SARDOU AND THE SPIRIT.

The Dramatist Wrote and Drew Ple tures While "Under Control."

Before he made his reputation by writing plays Victorien Sardou, the French dramatist, who was deeply interested in spiritualism, had a remark able experience in taking dictation. He had been interested in occult phenomena, and by chance he came into communication with a spirit personality who signed himself "Bernard Pallsay." M. Sardou told the story of his experiments in an article entitled harm. "Only the Blindly Ignorant Scoff," in the Delineator. He said.

One day in my room with two friends I thought I would make the little table where we had taken our coffee run about the room, as I had often done when alone. Without saying anything I put my hand on the table, but it would not budge. I tried in vain all the time they were there to make it move, but to no avail. As soon as they were gone I could make It do what I pleased, even jump clear off the floor. So I took up my pencil and asked: "But why would you not make the table move while my friends | Chicago ..... 6 5 . ashington .. 2 were here?' The hand which held fhe pencil wrote. my table one day idling, dreaming, not making any effort to do anything in particular. All of a sudden my hand began to work on the paper before me with a rapidity and precision which astonished me. And it kept this up for close to two hours. The result was a fantastic piece of work drawn in delicate lines, fine almost as a spi der's web, and at the bottom a signature -- "Bernard Palissy." "What is it?" I asked.

And my automatic hand wrote, "The house of Swedenborg on the planet Jupiter." This was considered as most curious by all my friends, who knew that personally I had no aptitude for drawing. A plate was prepared, and I was given an etching tool. The resuit, in the same order of design, was a more elaborate piece of work, this time curiously combined out of all sorts of musical terms, clefs, notes, bars, and se on, and the whole was designated as the house of Mozart, also on Jupiter, and the whole was gain signed "Palinsy." ### EX-MONARCH IS TAKEN AWAY.

Reported to Have Been Transported to Asia Minor-101 Gnns Sound End of His Reign.

Abdul Hamid II., Sultan of Turkey, has been deposed from the throne of the Ottoman Empire by his subjects for his interference with the progress of popular government under the constitution granted by him last July, and his brother, Mehemmed Reschad Efdecided change was decided upon Tuesday by the national assembly without a dissenting voice and it was carried out with the utmost rapidity. The Sultan is now a prisoner in the hands of the young Turks and carefully guarded by his captors.

The formal decree removing Abdul Hamid from all power of the Turkish Empire was issued by the Shiek-ul-Islam, the head of the church, in the regular form prescribed by the tenets of the Mohammedan faith. The city of Constantinople was alive with excitement, and throngs of the populace filled the streets. A number of arrests were made, but the change of sovereigns was effected without disorder of any kind. A salute of 101 guns announcing the end of the reign of Abdul Hamid and the beginning of that of Mehemmed Reschad Effendl was fired.

The Yildiz garrison surrendered Sunday to the constitutional forces in Constantinople. The commanders of these battalions began sending in their submission to Mahmoud Schefket Pasha Saturday night and the whole of the troops protecting the palace gave their formal and unconditional surrender shortly after dawn.

Sultan Abdul Hamld had been permitted to remain within the walls of the Yildiz Klosk, where Saturday, in company with his ministers, he waited for the outcome of the struggle between his loyal troops and the army of investment, each hour bringing to him word of a fresh disaster.
