MARCH 8—President Taft calls special session. MARCH 15—Special session convenes. MARCH 16—President Taft sends message. MARCH 17—Payne tariff bill introduced in House.

TARIFF PRAISES PAYNE BILL.

I have signed the Payne tariff bill because I believe it to be the result of sincere effort on the part of the Republican party to make a downward revision...

This is not a perfect tariff bill, or a complete compliance with the promises made strictly interpreted, but a fulfillment free from criticism in respect to a subject matter involving many schedules and thousands of articles...

There have been a great number of real decreases in rates, and they constitute a sufficient amount to justify the statement that this bill is a substantial downward revision and a reduction of excessive rates.

FINAL LAND RUSH IS SMALL. Registration for Western Indian Reservations Below Expectations. With the closing of the notary's office at midnight Thursday night the last opportunity to apply for flathead reservation lands passed. The final rush was not up to expectations, and it seems doubtful if the total of the applications will reach 300,000. The official statement issued by Judge Witten, superintending the opening, shows the following receipts of applications for the day, with totals: Covr d'Alene, 4,307; total, 104,416. Kallispell, 1,420; total, 22,298. Missoula, 346; total, 50,994. Spokane, 4,573; total, 96,821. This may be increased another 20,000 by applications yet to be mailed, all of which must reach the land office before the drawing begins.

ROB NEBRASKA GOVERNOR.

Pickpockets Justice Shallenberg in Crowd and Get $130.

Coming across Iowa the other day Governor Shallenberg of Nebraska stopped at Marshalltown, while awaiting around the waiting room there he got into a crowd and was jostled about for an instant. He thought nothing of the matter at the time, but shortly after getting on the train, pursuing his journey westward, he discovered that his pocketbook containing $130 was gone. Arriving in Omaha he had to borrow money to buy a ticket to Lincoln. The Governor feels certain that pickpockets were working in the crowd at Marshalltown and that he was one of the victims.

SALMON CATCH PROVES IMMENSE.

Fish So Many That Washington Canneries Cannot Handle Them.

Countless thousands of salmon are being permitted to ascend to their spawning grounds without hindrance from fish traps, which have been lifted, says a dispatch from Bellingham, Wash. While the canneries are glutted with fish, dozens of scows are along side loaded with salmon and tows are coming in with long strings of fish-laden barges. It is proving an impossibility to handle the catch. The price of sockeyes has fallen to 10 cents each.

SLAYERS OF PETROSINO TRACED.

Two Men Now Under Arrest at Columbus in Italy at Time.

Inspector Oldfield in his report to the Postmaster General states that Antonio Marruffa and Cologero Vicario, both of Dennison, O., who are in jail at Columbus awaiting action by the grand jury, were in Sicily at the time of the murder of Lieut. Petrosino, the New York detective. He says they returned to the United States after the assassination and furnished the theory that if the New York police should cooperate with the postal inspectors it is possible that connection can be traced between them and the society of the "Blackhanders" who are believed to have murdered the New York police lieutenant.

Nineteen money orders, each for $1,000, and one for $50 have been traced to Italy for the fund to protect from justice the slayers of Petrosino. The money was sent by Camilla Nunnongi Lima, who is supposed to be either the sister or wife of Salvatore, the head of the organized society at Marion, O.

DROWN IN ACCIDENT TO LAUNCH.

Craft Carrying Passengers at Sunday School Picnic Strikes Piling.

Two bodies are lying at the Canton police station in Baltimore, and two others at the bottom of the Patapsco river, while sixteen persons who were their companions are alive and thankful that they were not also drowned, when a gasoline launch carrying them was wrecked. Mrs. Katherine E. Brown, aged 60 years; Frank Pryor, aged 19 years, and two children lost their lives. Pryor was acting as engineer of the launch. The others were attending the annual picnic of the Huntington Avenue Baptist Church Sunday school. Twenty persons had entered the launch for a short trip on the river. The craft had reached a point about a hundred yards from shore, when it struck some piling, the top of which was under water. The occupants were thrown into the water, which at that point is only about four feet deep. Rescue parties at once put out from shore and saved sixteen occupants of the launch.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE CHICAGO THEATERS.

A new recruit in the field of vaudeville is Mr. Edward Abeles, the distinguished actor, who has been starring in Frederick Thompson's great play, "Brewster's Millions," for the past three seasons. Mr. Abeles is probably one of the greatest captures ever made by the vaudeville managers who are constantly on the alert to engage prominent stars for the musical and dramatic stage. Mr. Abeles' initial appearance in his new field will be in the Majestic Theater, Chicago, during the week of August 16th. Another important number will be the Willy Packer troupe, European novelty acrobatic performers who do all sorts of clever and amusing stunts. A singing number will be offered by the Empire Comedy Four, who combine comedy and melody in just the right proportions. Theirs is a musical conceit called, "What's the Answer?" The Five Mowatta, who are the last word in the line of Indian club juggling, will be on hand with their wonderful performance. John McCloskey, a famous Irish singer, will sing songs of the old country, while Hal Godfrey, a brilliant young farceur, will stir up an end of fun with a comedy act, sparkling with witty lines and humorous situations. Jimmy Lucas, a Chicago boy, who has won fame as a monologist, singer and dancer, will be a welcome entertainer, and so will the two Doherty Sisters, who possess not only great ability, but are strikingly handsome young ladies. Carlotta, the human dragon, is an importation from the other side of the water who can twist himself in every imaginable shape, and then there are half a dozen other vaudeville notables who add charm and distinction to this attractive program.

