of Chicago the necessity of engaging their seats four or five days ahead of the date upon which they intend to witness the performance. Owing to the great success of Mr. Dixey and "Mary Jane's Pa." there has been a heavy demand upon the Chicago Opera House for seats and it is with a desire to satisfy play patrons outside of Chicago that the management want them to order their tickets early enough to insure the best

Unless one is familiar with the boundless range of Mr. Dixey's art, it is difficult to associate this charming actor with the character he plays in his present big comedy-drama success. In "Mary Jane's Pa." Miss Ellis has fashloned a new stage personality and Mr. Dixey brings to its delineation and exquisite art that has made his career an important chapter of America's stage history. Hiram Perkins, the role played by Mr. Dixey, is a ne'er-to-do well, aesthetic tramp printer, who deserts his wife and children, leaving them in Gosport, a small Indiana town In order that he may drift around the world and satisfy his desire to see the countries and the people about whom he has read. After remaining away from home for eleven years, he returns unexpectedly to his astonished wife and the story that ensues is both dramatic and amus ing. It is the general consensus opinion among the press and public that "Mary Jane's Pa" unquestionably is the best play in Chicago.

VINOL CURES CHRONIC COUGHS. COLDS AND BRONCHITIS After Other Remedies Fail

"I have been troubled with a chronic cold and bronchitis for a long time and have tried many remedies without finding relief. Through the kind suggestion of a friend I tried Vinol, and after taking four bottles, am entirely cured." A. H. Wilde, 733-8th Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.

S. McDonald, 147 W. Congress St. Paul, Minn., writes: "I contracted a severe cold last winter and thought I would never get rid of it. I tried Vinol as a last resort, and it has completely cured me." Vinol combines two world-famed tonics, the healing, medicinal properties of cod liver oil and tonic iron, deliciously palatable and agreeable to the weakest stomach. For this wason, Vinol is unexcelled as a strength builder for old people, delicate children, weak and run-down persons, after sickness and for Chronic Coughs, Colds and Bronchitis.

VINOL is sold in Downers Grove any kind of interest if you will only by Bush & Simonson, Druggiste.

The Home-Life at Georgian Court. One of the most magnificent country houses in the United States is Georgian Court, at the head of the beautiful lake Carasaljo, among the tall, straight kingly pines of Lakewood, N.J., and the wife and mother who makes this palace a home is Mrs. George J. Gould, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Kingdon, formerly of

The beautiful Edith Kingdon, after completing her education in England, adopted the stage as a career, and her talent, grace, charm and presence were winning recognition when in 1886 she was married to George Gould, the millionaire railway owner, and son of Jay Gould, at one time America's leading financier. Mrs. Gould soon became one of the most popular of the younger society women of the country and a leader in the world of fashion. Beautiful is the house in which she lives, but far more beautiful is the atmosphere of love, sweetness and companionship that fills the home with sunshine and happiness. It is said that wealth often makes fair favorites of fortune forgetful of the privileges and joys of motherhood, sacrificing on the altar of fashion, time and attention that should be paid to loving watchfulness of the welfare of the children; but Mrs. Gould is a model mother to her seven children, a devoted companion, confidant and friend. The Goulds are practically the only members of the ultra-fashionable set who reside in the country the year round. Georgian Court, built of light gray brick and terra cotta in the style of the French Renaissance, lies in beautiful grounds rendered exclusive by a high fence of wrought iron with bases and interspersed posts of gray stone to match the house. The stables, harmonizing in architecture with the mausion itself, are stocked with horses of every description for the family

Over the stables is the theatre, a dainty, bijou play-house, complete in every detail, furnished in dark red and gold and seating about one hundred and twentyfive. The Casino, devoted primarily to sport, has a special race-track, a great plunge swimming tank, courts for all games, and about forty bed-rooms and half as many bath-rooms, to be used when a large house-party overtaxes the hospitality of the mansion. The Sunken Garden, which is sixty feet in width and 120 in length, is floored and walled with flawless marble, and fine sculpture peoping from a dark background of evergreen shrubs and bushes, is reflected in the clear waters of a lagoon. Near by, too, is the wonderful electric fountain, sixty feet in diameter, of white marble; the centre piece consisting of a colossal Nautilus shell of bronze, forming a chariot on which stands the heroic statue of a man driving a pair of purest marble sea-horses.