RIVERVIEW EXPOSITION

Chicago's Big Show Breaks All World's Fair Records in Attendance and Splendor.

All world's records in attendance have been broken by Riverview Exposition, Chicago's latest and greatest show. Although the turning point of one-half the season has not yet arrived more than 5,000,000 persons have passed through the turnstiles. Before the season ends it is estimated 10,000,000 will have revelled in the mystery, splendor and delights of this magnificent exhibition. Allowing the big city on the lake one-half of the past attendance there remain 2,500,000 out-of-town visitors—more than ever visited any other world's fair in any country.

The Chicago Daily News complains of the haphazard way of reporting car accidents in that city and pleads for a law, like New York's, compelling the traction people to register officially within a specified time all casualties. "Chicago," says the News, is behind many other communities with respect to the reporting of accidents on transportation lines. In New York the companies are required to make to the public service commission detailed reports of all accidents. Further that body has its own investigating force to conduct additional inquiries and to make permanent records of the facts as found, as well as to formulate recommendations, based on study of the facts, for the prevention of accidents in the future.

Dramatic Humor in China.

At most towns we have read of theatricals formed one of the sights. The dim and discord of the band attracted us more than once even if the play had no fascination. It matters little or not at all to a foreigner what the plot is all about, as this drama on for two or three days, sometimes longer. We witnessed a screaming act which was evidently the punishment inflicted on the villains of the drama. Three men in almost a state of nudity were being soured with buckets of water and making many grimaces as the cold douche was dashed in their faces. Judging by the frantic shouts of the audience this "situation" was evidently the height of dramatic humor, and as we strolled away the poor villains were still taking their punishment as straggle villains should.—Shanghai Mercury.

Point for Philatelists.

A Paris contemporary has made a discovery concerning our English postage stamps recalling the curious phenomenon of the Servian Coronation stamps, on which the head of the murdered King Alexander can be seen by inverting the head of King Peter, only the peculiarity in the present instance is of a more cheerful nature. We are told that on looking at the current English stamps through the magnifying glass there can be seen on the profile of the King a young and beautiful woman in the act of putting on her hat, the youth and beauty element being without doubt purely imaginative. The eye of the King represents the lady's head, the eyebrow her hat, while the nose on one side and the shading of the cheek on the other show the two arms in the act of attaching her hat.—London Globe.

A Study in Contortions.

Teachers are supposed to be as exact in practice as in precept, yet sometimes they become careless. A Brooklyn teacher recently brought a smile from her scholars by her utter disregard of dictation. One of the girls of her class was busily chewing gum, in defiance of school law. To make her crime the more heinous she was sitting with her feet sprawled out in the aisle. The teacher, entering the room suddenly, was quick to call attention to the misbehavior. "Jennie Jones," she said sharply, "take that gum out of your mouth and put your feet in!"—New York Times.

WORTH QUOTING

THE LATE GEORGE MEREDITH, AS QUOTED IN THE WESTMINSTER GAZETTE, THOUGHT THAT 80,000 GERMANS "COULD MARCH THROUGH ENGLAND FROM END TO END." WHAT ENGLAND SEEMS TO NEED IS A LITTLE OF THE DREADNOUGHT PRINCIPLE ON LAND. THEN, SUGGESTS THE NEW YORK WORLD, SHE WOULD NOT BE AFRAID OF GERMAN MAROCHES.

If we are to better our conditions and uplift society, it must be done from the bottom up, insists the Boston Post. The problem how to carry the child through the summer and have it healthier and happier at the end of it, is upon us. The vacation schools and the sand-box playgrounds are a good beginning. More are needed.

Although the republic of Cuba has been re-established scarcely long enough to get into good working order, notes the New York Herald, there starts an apparently inspired movement on the part of certain interests to keep the country stirred up and make it appear that the United States is likely to reintervene at any time.

Starting life turning bricks at 7 cents a day and today at the head of an establishment doing business of more than $500,000 a day is the record of a prominent New York City and Philadelphia merchant—and there isn't a poor boy in either city who cannot find encouragement and inspiration in such a record, proclaims the New York Herald.

What Elihu Root stood for as Secretary of State during the three and a half years of his incumbency of that office, as immediate successor to the late John Hay, is set forth in Putnam's Magazine, by Gaillard Hunt. The tasks to which this distinguished public servant—now Senator from New York State—particularly addressed himself were the reformation of the consular service, the development of a fraternal feeling toward the United States by the Latin American republics of North and Central South America, stricter definition of the scope of our naturalization law and the reformation of offices abroad, and the negotiation of arbitration treaties with four and twenty foreign countries.

The Chicago Daily News complains of the haphazard way of reporting car accidents in that city and pleads for a law, like New York's, compelling the traction people to register officially within a specified time all casualties. The beautiful facade of "Creation," with its Titanic "Guardian Angel" gleams with thousands of vari-colored lights.

lights. Over the main arch is an iridescent glow of rainbow brilliance, the source of which the initiated cannot discover. The marbled edifice with its opalescent festoons, flashes and falls of illuminant beauty is reflected in a crystal lake, out of which spouts prismatic sprays and fountains of cooling mists. Cascades rush down from aerial heights above the angel into the foaming waters.

The reverential dramas, "Creation," "Doomsday" or the "End of the World," another great exhibit, "The Passion Play" or "Life of Christ," and "The Temptation of St. Anthony," produced on a grand scale, are but three of the thousands of extraordinary attractions in the exhibition of this wonderful exposition. All car lines in Chicago lead to its gates.
